KENSINGTON — Wednesday, January 5th, at 7.30 P. M. Week of Prayer Service in Church of England. Rev. L. M. Murray will preach. —SCOTTISH TEACHER AT KENSINGTON—Miss Jessie Kerr, teacher of Quinpool Road School, Halifax, spent Christmas holidays in Kensington and Long River. Miss Kerr is one of several teachers from the United Kingdom serving in an exchange program with American and Canadian teachers. The regular teacher of Quinpool Road School is now teaching in Miss Kerr's department in Scotland. Miss Kerr's desire to visit P. E. Island arose from reading L. M. Montgomery's books. Although she came in winter she was not disappointed. She found everything as pictured in her mind's eye. White in Kensington she was the guest of Mrs. Minnie McLeod and in Long River she visited her cousin Andrew Bain and family. Mr. Bain emigrated to P.E.I. about twenty years ago.—K

RECEPTION HELD — Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Waugh, Kelvin Grove, entertained on Wednesday evening, November 24th, at a reception for their new neighbors, Mrs. John Glover and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glover and family, who had earlier moved to this community from their home at Summerside. Mr. Eskine MacMurdo presided, and after speaking of the purpose of the gathering and extending a welcome to the newcomers, he called upon Mr. Robert Hogg. On behalf of friends and neighbors, Mr. Hogg read an address to Mrs. Glover, who was the recipient of a lovely wool blanket, presented by Mr. Sterling Millar, and to Mr. and Mrs. Glover and family, to whom was presented an occasional chair by Mr. Arnold Walker. Mr. Glover, in his usual jovial manner, voiced his thanks. Mrs. Glover also expressed for herself and for Mrs. Glover, Senator, who was unable to be present, appreciation of the gifts and kindly thought. Frank and his mother are already well and favorably known to the older residents of Kelvin Grove, having lived in the community for many years prior to their residence in Summerside. Lunch was served by the ladies and during the evening, a sing-song was enjoyed, with Mrs. Scott Clark at the piano.—Bur.

PERSONALS —Mr. John J. Perry, O'Leary, has left on a visit to Boston, Mass.—S. —Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lavers of Borden, visited Charlottetown on Friday.—K. —Mr. Dan Champion of Bradshaw, was a visitor to Charlottetown on Friday.—K. —Mr. Dan Murray, Sackville, N. —The many friends of Mrs. Hilary Woodside, of Margate, are sorry to hear of her entering the Prince County Hospital on New Year's day for an operation for appendicitis. All hope for a speedy recovery. —Among the students from Summerside who returned on Monday to resume their studies in Mount Allison University were Dorothy Ellis, Pauline Phillips, Mary Pope, Allison MacDonald and John Gordon. In Horton Academy were Paula Schurman, Gordon MacKay and David Morrison; in Acadia University were Sally Schurman, Laurie Coles, Alan Lecky, Alan Stewart, D. R. Morrison and Gardiner Dalziel.—S.

—Members of the congregation of St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Burlington, are experiencing a degree of satisfaction, in the fact that a splendid beginning has been made, in the improvement of the church building. Mostly by voluntary labor the church has been raised and placed on cement blocks, a furnace has been installed, and a beautiful new east window has been placed, and was dedicated on a recent Sunday. Further improvements and repairs are planned for the coming year. To the rector, Rev. E. J. Davies, and wardens, James Evans and Harry Sudbury, goes much of the credit for a job, well done, in spite of difficulties, but probably every able man in the congregation lent a hand in some part of the work.—Bur.

—Miss Nora Arsenault, accompanied by her niece, Shirley Walsh, of Borden, N.B., spent the Christmas holidays on the Island, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gallant and family of Emerald. —Miss Betty Manderson, R.
