Now that the fine days are here the lovers of pleasant healthful exercise are turning their attention to bicycling. The Canada Cycle and Motor Co., Ltd., of Toronto, have this year revolutionized the wheeling days with their new Cleveland cushion frame bicycle, which they claim is as great a novelty to the riders of 1904 as the pneumatic tire was to the riders of the hard tire some years ago. Persons contemplating the purchase of a new wheel should write to their head office at Toronto Junction for their splendid catalogue, or to their local agent, C. R. Rogers, Summerside.

THE following resolution moved by Bro. John G. McFadyen and seconded by Bro. R. P. Newman and supported by Bro. Frank Boyle, Sister Katie B. WEDDING BELLS.—On the evening of Wednesday the 27 inst at 8 o'clock a very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents when Miss Susy E. Bryenton daughter of William and Mrs. Bryenton of Winsloe was united in marriage to Amos J. Boundy, son of John Boundy of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank Frizzle in the presence of a goodly number of invited guests. The bride was beautifully attired in soft grey robes trimmed with silk and lace and wore an elegant bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Ethel Boundy, sister of the groom who appeared in a dress of rich organdie. The groom was attended by Edward Bryenton, brother of the bride. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous repast had been prepared to which the guests did ample justice. The remainder of the evening was spent in various games and amusements and in watching the grotesque figures who appeared in large numbers outside. The popularity of both bride and groom is well attested by the number of useful gifts presented which are as follows: parlor suite by the bride's father; bedroom suite, bride's mother; to the groom, watch and chain, Wm Boundy; hall lamp, Leslie and Mrs. Bryenton; table napkins, W. C. Turner; photo racks, Jacob Diamond; cheque, A. T. and Mrs. Dollar; carving set and case, Jas H. Turner; set nickel smoothing irons, Herbert Bryenton; fancy cushion, Lillian Taper; cheque, Miss D. Boundy; clock, Edward Bryenton; rocker, Wm and Mrs. Slackford; desert knives, Mr and Mrs Beecher Bryenton; table linen, Mrs Clements and Ret; parlor lamp, Mr and Mrs Charles Bryenton; glass pitcher, Miss Lilla Turner; cheque, Miss Mabel Boundy; cruet set, Master Harry Slackford; table linen, Mr and Mrs Geo Clarke; parlor centre table, Leonard Boundy; rattan rocker, Mr and Mrs Jasper Pickard; parlor lamp, Mr and Mrs E. Toombs. After an enjoyable evening the bride and groom departed for their home in Winsloe amidst best wishes and warmest congratulations from relatives and friends.
