THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON XIII, SECOND QUARTER, INTER NATIONAL SERIES, JUNE 25.

Text of the Lesson, a Comprehensive Quarterly Review—Golden Text, John x, 11—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Copyright, 1905, by American Press Association.
LESSON XIII.—Jesus the Good Shepherd (John x, 1-18). Golden Text, John x, 11, "I am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd giveth His life for the sheep." That we may know Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God, and receiving Him, have life, is the Golden Text of the quarter and the summary of the gospel. That we may have life He laid down His life for us, bearing our sins in His own body, suffering in our stead, as we have seen in recent lessons.

Lesson XIV.—The raising of Lazarus (John xi, 32-44). Golden Text, John xi, 25, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life. He who voluntarily laid down His life for us, for no one could take it from Him (x, 18), has power to recall the absent spirit and give life and health even to such a corrupting body as that of Lazarus. Marvel not, for the time is coming when all that are in their graves shall hear His voice and come forth.

Lesson III.—The supper at Bethany (John xii, 1-11). Golden Text, Mark xiv, 8, "She hath done what she could." Mary of Bethany represents life abundant truly worshipping, Martha serving and Lazarus in communion, but note how these forms of life abundant affect others. Disciples murmur, and the religious world would kill it if they could. A mere form of life can be endured even by the devil, but real life, abundance of life, wells and rivers of living water, how few can endure!

Lesson IV.—The entry of Jesus into Jerusalem (John xii, 12-20). Golden Text, Matt. xxi, 9, "Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord." One great truth in this lesson is the literal fulfillment of Scripture by Him of whom Moses in the law and the prophets wrote. In the volume of the book it is written of Him, He is the substance of every shadow, the reality of every sacrifice, truly the Messiah of Israel, the King of the Jews, the King of kings and Lord of lords.

Lesson V.—Jesus washing the disciples' feet (John xiii, 1-14). Golden Text, Gal. v, 13, "By love serve one another." He knew that He had come from God and was going back to God, and He would teach His disciples, to whom He had given the glory which the Father gave Him, that while here in humiliation, waiting for the kingdom to come, we must not in any way seek our own greatness, but humble ourselves to walk with God.

Lesson VI.—The vine and the branches (John xv, 1-12). Golden Text, John xv, 8, "Herein is My Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit." The fruit is borne by the branches, but it is the vine that does it through the branches, and the branches simply abide, subject to the care of the husbandman. When the Christian life is understood there is a freedom from all anxiety and yet the growth and beauty of the lily and the fruitfulness of the vine.

Lesson VII.—Jesus prays for His followers (John xvii, 15-26). Golden Text, John xvii, 9, "I pray for them." Not only does He give us His own Spirit to live in us, teach us, guide us, comfort us, but He assures us that it is His life secures our life and that He ever liveth to make intercession for us (John xiv, 19; Rom. viii, 34). He does not save us to take us out of the world to heaven, but to leave us here as His witnesses, kept by His power.

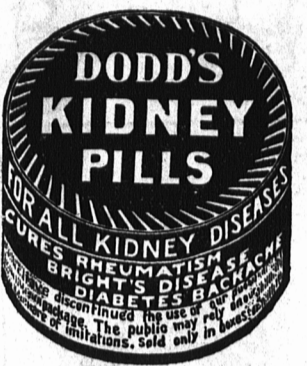

Lesson VIII.—Jesus before Pilate (John xviii, 28-40). Golden Text, John xviii, 37, "Every one that is of the truth heareth My voice." By His sufferings He made a full statement for sin, even the sins of the whole world, and to this we can add nothing, but His conduct before Pilate and while in the hands of His enemies teaches us how we should act before our enemies, for if we are truly His and living godly lives we will be hated by the world and find many enemies.

Lesson IX.—The crucifixion (John xix, 17-30). Golden Text, I Cor. xv, 3, "Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures." The hour came for which He came into the world, and He became a curse for us, for it is written, "Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree." Happy indeed are all who, seeing His sufferings, truly say, "For me," and receiving Him, cry gratefully, "Christ hath redeemed me from the curse of the law!"

Lesson X.—The resurrection (John xx, 11-23). Golden Text, I Cor. xv, 20, "But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept." The resurrection is that which makes all else effective, for if He be not risen there is no one saved, nor ever will be (I Cor. xv, 14-19). If He is not the risen Christ He is nothing, not even a good man, for He said that He would rise again the third day. But He is risen, and Gal. ii, 20, may be the language of every believer.

Lesson XI.—The message of the risen Christ (Rev. i, 10-20). Golden Text, Rev. i, 18, "I am He that liveth and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore." This is His testimony as He appeared to John in Patmos over sixty years after His return to the Father as our ever living High Priest ministering to His people. He lives; He ever liveth.

Lesson XII.—The heavenly home (Rev. xxii, 1-11). Golden Text, Rev. iii, 21, "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with Me in My throne." If redeemed by His precious blood, we are in conflict with the world, the flesh and the devil, but while waiting for the kingdom and living to hasten it we may make manifest in our lives a sample of it by seeing His face, serving Him only and reflecting His glory.

A Grand Result in Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. A. N. FRASER, Provincial Manager, The Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. May 20, 1905.
Dear Sir:—I acknowledge with thanks the receipt of your Company's cheque for $7030.30 on Bank of Montreal, also Annuity Policy No. 11723 which provides—That on May 1, 1905 and each year for life, I will receive three hundred dollars ($300), in settlement of my Matured $5000, 15-year endowment, 15-year Distribution Policy No. 401,652 with Deferred Annuity, in THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., of NEW YORK.
This I consider a splendid result, as to buy an Annuity of $300 at my age would cost $3,408, so that drawing $7030.30 and getting an Annuity of $300, I am getting practically a cash value of $3,430.30.
I also carry another policy in your company, in which I have all confidence.
Yours very truly,
(Signed) SIMON W. CRABBE.

Rapid Circulation in the "Bison" Heater

The expansion of hot water in the heater causes circulation. If the water heats at the bottom first, it cannot circulate till the water in the upper sections is also heated. Most heaters heat the bottom water first. The "Bison" heats the water at the top first. That is why it gets almost instantaneous circulation of hot water into the radiators—it is one of ten reasons why the "Bison" is the best heater.
