

Snowflake
THE FULL STRENGTH
Ammonia
Softens Water.
One to two tablespoonsful makes the bath delightfully refreshing.

Lawson's
Snowflake
Ammonia
Saves 90 Per Cent Soap For Household and Dishes
S.F. Lawson & Co.
London, Canada

THURSDAY LEFT FOR THE WINTER.—Mrs. (Rev.) J. C. Jaynes and her two children, Helen and Julian, left yesterday morning on return to their home in Newton, Mass., after spending the season at their summer home in Keppoch. Rev. Mr. Jaynes will attend a week or two later after attending to some necessary repairs and arrangements preparatory to closing the house for the winter.

ON HOMEWARD TRIP.—Messrs. L. L. Hillis, Harold Torrell, Earl Morrison, and John Hurley, who have spent a most enjoyable visit to friends in Rock Barre and other parts of this Province, were in the city yesterday on their way to Borden en route to their homes in Providence, R. I. These young men, it will be remembered, came all the way by automobile and are now returning in their 1917 Ford, which has given them no trouble since leaving home on Sept. 3rd. They made record time and on figuring up expenses of the journey from Providence to Rock Barre it amounted to $17 per head.

With deep regret the Guardian records the death on Sept. 4th of Mr. John H. Woodside, who passed away at his home, Hamilton, at the age of 77 years, after a brief illness.

Besides a widow, formerly Miss Martha Sharpe, Summerside, there are left to mourn their loss, five sons and three daughters: Archd. M. Malpeque, William A. Hamilton, Alderman Frank E. Vancouver, B. C., Harry H. Vancouver, J. Keir at home, Mrs. V. W. Harwood, Vancouver B. C., Mrs. R. M. Owen, St. John's, N. B., at home.

The funeral took place Tuesday, Sept. 6th, under the direction of Rev. J. M. Murchison.

The pall bearers were Howard Ramsay, Percy Stewart, John Simpson, George Crozier, Fred Ramsay, and Major Taylor.

The death of Miss Sophia Duchemin, formerly of this city, occurred at her home in Dartmouth, N.S., last Tuesday. Miss Duchemin was the youngest daughter of the late Watson Duchemin, of this city, and of a large family only one sister, Mrs. John P. Tanton, now survives her. She was for several years organist and choir leader in the Brick Methodist Church, being the first to take charge of the new pipe organ upon its installation. Later on she occupied a similar position in Grace Methodist Church for several years, and at her adopted home in Nova Scotia she was always well known in musical circles and social services. Only a short time ago she spent several months on a visit here to her native city. She was a devoted and sincere Christian woman, always foremost in charitable and Christian work. One sister, Mrs. Tanton, and a large number of nephews and nieces are left to mourn the loss of one who was always affectionately remembered. Mr. Ernest Duchemin left yesterday for Halifax to attend the funeral, which takes place from the residence of Mr. E. M. Walker at Dartmouth today.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Makes Food Taste Good
Creates an appetite, aids digestion, purifies the blood, promotes assimilation so as to secure full nutritive value of food, and to give strength to the whole system.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Miss Marcella Cherry, Georgetown and Mr. William Murphy, of Boston, took place September 4th in the St. Roses Church, Chelsea. The bride looked lovely in a blue pique tulle suit wearing a tomato colored velour hat, with squirrel furs, the gift of the groom. Miss Alice Breen, of Boston, was bridesmaid. She looked lovely in a brown suit with black and blue hat and squirrel furs. Mr. J. Murphy, brother of the groom, was best man. The groom's present to the bridesmaid was an emerald ring set with diamonds and pearls. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy left on their honeymoon for the Mountains of N. H. After they return they will reside in Boston, where Mr. Murphy is well known. There was a great array of beautiful and valuable presents showing the high esteem in which the bride and groom were held.—A.

MCKAY — NICHOLSON.—A very quiet wedding took place at Easter's Hotel, Charlottetown, on the afternoon of September 12th, when Mr. Daniel McKay of Milton, was united in marriage with Mrs. Katherine Nicholson of Clyde. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Stavert of Hunter River in presence of a number of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The couple were unattended. The bride was given away by her son, Mr. Duncan Nicholson. The wedding march was well rendered by Mrs. Wallace Moore from Vancouver Island. After the ceremony was over the wedding party, sat down to a sumptuous repast to which all did ample justice. In the midst of showers of rice and confetti Mr. and Mrs. McKay set out for their new home in Milton. The Guardian joins in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McKay many years of happy wedded life.

WEDDING BELLS.—Of marked interest among the social events of the season was the marriage of Miss Marie Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Steele of De Gros Marsh to John Joseph son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzpatrick of Woodville, which took place at St. George's Church on July 20th inst. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Frank McDonald, S. J., assisted by Rev. Plus A. McDonald, P. P. The bride, who was beautifully attired in a navy blue tailored suit with hat to match was attended by her cousin Miss Marie Steele of Gasperaux who also wore a tailored suit with hat to match, while the groom was supported by his brother Mr. Louis Fitzpatrick. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to Souris returning to the groom's home where dinner was served, to a large number of guests in Mrs. Fitzpatrick's best style. The afternoon was spent very pleasantly in music and song. About six o'clock the happy couple drove to the home of the bride where their young friends awaited them. The bride's dress for the evening was of pale green mesaline, daintily hand-embroidered while the bridesmaid wore a becoming dress of brown messaline. The popularity of the young couple was testified by the large number of beautiful gifts received. A dainty supper was served after which dancing was indulged in until a late hour when the guests departed after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick many years of wedded life.

PRETTY FALL WEDDING.—A wedding of much interest took place yesterday at six o'clock in St. James Church when Miss Edith Myrtle McKendrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McKendrick, became the bride of John Franklin Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gordon. Rev. George C. Taylor, officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a brown tailored suit with feathered toque to match and carried a bouquet of American beauty roses, she was assisted by Miss Virgie Boyver, who was gowned in a green velvet suit, with hat to match. Mr. Arthur Tomlins supported the groom.

The church was beautifully decorated with golden glow, sweet peas, phlox and autumn leaves and berries by the girl friends of the bride and during the service Prof. Watkis presided at the organ.

The guests were ushered by Messrs. Elmer Boyver and Wm. C. Davies.

There were many costly and beautiful wedding presents, including a cabinet of silver from the staff of the C. N. R. and a number of checks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon left by the morning train on a two weeks honeymoon, which will include Boston, New York, Niagara and other American cities.

The young couple have the best wishes of their many friends including the Guardian for a happy journey through life.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place yesterday at 5.30 at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKay, 240 Queen Street, when their daughter, Pearl, was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh S. McKay, formerly of Stanley Bridge. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Martin of Mt. Stewart, an uncle of the groom. The bride, who was unattended, wore a blue broadcloth travelling suit with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Before her marriage the bride was a popular saleslady with S. A. McDonald, and has many friends throughout the province. The groom, who is employed by Theo. Senter, tailor, served overseas and was one of the boys who went all the way into Germany. The wedding presents which were numerous and handsome included a mahogany parlor table from the employees of S. A. McDonald's establishment. The happy couple left by the morning train on a trip to the mainland.

FRIDAY TO ENTER MINISTRY.—Mr. Sterling and Lyman Giddings of Abney (Murray Harbor) left last Saturday for Mount Allison to take up studies with a view to preparing for the ministry of the Methodist Church. They were guests at the parsonage Bayfield, N. B. over Sunday. Mr. Arthur Habelin, also of Murray Harbor will take up the studies of his third year at Mt. Allison in a week or so. He is also preparing for the ministry. These three are promising young men and we bespeak for them great success in their chosen work.

DIED IN ST. JOHN.—Mrs. Allie M. Sherman, whose serious illness was mentioned in yesterday's Guardian, died at noon yesterday in St. John. She was the widow of the late Caleb Sherman, who passed away some ten years ago. Mrs. Sherman had reached an advanced age and was known to her numerous relatives, friends and acquaintances as a devout Christian lady, who had lived a blameless life from her youth. Mr. J. E. B. McCready, now the only survivor of a family of nine, has the sincere sympathy of his many friends in the death of his only sister. Mrs. McCready left yesterday afternoon to be present at the funeral.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.—A large number of friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Usher, Grand Bay, N.B., on Monday evening, September 12th, for the purpose of bidding farewell to their student, Pastor, M. C. MacDonald. After spending the evening enjoyably in games, Mr. Usher called the guests to order and on behalf of those present presented to Mr. MacDonald a beautiful set of cuff links and stick pin as a small token of their regard and esteem. Mr. MacDonald, although entirely taken by surprise, in a few words fittingly thanked those present. At the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served. Mr. MacDonald left on Tuesday morning for his home in Brantford, P. E. I., to spend a few weeks before returning to Pine Hill College, Halifax, N. S., to resume his studies.

roses, she was assisted by Miss Virgie Boyver, who was gowned in a green velvet suit, with hat to match. Mr. Arthur Tomlins supported the groom.

The church was beautifully decorated with golden glow, sweet peas, phlox and autumn leaves and berries by the girl friends of the bride and during the service Prof. Watkis presided at the organ.

The guests were ushered by Messrs. Elmer Boyver and Wm. C. Davies.

There were many costly and beautiful wedding presents, including a cabinet of silver from the staff of the C. N. R. and a number of checks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon left by the morning train on a two weeks honeymoon, which will include Boston, New York, Niagara and other American cities.

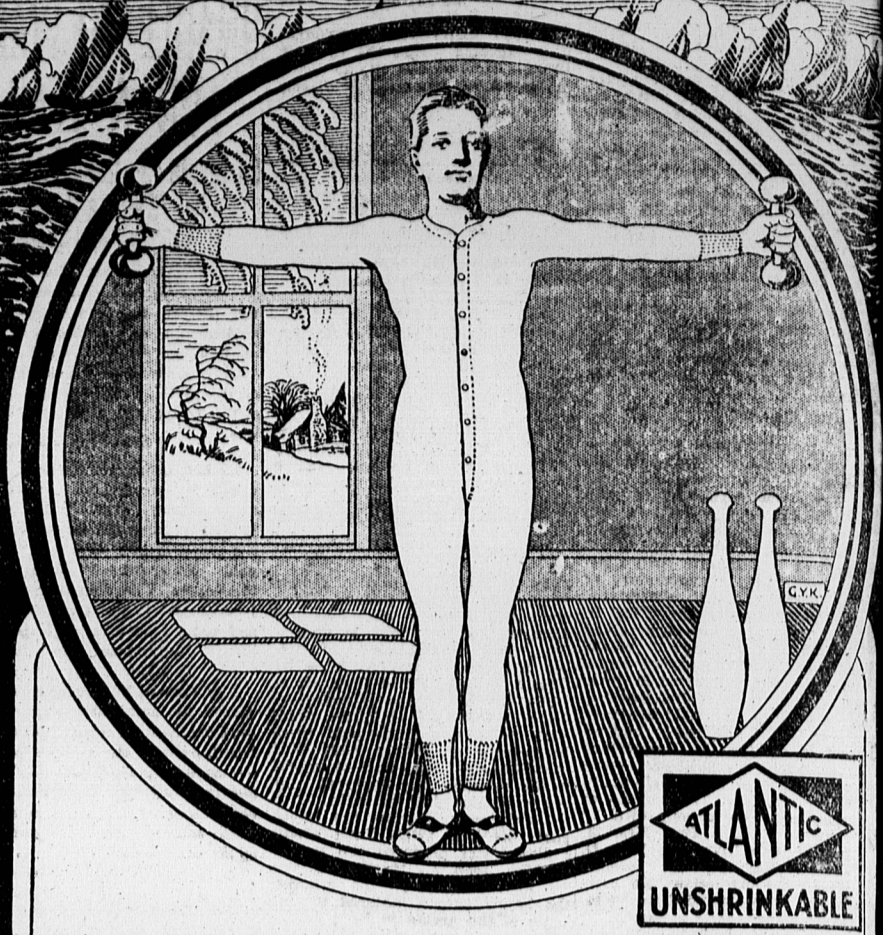

The young couple have the best wishes of their many friends including the Guardian for a happy journey through life.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place yesterday at 5.30 at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKay, 240 Queen Street, when their daughter, Pearl, was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh S. McKay, formerly of Stanley Bridge. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Martin of Mt. Stewart, an uncle of the groom. The bride, who was unattended, wore a blue broadcloth travelling suit with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Before her marriage the bride was a popular saleslady with S. A. McDonald, and has many friends throughout the province. The groom, who is employed by Theo. Senter, tailor, served overseas and was one of the boys who went all the way into Germany. The wedding presents which were numerous and handsome included a mahogany parlor table from the employees of S. A. McDonald's establishment. The happy couple left by the morning train on a trip to the mainland.

FRIDAY TO ENTER MINISTRY.—Mr. Sterling and Lyman Giddings of Abney (Murray Harbor) left last Saturday for Mount Allison to take up studies with a view to preparing for the ministry of the Methodist Church. They were guests at the parsonage Bayfield, N. B. over Sunday. Mr. Arthur Habelin, also of Murray Harbor will take up the studies of his third year at Mt. Allison in a week or so. He is also preparing for the ministry. These three are promising young men and we bespeak for them great success in their chosen work.

DIED IN ST. JOHN.—Mrs. Allie M. Sherman, whose serious illness was mentioned in yesterday's Guardian, died at noon yesterday in St. John. She was the widow of the late Caleb Sherman, who passed away some ten years ago. Mrs. Sherman had reached an advanced age and was known to her numerous relatives, friends and acquaintances as a devout Christian lady, who had lived a blameless life from her youth. Mr. J. E. B. McCready, now the only survivor of a family of nine, has the sincere sympathy of his many friends in the death of his only sister. Mrs. McCready left yesterday afternoon to be present at the funeral.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.—A large number of friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Usher, Grand Bay, N.B., on Monday evening, September 12th, for the purpose of bidding farewell to their student, Pastor, M. C. MacDonald. After spending the evening enjoyably in games, Mr. Usher called the guests to order and on behalf of those present presented to Mr. MacDonald a beautiful set of cuff links and stick pin as a small token of their regard and esteem. Mr. MacDonald, although entirely taken by surprise, in a few words fittingly thanked those present. At the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served. Mr. MacDonald left on Tuesday morning for his home in Brantford, P. E. I., to spend a few weeks before returning to Pine Hill College, Halifax, N. S., to resume his studies.

SMOOTH, comfortable and free from irritation; elastic and yielding when you stretch and bend; warm as only pure wool well-knitted can be.

Every Atlantic garment is a dependable garment in every respect, and the best value anywhere for the money.

ATLANTIC UNSHRINKABLE
The UNDERWEAR that Overwears

ATLANTIC UNDERWEAR, Limited - Moncton, N.B.

SAD BEHAVEMENT.—Deep sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Neil McDougall, 129 Upper Prince Street, on the death of their infant son which occurred on Wednesday evening after only a day's illness in convulsions. The bright little chap had never been ill since birth, and his death came as a severe shock to his parents. The funeral takes place this afternoon at two o'clock to the People's cemetery.

TERMINATE PLEASANT OUTING.—Messrs. John and Robert Moffatt, the former of Moffatt Bros. the latter Divisional Engineer of Dom. Steel Co. Plant, Sydney, N. S., paid a flying visit to their parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moffatt of Mayfield and left via Charlottetown and Pictou Tuesday morning for their homes in Sydney. The visit to the island concluded a trip of over two weeks during which time they visited the Toronto Exhibition, where the best part of a week was spent. A banquet given by the Rec. Auto Co. to its agents was also attended. From Toronto they went to Hamilton, where they visited the plant of the Canadian Steel Co. Return ing to Toronto they left by boat for Lewiston, New York State, thence by train to Buffalo and the Buffalo Auto Show rooms were of chief interest. Leaving Buffalo by train for Niagara Falls a visit to the Hydro Electric Plant was next in order. By steamer they came through The Lake of a Thousand Isles, Lachine Rapids, St. Lawrence River to Montreal, where a day was spent taking in all the most important points of interest.

WEDDING BELLS.—St. Bonaventura's Church, Tracadie, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on August the 2nd, when Miss Mary Frances McQuaid, daughter of Mrs. Chas. Fitzpatrick, was united in marriage to Mr. John F. McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McBride, Scotchfort. The bride was attired in a navy blue serge suit, with pale blue hat. The bridesmaid was Miss Minnie Corrigan, who also wore Navy blue serge suit with blue hat to match. And the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Plus McQuaid. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome set of Raccoon furs, to the bridesmaid a signet ring, and to the groomsmen a set of cuff links. The happy couple left on August 24th for their new home in Hornbyville, Ontario, where the groom is employed on the Canadian National Railway, accompanied by the best wishes of their many friends and relatives for long years of happy wedded life.

—By Bud Fisher

Schurman Potato Grader

Now is the time to send your order for a Schurman Grader, which machine has lately been patented at Ottawa. Potato growers will find it a most valuable time-saver in grading potatoes in the field, for market. Price, $28.00.

James Pendergast, Secretary,
Kensington.

September 27th to October 1st, 1921

Prince Edward Island EXHIBITION

AT
Charlottetown

Open to All Canada

Over $13,000 in Exhibition Prizes

Over $7,000 in Race Purses

5--Days Horse Racing--5

13 CLASSES

The Valetenes, sensational optical loop the loop gymnasts.
De Renza and Ladue Comedy revolving ladder and sensational double trapeze act.
Lewis Brothers aerial flying trapeze in gymnastic high dome flights.
Braggar Brothers comedy horizontal bar acts.
The fastest horses in Canada and the Eastern States are coming.
The largest attendance in the history of Prince Edward Island Exhibitions is anticipated. Make your arrangements early.
For all information write the Secretary.
C. R. SMALLWOOD, Sec'y-Treasurer
JOHN J. DAVIES, President

Hotel Victoria

Famed for its cuisine service.
Elegantly furnished, 52 rooms with baths.
Make it your home in Charlottetown.

Carriage Building and Repairing

Blacksmithing of all kinds. Horse shoeing a speciality.
We have none but experienced Help, therefore our aim is to give our customers satisfaction.
PROUD & MORESIDE
Large Old Stand
223 St. George St.

MUTT AND JEFF

MUTT, I SWEAR ON MY WORD OF HONOR THAT I AIN'T GOT A CENT.

BUT YOU HAD FIFTY BERRIES YESTERDAY. WHAT DID YOU DO WITH IT?

I HIRKED A GUY TO LOOK UP MY FAMILY TREE! I WANTED TO TRACE BACK MY ANCESTORS.

WHY, TEN BUCKS IS A BIG PRICE TO PAY FOR SERVICE OF THAT NATURE.

WELL, TEN BUCKS IS ALL THIS GUY CHARGED ME!

THEN - I'D DID YOU DO WITH THE REST OF THE FIFTY?

WELL, AFTER HE GOT ME THE DOPE -

I GAVE HIM THE OTHER FORTY TO KEEP HIS MOUTH SHUT!