I read about ia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com- nd in the 'Farmer's Telegram' and te you for one of your books. We e no druggist in our town, but I saw r medicine in T. Eaton's catalogue. a farmer's wife, so have all kinds work to do inside and outside the se. My baby is a nice healthy girl, weighed nine pounds at birth. I feeling fine after putting in a large den since baby came. (She is as d as she can be.) Yours is the best dicine for women, and I have told ut it and even written to my friends ut it."—Mrs. ANNIE E. AYARS, ring Valley, Sask.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com- nd is an excellent medicine for ex- tant mothers, and should be taken ing the entire period. It has a gen- l effect to strengthen and tone up the ire system, so that it may work in r respect as nature intends. All ggists sell this dependable medicine. e it a trial.

GEORGETOWN EXHIBITION

On Sept. 24 one of the most successful exhibitions ever held in Georgetown, was carried out. The fair was a success not only from a financial stand point but also in regard to the quantity and quality of the exhibits. Over nine hundred entries lined the tables of the building, while four hundred live stock entries filled to over flowing the stalls sheds and pens outside. The judges were unanimous in declaring that the exhibits were all of a very high quality. The outstanding displays within the building were those in potatoes, fruit and fancy work. Another noteworthy booth was that in which the prize winning articles from the different surrounding School Fair centres were exhibited. This provoked a great deal of very favorable comment. Outside the classes were all well filled with splendid animals.

The exhibition was formally opened at 11.30 o'clock by His Honor Lieut. Governor Heartz Other speakers were Premier Stewart, Hon. J. H. Myers and J. H. McDonald.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the live stock judging commenced thus giving plenty of time for the Matinee Races which began at 2 o'clock sharp. The three classes of these races were all well filled, hotly contested and on the whole splendid exhibition of sportsmanship.

The directors of the Exhibition are very grateful to all who in any way assisted them in their efforts to make the fair the success it proceed to be.

Following is a list of the winners in the races also a complete list of exhibition prize winners.
