GIVE BOOKS TO JAIL LIBRARY—Miss Laura Hughes, Charlottetown, has received a letter from Mrs. Reginald Orcutt, Locarno, Switzerland, daughter of the late Basil King, announcing that two of her father's books were being sent to Prisoner's Aid for the library which is being established at the Queen's County Jail. "The Conquest of Fear" and "Faith and Success" were the volumes mentioned. Mrs. Orcutt whose home is in London, England, wrote that she and her mother were travelling and that when her mother returned to her apartment in Boston, Mass., she might be able to send additional books. Miss Hughes' letter had reached her in Locarno after following her about the world. She wished the work of the Prisoner's Aid here every success. Basil King spent several years of his life in this province.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding ceremony was performed at the Manse, Kensington, on Wednesday afternoon, December 22, 1937, when Miss Elva Katherine, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Stavert, Kelvin, was united in marriage to Ralph Moase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Moase, New Annan. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor Rev. Wm. O. Rhoad. The couple were unattended. The bride was becomingly attired in brown brocaded silk crepe. Immediately after the ceremony Mr Moase and his bride left by motor on a short honeymoon trip. Mr and Mrs. Moase will reside in New Annan where he recently purchased a beautiful farm property. Their many friends wish them every happiness. A few evenings previous to her marriage the bride was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stavert, Kelvin. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Harold Laird, the bride-to-be was ushered to a beautifully decorated chair by Miss Gladys Walker. A large basket laden with gifts was carried in by Mrs. Robert Stavert and Miss Mae Walker who also opened them. Miss Mary Stewart read the names and verses and good wishes of the donors while Georgie Yeo and Helen Forbes arranged them on the table. After thanking her friends with a few well-chosen words, all joined in singing "For She Is A Jolly Good Fellow". The remainder of the evening was spent in music and social chat. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

FAREWELL GATHERING — A number of the people of New Haven gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McManus on the evening of Jan. 7th to bid farewell to Mr. Edison MacDonald who resigned as teacher of the local school to accept a position in West Kent School, Charlottetown. In spite of very disagreeable weather, a goodly number of ratepayers, their wives and children were present as evidence of the fact that they respected their teacher and appreciated the work he had done since coming to the district. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Augustine Tierney, who after making a few well chosen remarks called on Mr. Leo Berrigan to read an appropriate and eloquent address, which was accompanied by a substantial purse presented by Mr. Tierney Mr. MacDonald feelingly replied, thanking the people for the excellent support and co-operation received by him since coming to New Haven. The singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" completed the formal part of the evening's proceedings. The devotees of Orpheus then repaired to the piano, where a lusty sing-song was enjoyed, while the others found an outlet for their enthusiasm in a jolly game of cards, interrupted just long enough to enjoy a delectable lunch served by the hostess and some of the ladies present. We hope and trust Mr. MacDonald will long enjoy success and health in his new undertaking.

IN SUPREME COURT — Argument by counsel was heard in Supreme Court yesterday before Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault in the application in certiorari of Hugh Cummiskey, sr., Tarantum. The case was adjourned for judgment. Hon. Thane A. Campbell, K. C., attorney general, appeared for the Crown and Mr. D. L. Mathieson for the applicant. The case was an application to have a conviction under the Prohibition Act by Mr. George J. Tweedy, K. C., stipendiary magistrate for Queen's County, quashed on the grounds that a summons had not been served on the defendant nor had he known anything of the charge until after he was convicted. The summons had been left at the defendant's residence, evidence submitted in the lower court indicated. Occupants of the house said they did not know the nature of the summons nor did they mention it to the defendant, who was not at home when the Mounted Police constable called. The defendant's son, temporarily residing with his father, testified that the summons had been left on a step ladder outside the house. He had informed the constable that he would not be responsible for it. Court meets today at 11 o'clock.

MISS STEVENS DIES SUDDENLY.—It was with deepest regret that her friends learned that Miss Frances Stevens, Truro, N. S., sister of Mrs. H. C. FRIDAY

The annual meeting of Zion Presbyterian Church was held in the school-room on Thursday, Jan. 20th at 7.30 p.m. Rev. G. C. Webster was appointed to act as chairman; Mr. Norman J. MacLeod secretary; Mr. E. A. Cudmore and Mrs. F. A. A. Mutch press committee.

The board of trustees were re-elected as follows:—J. A. MacMillan, Herbert Jewelll, E.A. Cudmore, J. C. Cooke, Willis Nicholson, Norman J. MacLeod, and Major MacRae.

The meeting closed with the benediction by the pastor, Rev. G. C. Webster.

Many friends throughout the province were grieved to hear of the passing of Mrs. Henry Hooper at the residence of her son, Holsey, 140 Pownal St., on Thursday Dec. 9th., in her 86th., year. She was the widow of the late Henry Hooper formerly of Milton. Her maiden name was Sarah Jane MacMillan, daughter of the late Alex MacMillan, and his wife Jane Shaw of Brackley Beach. Mrs. Hooper was a staunch and consistent member of St. James Church Charlottetown, and as long as she was able, attended worship and helped in any way possible. She was a good, kind and faithful friend and beloved by all who knew her. Two daughters predeceased her some years ago. Her son, Holsey and two grandchildren Nora and Graham, are left to mourn her loss. One sister, Mrs Lydia Seaman and one brother, W M. MacMillan of the Lenox, Charlottetown, also survive.

They will always cherish the memory of a devoted sister.

Her funeral was held from the residence of her son. Rev. Carlyle Webster officiating. Her remains were laid to rest in the People's Cemetery, beside her loved ones gone before.

The final meeting of the outgoing Council was held on Wednesday afternoon when all business for the year was concluded. The reports for the year ending Dec. 31 last were submitted and financial statements read.

The financial statement of the town showed a deficit of $1,279.57.

The electric light report shows that output is increasing and that the plant is more than paying for itself and it was found necessary to buy a new unit capable of carrying 250 K.W.

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Mary's Church was held in the parish hall on Monday evening with a good attendance. Rev. G.R. Harrison presided.

The reports of the societies were most encouraging. A branch of the A.Y.P.A. was formed during the year and is proving very successful.

The financial statement showed that current liabilities had been met.

Dr. E.T. Tanton and Mr. A.B.L. Horne were re-elected wardens.

Appointments to the General Synod were J.J. Enman with R.B. Richardson substituting.

Delegates to the D.C.S. were Mr. Viniah Milligan, Stephen Pond and Bert Tyler.

A resolution of condolence to Mrs. White and family of the late Archdeacon C.deW. White, was passed by standing vote. Meeting adjourned. —S.
