ful quota-four in one week, and exhibition week at that! Can any other town of its size beat it?

MacNeill-Cotton-Cotton-Roach Nuptials. Two quiet but pretty weddings were performed in Kensington, on Monday morning, Aug. 18th, at 7 a.m. in the Presbyterian church, Miss Madge L. MacNeill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George MacNeill, was united in holy wedlock to Mr. William L. Cotton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Athol Cotton, of Kensington. Rev. G. Corlye Webster, Pastor of Zion Church, Charlottetown, performed the ceremony. Miss Luella Biggar of Boston, Mass. a cousin of the bride, and Mr. Glenn Cotton, brother of the groom, witnessed the marriage. The bride looked very winsome in wedding dress of white satin while her traveling costume was gray with matching accessories. For several years Miss MacNeill has been chief operator at the Telephone exchange, Kensington. The popular young couple will reside in Kensington, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

Following this ceremony, at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride, Miss Alfreda Ellen Cotton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Cotton, was married to Mr. William James Roach, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Roach, of Souris. Rev. B. Chalmers Salter being the officiating clergyman. The first bridal party, with the immediate relatives, were present at the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Roach will reside in Summerside. The happy couples left together for a motor trip through the Maritime, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.

Pickering-MacNutt. Another quiet but interesting event took place at the United Church Manse, Kensington, on Wednesday morning Aug. 18th, when Rev. B. Chalmers Salter united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Miss Laura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Pickering, Sea View, to Mr. Albert MacNutt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace MacNutt, of Darnley. The parents of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. The bride was charmingly dressed in blue silk gowns, with matching accessories. Following the ceremony, the happy couple left on a short honeymoon trip. They will make their home in Darnley, where the groom is a popular young farmer.

Johnson-Millman. Another wedding of interest took place at the United Church Manse, Kensington, on Wednesday evening Aug. 18th, when Miss Millie Johnson, of Kensington, became the bride of Mr. Elbert Millman, of Long River. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. Chalmers Salter. The happy couple will reside in Long River.
