A MONARCH SEEKING HIS OLD JOB

THE HEARN, July 18.—Mohammed Ali Mirza, the exiled Shah of Persia has returned to his own land for the purpose of making another bid for the throne. The ex-Shah is now at the Caspian, in the northern part of Persia near the Russian border, and it is stated that a Russian vessel conveyed him to that place.

Soon after Mohammed Ali Mirza was deposed in July 1909, he fled to Odessa in October of the same year. The Russian government undertook by protocol to keep the ex-Shah under strict surveillance and prevent all intrigues with respect to his return to Persia and possibly to the throne. Notwithstanding this, the deposed Shah has made progress through Russia quite rapidly and without molestation from Odessa to Gumbesh Tepe, a distance of about 1,500 miles. What force Mohammed Ali has with him is not known.

The government has ordered Sidar Safar to proceed to Kurdistan with 2,000 horse-men and guns to crush the rebellion in that district, which has made considerable progress under the leadership of Salar Ed Dowleh, brother of the deposed Shah.

LONDON, July 18.—The sudden and unexpected appearance of the ex-Shah Mohammed Ali Mirza in Persia territory is a great surprise. He left Odessa some weeks ago for Baden near Vienna, where he has been living with his family until July 6. It is understood that he left Baden for Marienbad to take the waters, and the intention of returning to that place. By this attempt to re-capture the throne Mohammed Ali forfeits a pension of $82,500 yearly. According to recent dispatches from Teheran, the deposed Shah is now at the head of a small rebellion in Kurdistan with 3,000 men and has proclaimed himself in favor of Mohammed Ali's pretensions.

WORK AT SUMMER SCHOOL OF SCIENCE

FREDERICTON, July 17.—Weather in Fredericton continues to be favorable for Summer school work. Although the farmer, the gardener and the owner of a lawn would be glad to see some rain. The heat is not excessive, and the school still grows in numbers and interest. Yesterday the school had a novel experience in having their annual sermon preached to them on the lawn of Christ Church Cathedral. This was necessitated by the unfortunate circumstance of a partial destruction of that magnificent cathedral by lightning and fire a short time ago.

A vast concourse of people including Summer School students and citizens assembled on the lawn and were addressed by Dean Schofield, taking for his text "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy mind." The speaker referred to the love exercised by the senses, the heart, the will and the reason, all of which play an important part in our relationship to ourselves, to nature, and to God, but he especially dwelt upon that intellectual love which sees a reason for the placing of the affection on any object, he considered it a more excellent one than the others referred to, commenting upon the two common ignorances. He wished his hearers to acquire an intelligent knowledge of the Bible, which would lead them to an intelligent knowledge of the deity upon whom it was their highest duty and privilege to place their affection.

MORMON SCORE IN ENGLAND

LONDON, July 17.—Agitation against Mormonism, which started in the North of England is spreading southwards. Fears and indignation follow in the track of the missionaries, and signs that the crowds who infest the meeting places of the Latter Day Saints will exchange the word for the blow if the emissaries from Utah proceed with their proselytizing are not wanting. For the time being, Birkenhead, near Liverpool, ceases to be a danger zone, because the Mormons were given even days notice to quit, an ultimatum to which they had to submit in view of the hostile attitude of the people. The chief elder, and his friends were accompanied to the railroad station by a hoisting crowd and a brass band added to the clamor.

Dignified bishops and leading clergymen are still issuing warnings from their pulpits, following the example of Father Bernard Vaughan, who would have the missionaries "Taken by the scruff of the neck, run across the country and dropped into the sea." At Newcastle the Rev. Dr. Harrison said that no effort could be too great to arrest the progress of Mormonism in England. He made the suggestion that the foreign office should issue circulars to be read in all places of worship, warning the women against Mormons, and Mormonism.

The trouble is breaking out in many parts of Yorkshire. The Rev. C. Little, vicar of the seaside resort of Hornsea, has issued a circular on his own initiative "Warning of Mormonism as you would beware of the devil. Men, protect your women and girls. Women and girls respect your womanhood." Bitter feeling against Mormonism also runs high at Sheffield and Leeds, and plans have been taken to close the mission station two young Mormons opened at Batley near by, in the heart of the heavy woolen district.

But seems that when they are driven from one town the Mormons are merely diverted to another city. They have now appeared at Maidstone in Kent. As soon as their presence became known, Lord Castle-rough, the local member of parliament, and the leading clergy of Maidstone, signed and issued a public manifesto, warning patients and cautioning young unmarried women against emigrating to the state of Utah.

The anti-Mormon agitation is due to the conviction that the Mormons teach polygamy and lure girls and women to Salt Lake City with misleading promises. Something like a spirit of panic has been created by the anti-Mormon campaign. Even sober-minded people speaking rather mysteriously about the aims and activities of the Latter Day Saints, though a few see the danger of persecuting the missionaries they still appear in the light of fanatics.

At Sheffield Apostle Clawson, president of the European Mormon mission, denied that Mormons taught polygamy. To show that the agitation is not altogether stemming from the local anti-Mormon fanatics illustrating the activity of Mormonism in South York shire up to a fortnight ago. In that district there were 21 missionaries including one high priest and seventeen elders. The local priesthood comprised twelve elders, ten priests, six teachers, twelve deacons. There were 250 church members, 104,260 tracts have been distributed, and 365 indoor meetings held this year.

Every day or so the attention of Home Secretary Winston Churchill is being drawn in the House of Commons to the propagandist work carried out by the Latter Day Saints, who act like new law abiding citizens, sympathetic; he reminds his questioners that the home office is still prosecuting inquiries, but his hands are tied officially, as the Utah emissaries act like new law abiding citizens. But it is quite likely that a serious riot or two will be the means of bringing matters to such a head that parliament will consider anti-Mormon legislation, though the policy of England is constantly favorable to religious liberty.

LAKE ANNIS VISITED BY FOREST FIRE

YARMOUTH, N. S., July 18.—Forest fires which have been burning in the upper portion of this country for a week past, without doing much damage swept down late yesterday afternoon on the village of Lake Annis and for a time threatened its existence. The mill of D. R. Saunders lumber operator and several cottages as well as a large barn, two blacksmiths shops and other small buildings, owned by him and occupied by his workmen which are situated about a mile from the village proper were burned to the ground at about six o'clock.

The fires which were burning about ten or fifteen miles to the eastward of Lake Annis for several days had today when the fire approached so rapidly that it was impossible to attempt to save the mill or cottages round it. Everything has been so dry that the flames leaped up all that lay in its path. Very welcome showers began to fall about half past nine in the evening which added in checking the fire.

Lake Annis is a summer resort for several Yarmouth families, a dozen or more fine cottages being owned

TO BEAUTIFY THE CITY OF CALGARY

CALGARY, Alta., July 18.—A civic organization to make the city "cleaner and more habitable" may spring into being in Calgary, as the result of a suggestion made by a reputation that waited upon Mayor J. W. Mitchell, the principal feature in which was the suggestion to co-operate in the preparing and carrying out of a gigantic scheme for the beautification of the city.

Mayor Mitchell was very favorably inclined towards the proposal, and advised the Architects' Association to place the proposal on paper, when he promised to submit it to council.

The members of the delegation were Architects Lang, Butler, McElroy and resolution of the Architects' Association. Mr. Lang was the principal spokesman and he pointed out that it was not only for the purpose of advising a scheme for the general beautification of the city, that the organization was suggested, but also to interest members to interest themselves in public matters, and although it was a suggestion at the instance of the Architects' Association, it was not intended to keep its lists closed to other professions. It was the intention to invite everyone to co-operate. As one of the good things that might be accomplished it was suggested that the general beautification of the city should be taken up, and some extensive scheme should be prepared, and a plan made, upon which it would be possible to work continuously. Instead of devoting all the time to patching up one park there, some comprehensive scheme could be prepared, taking into account the rivers, and the contour and a layout of the ground.

No remodeling of the city was pressed, but the delegation thought it was now time to commence upon a scheme for improving the city generally.

FAKE FIRE INSURANCE IS EXPOSED

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—At a hearing here today of three officials of four "mutual fire insurance companies," of this city, on the charge of operating fraudulent concerns, a 19-year-old boy testified that he had been picked off the street and been made president of two of the concerns and secretary of a third at a total salary of $3,000 a week. The witness, Herman S. Robinson, said he was homeless when hired to run errands. He was told he must "dress up," and said that one of the defendants had outfitted him at a clothing store. At the end of the hearing the three officials, David Balaxy, Jacob Malschick and Charles Wemberg, were held under bail for trial.

Robinson testified he knew he had been made president, but thought it was only a matter of form. He said that the janitor of an office building in which the fourteen companies were operated from the same room, was also made president of one of the concerns. Robinson further testified that he had presided at directors' meetings of his companies, but had no idea of what was done. "I always read a newspaper or went to sleep. Balaxy did all the talking," he said. Ernest K. Mueller, a solicitor employed by two of the concerns, which the state insurance department charged
