

The Cough That Winter Leaves Behind

In many instances the recurring coughs and colds of the winter leave serious traces behind. These ailments do not yield to ordinary cough remedies. They must be overcome by building up the entire system. The right remedy is it is the most reliable of all remedies for the cure of chronic coughs and for any debilitated condition of the system.

Our Emulsion is especially desirable. Two sizes 35c and 75c.

CAN'T FIND DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears after one or two applications of Danderine rubbed well into the scalp with the finger tips. Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store and save your hair. After a few applications you can't find a particle of dandruff or any falling hair and the scalp will never itch.

DON'T SCOLD MOTHER!

THE CROSS CHILD IS BILIOUS, FEVERISH

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again.

Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy. Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

BASEBALL PHRASES ENRICH LANGUAGE

New Universities Dictionary Defines Terms Used by "Fans."

Baseball, this country's great national pastime, has come to have a language of its own. The newspaper men who follow the fortunes of the various big league teams throughout the season of activity on the diamond would not be able to tell their story if they did not employ many words and expressions whose meaning is clear enough to the more enthusiastic "fans" but often more or less obscure to casual followers of the game.

The New Universities Dictionary, being offered to the readers of this paper containing a supplementary dictionary, giving an exhaustive list of such terms and defines them so fully and clearly that anyone after a little study would be able to read understandingly the most difficult of the Sporting Editor's passages.

The study of this dictionary will be found not only entertaining but instructive, as many of the words treated therein have been borrowed by writers in the general field of literature seeking new and effective means of expression, and the dictionary has come to be regarded as both proper and in good taste.

The expression "bugging the base," for instance, in baseball parlance, means that a runner is keeping close to a base, fearing a surprise play; it also conveys the idea of a cautious attitude in any one of the number of situations that can easily be imagined. Students of language will find the dictionary of baseball incorporated in the New Universities Dictionary of vital interest.

SHOT MAN WHO SAID HE WAS A GERMAN.

TORONTO, March 6.—Hugh McArthur, retired mining prospector, aged 52, and Angus McKay, 42, former bank clerk, engaged in a fight last night following an argument over the battle of Verdun. When the police came in McArthur had received a bullet wound in his head which did not disable him but the doctors say came within an acre of being fatal and McKay was badly beaten that he will have to lie in a hospital several days before he is able to appear in the police station to answer a charge of shooting.

McKay claims he fired in self defence, while McArthur says he did not know he had struck the first blow, but admitted he might have used McKay a little roughly after the shot had been fired.

The men met at the news stand of John Russell on Front street, near the Walker House. McArthur had heard that McKay was a pro-German, if not indeed a German masquerading as a Scotchman. "You are not a McKay with a face like that; you are a German," he said, McKay's reply was a shot from an automatic revolver, and McArthur grappled with him and hurled him to the floor.

Then as the dark night clouds had rolled away, and the morning sky grew bright, there on the plain lay the slain of the previous night.

Oh! what a sacrifice; the grief showed plain on every face.

As we knelt by our fallen comrades, the noblest of their race, who fought and died for Britain, and their Home across the sea, Where the Union Jack will always fly for the land of the Maple Tree.

We miss our comrades' faces, now that they have gone.

But still we fight and avenge them, as their blood on our faces goes on.

And those that live to see the victory, When you reach old Canada's shore, Tell how her sons fought, and died for Empire.

Then what can a Briton do more? ROBBIE BURNS (20748). 10th Canadian Battalion.

BRAVO! CANADA.

The town was all confusion; the people in despair; The French were fast retreating; shells bursting everywhere, The Hun had forced an opening, and quick to grasp the chance, Made a dash for Calais, the envied coast of France; The situation serious, there was no time to waste, The British troops were miles away, the Germans sure made haste.

The order came, "Tenth Battalion Fall In," how quick the boys obeyed, Away through that hell of fire, with not a moment's delay. We advanced in skirmishing order, boldly towards the foe, Who poured on us a deadly fire, which laid many a brave boy low. But our line never wavered, but rushed steadily on.

We knew we were outnumbered, but our work had to be done. Madly we rushed onward, with not a halt or pause, Glad to strike a blow for Britain, and a noble cause.

Out spoke brave Colonel Boyle, Charge, boys, give them hell," "Drive them back at all costs," then he backwards fell.

We gave a cheer for Canada, and the Maple Leaf for ever, Then drove the Germans from the trench, and some across the river.

No wonder they flew before us, as one big prisoner said, "When we heard that cheer for Canada, it filled us all with dread, Lots of us had lived in Canada and therefore knew the stuff, That was all the talk of England, because our ways were rough; But we all have our little faults, when every thing is known, So never size your neighbours up until you know your-own."

Then as the dark night clouds had rolled away, and the morning sky grew bright, there on the plain lay the slain of the previous night.

Oh! what a sacrifice; the grief showed plain on every face. As we knelt by our fallen comrades, the noblest of their race, who fought and died for Britain, and their Home across the sea, Where the Union Jack will always fly for the land of the Maple Tree.

Women Once Invalids

Now in Good Health Through Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Say it is Household Necessity. Doctor Called it a Miracle.

All women ought to know the wonderful effects of taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound even on those who seem hopelessly ill. Here are three actual cases:

Harrisburg, Penn.—"When I was single I suffered a great deal from female weakness because my work compelled me to stand all day. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for that and was made stronger by its use. After I was married I took the Compound again for a female trouble and after three months I passed what the doctor called a growth. He said it was a miracle that it came away as one generally goes under the knife to have them removed. I never want to be without your Compound in the house."—Mrs. FRANK KNOBL, 1642 Fulton St., Harrisburg, Penn.

Hardly Able to Move.

Albert Lea, Minn.—"For about a year I had sharp pains across my back and hips and was hardly able to move around the house. My head would ache and I was dizzy and had no appetite. After I taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, I am feeling stronger than for years. I have a little boy eight months old and am doing my work all alone. I would not be without your remedies in the house as there are none like them."—Mrs. F. E. YOST, 611 Water St., Albert Lea, Minn.

Three Doctors Gave Her Up.

Pittsburg, Penn.—"Your medicine has helped me wonderfully. When I was a girl 18 years old I was always sickly and delicate and suffered from irregularities. Three doctors gave me up and said I would go into consumption. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and with the third bottle began to feel better. I soon became regular and I got strong and shortly after I was married. Now I have two nice stout healthy children and am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. CLEMENTINE DUERRING, 34 Gardner St., Troy Hill, Pittsburg, Penn.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice.—it will be confidential.
