MONASTIR OCCUPIED BY AUSTRO-GERMANS

Bulgarians Ready to March into the City.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—Occupation of Monastir by an Austro-German force at three o'clock yesterday afternoon is reported by Reuter's correspondent at Saloniki.

The correspondent who says his information was received in a telegram from Florina, Greece, adds that the only flag hoisted when the city was occupied, was the Austrian. The Bulgarians did not enter Monastir, remaining at Kenaldi, South of the city. It is reported, however, that they will march into Monastir to-day.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—Telegraphic communication with Monastir ceased at 7 o'clock Thursday morning, says a Reuter despatch from Saloniki, and it is believed the city has fallen. The Bulgarians have dropped a few shells on the railway station at Krivolak on the allied front. There have been artillery duels on the Strumitsa line, where the Bulgars have abstained from resuming the offensive since November 2, when they suffered heavy losses the correspondent says. The cold weather in the hilly country, occupied by the Allies, is less severe.

PARIS, Dec. 3.—Two thousand Bulgarian rifles were found in a trench taken Wednesday by French troops, according to a Havas despatch from Saloniki. The French are strongly entrenched before Krivolak, 150 yards from the Bulgarian advanced posts. The British troops also are well dug in in their sector.

At last accounts, the correspondent says, Monastir still held out. The Bulgarians have crossed the Cerna at Novaci and occupied Canali, South-east of Monastir near the Greek frontier. The Serbs are reported to have retired towards Resna.

THE BALKAN CAMPAIGN ENTERS SECOND PHASE

Operations Against Serbia Concluded. Bulgarians will now Face British and French.

(Special to The Guardian)

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The second phase of the Balkan campaign is developing slowly. It is expected, however, that with the conclusion of operations against Serbia and the occupation of Monastir the whole Bulgarian army, when weather permits, will attempt to drive the British and French forces out of Southern Serbia, while the Austrians continue their efforts to overrun Montenegro, and the Germans, with the aid of the Turks and what Bulgarians and Austrians can be spared, turn their attention to the Russians, who again are reported to have entered Rumanian territory on their way to Gallipoli Peninsula to assist the Turks in a great effort to drive the Entente Allies from the peninsula is hardly credited in military circles here, where it is not believed they can spare men, guns and ammunition for such a venture. The Turks, it is true, have been displaying more activity recently in the Dardanelles, but this they are believed to have been doing more with ammunition which they have been collecting during the quiet period than with any fresh supplies from Germany.

Rustchuk, on the Danube, West of the Rumanian border, in the opinion of well-advised persons here, is to be the point of concentration for the Germans both as a warning to Rumania that it would be dangerous for her to join the Entente Allies and to meet any Russian advance. There is a conflict in speculation here regarding the position of Greece. Some despatches say a satisfactory agreement has been reached between the Entente Allies and the Hellenic Kingdom, while others favor the opinion that the situation is so unsatisfactory that the Entente Allies have re-established the restrictions on Greek commerce. There have been no important developments on the Russian, Italian or French fronts, although the Italians claim minor successes in their campaign against the Austrians. Naturally much interest is displayed in the peace talk emanating from doubtful countries and the proposed debate in the Reichstag next week when the Imperial Chancellor is to be asked whether he is prepared to state the terms on which Germany would suggest as to placing the question of diplomatic Europe in the hands of public men. From neither press nor public does the talk of ending the war find encouragement. The Daily News and Weekly Review discussing the matter are reiterating that the war must continue until Germany is defeated.

RUSSIANS HAVE ENTERED BULGARIA

New Move of War Reaching Results in Balkan Situation.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—"News that the Russians have entered Bulgaria has aroused interest, and there is much speculation as to the next development," Reuter's correspondent at Saloniki telegraphs.

"It is expected this move will have a far reaching effect on the internal situation of Bulgaria and will modify the whole aspect of affairs in the Balkans."

No direct and specific confirmation has been received in London of this message. It is recalled, however, that last week, Emperor Nicholas was said to have promised Premier Pachitch of Serbia, the appearance of a Russian army in Bulgaria within a week.

WASHINGTON WILL VIGOROUSLY PROTEST AGAINST THE ADMIRALTY PROCEEDINGS AT HALIFAX

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Official announcement that the American steamship Hocking had been requisitioned by the British Government without the formality of prize court proceedings was received by the State Department late to-day in a despatch from Consul General Young at Halifax, where the ship has been detained since she was seized by a British warship while on the way from New York to Norfolk.

"This procedure will be vigorously contested by the United States government as being illegal and in violation of recognised rights under international law. The United States, it was said, will demand that the ship be retained in prize court, on the charge that she was partly German owned, and that the prize court will act promptly in the case."

SPLENDID MEETING AT CARDIGAN

Eloquent Addresses by Father McMillan and Reverends R. G. Fulton and G. C. Taylor. Splendid Musical Programme. Good Results Expected.

Owing to there being a Red Cross supper the turnout at Cardigan was hardly as large as expected.

In opening the meeting the Rev. Dr. McMillan, priest of the parish, in a splendid address, said that he had been speaking on the war to the people of the parish at different intervals, and that having covered the ground so fully, it was hardly necessary for him to speak at length again. Every woman should have a soldier representing her at the front. The inducements offered were strong and the call was urgent. There were many young men there who could do good service for their country. Conditions were serious and the call was for every man to rally to the standard. If they would aid in reaching a satisfactory result as members of the British Empire they must recognise that the country needed every available man. They should see that this demand was met, and as far as possible every man who was physically fit should offer to serve the colours. Some of them did not understand what war was, hence they did not grasp the needs of the hour. More men had died at home than were killed at the front. Science had made a great advance. The wars of the Old Testament involved greater loss of life than the wars of modern times. Dr. McMillan then spoke of the magnificent response of the young men who had enlisted. He told of going across from Summerside to Point du Cheno with a young soldier who was very seakick owing to the roughness of the trip. At the worst stage of his sickness he said: "Lord, let me no die here; take me to the front where I can die in comfort." He expressed himself strongly regarding the need of every man going who could possibly go. He would like to see the battalion filled as quickly as possible. The response of men to the call of the Empire would be the quickest way to win this war.

The Rev. G. C. Taylor in a strong appeal for recruits, said: "You have in you all the qualities of the ideal man. What you require is the exercise of these qualities for attaining to the highest ideals. No man dare ignore this. This was not a sacrifice, but the accepting of a glorious opportunity which had been offered to them."

The Rev. R. G. Fulton said that they looked upon the result of recruiting in Canada as a noble response to the call of the Empire. If conscription, the German method, were used in Canada, the result would mean that 1,730,000 men would be brought to the colours, if all the men from the ages of 17 to 65 were recruited, but if the age limit was made from 18 to 45 as at present, we would, under conscription, have 1,500,000 men. But the glory of the Empire has been in the fact that they had recruited millions of men throughout the entire British Empire without resorting to this German method. The glory of our citizenship was found in its freedom. The appeal of their manhood was to respond to the call of the colours. What was needed was a quickening of the sense of responsibility and the awakening of the consciousness of need.

Lieut. Allan then made a strong appeal to the young men to join the battalion. He spoke of the splendid

YOUNG-ADAMS COMPANY SCORES ANOTHER TRIUMPH

Two Splendid Performances Yesterday to Crowded Houses.

The pathetic old drama "East Lynne" was produced at the matinee performance yesterday.

As Mr. Carlyle, Mr. H. Wilnot Young filled his role with fine artistic skill, and Marjorie Adams in the part of the wronged wife also played her part with fine emotional feeling.

The evening performance featured a powerfully dramatic play, "The Butcher on the Wheel."

In the role of the butterfly Peggy, the neglected though loved wife of the ambitious and elderly Right Hon. Geo. Adamson, Miss Marjorie Adams lives her difficult part with fine intuition.

As Sir Robert Fyfe, the husband's counsel, Mr. H. Wilnot Young's portrayal of the meretricious and keen-brained lawyer left nothing to be desired. Mr. Frank Dufrane as Reddy Collingwood gave a very fine performance.

In the role of the unsuccessful English diplomat, Lord Eldering, Mr. John Gregory infused a rich vein of humour into some of the acts.

"Peggy" has never displayed a keen desire to stick to the strict proprieties and this falling leads her into a compromising situation during an accidental visit to the Hotel des Tuilleries in Paris. Her elderly husband has become estranged from her through his aspirations to high office, but has had suspicions aroused and thinks he has discovered incriminating evidence of her guilt. The Court scene at the trial was powerfully dramatic. Peggy, in her quivering appeal for justice, and her impassioned declamation against a society that makes no distinction between the suspicion and the act, held the audience enthralled. The closing scene brings a happy reunion of husband and wife, and the unmasking of the plot of her jealous rival, Lady Atwell.

The vaudeville turns are a most attractive feature. The handout, a straight jacket turns were a novelty, and the other items were also very clever.

CANADA WILL FOOT BILL FOR MISTAKE

OTTAWA, Dec. 3.—In connection with the misunderstanding that has caused the failure to put sufficient postage on parcels for our soldiers in France, the Post Office Department announces that it has cabled to England all such parcels as are to be sent to the Canadian Post Office Department will settle for the shortage in postage. This applies only to parcels posted up to this date. All parcels posted after this date must be prepaid according to the respective rates for parcels bound for England or France.

SHELL ORDERS NOW TOTAL $375,000,000

OTTAWA, Dec. 2.—Shell orders received from Great Britain now total the immense sum of $375,000,000. The number of shells ordered is 20,000,000 of which 3,500,000 have been shipped to England, and nearly 100,000 employees are engaged on the manufacture of shells. General Alexander Bertram, of the Imperial Munitions Board, gave these facts to-day. He stated that the steel required for the industry from now till the end of next year is eight hundred million pounds, which will tax the capacity of the Dominion steel plants to the utmost. Nearly forty-five million pounds of copper and brass are used and 102,000,000 pounds of lead. This is more than Canada can produce of these metals, and the surplus must be imported. Fifteen hundred thousand pounds of tin and ten million pounds of resin are also required.

PATRIOTIC APPEAL IN SUMMERSIDE

Mr. Justice Fitzgerald Compliments Bar and Jurors on Splendid Response and Calls Meeting for Monday Night to Follow up the Good Work.

Subscriptions are coming in apace to the special fund started by His Lordship Mr Justice Fitzgerald in the Supreme Court on Wednesday last in aid of the Patriotic Fund of Prince Edward Island, and already a gratifying total has been received. So very encouraging has been the result to the present that Mr Justice Fitzgerald has decided to call a public meeting of the citizens of Summerside, to be held in the Court-house, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of making a general appeal to the people of the town and vicinity. Mr. Justice Fitzgerald is co-operating with the Judge in this splendid effort, and no doubt the meeting will have a great effect. Yesterday afternoon, during the proceedings of the Court, His Lordship made the following statement in reference to the fund, directing the stenographer to take a note of the same, and requesting that it be published in this morning's "Guardian." His Lordship said:

"Fully recognising the splendid effort made by the Bar and jurors in attending on Monday evening in response to my appeal in behalf of the Patriotic Fund, I feel that my work would not yet be quite accomplished unless I gave an opportunity to the people of Summerside to subscribe to this Fund. I have therefore decided to remain here on Monday evening to have a public meeting of the citizens in this Court-house on Monday evening at 8 o'clock, when ample opportunity will be given to all of subscribing, as I am satisfied they will only be too glad to do."

"I wish to make it known that this Fund is a charitable fund, and only a charitable fund, and is distributed to the wives and children and mothers and fathers of those who go to the front and who, by reason of their going, have left their families ill-supplied with the comforts of life. This Fund is for them alone and does not go to officers or for recruiting or any other purpose, except as a great charity given by the people for those who need it. The guarantee for that is that I myself sign every cheque and investigate every application, together with a committee who are in every way to perform the duties of an advisory board with me for that purpose."

"I desire to thank the "Guardian" newspaper for its publication of encouraging words in this effort, and to thank you, Mr. Reporter, yourself personally for the reports which in my judgment, can only be the result of practised, able effort. I have never, in my long experience as a Judge, read better and more accurate reports than have been given by you of the proceedings in the matter of the Patriotic Fund and in the general proceedings of the Court."

"With the Mayor of the city and others interested who have conveyed to me their satisfaction at hearing of

SOLDIERS ENTERTAINED AT ST. PAUL'S PARISH HALL

The Young People's Society of St. Paul's Church were the hosts and hostesses at an exceedingly pleasant function in the Parish Hall last night when they entertained practically all the officers and members of the Highland Regiment. The proceedings began with a splendid literary and musical programme participated in by members of the Society and of the Regiment. Some splendid patriotic vocal solos and choruses were rendered, also some exhibitions in step dancing, whistling, etc. This part of the programme having been thoroughly enjoyed, the scene changed to a series of no less enjoyable games, after which refreshments were served by the young ladies. Needless to say this was fully appreciated by the soldiers. Mr Harold Cross, Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., presided very efficiently. At the close Col. Campbell proposed a cordial vote of thanks to the Society, which was delivered in these rousing cheers today by the soldiers. With the singing of the National Anthem the proceedings were brought to a close, all expressing themselves as delighted with the evening spent in old St. Paul's.

BAPTISMAL DAY OF NEW IMPERIALISM

LONDON, Dec. 2.—"The birthday of the New Imperialism," says Rev. Dr. Freeman in an editorial in the British Weekly, "is not to be registered with accuracy, but perhaps we may name its baptismal day. Was it not the day when Sir Robert Borden, Premier of Canada, was invited to sit as corresponding member with the Cabinet? On that day the national government made itself the sponsor to this wonderful new offspring of British solidarity."
