MISS AMELIA McNEILL DIES IN MONTREAL

The death occurred in a nursing home in Montreal on Tuesday, of Miss Amelia E. McNeill, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McNeill, of Charlottetown. P. E. I., and granddaughter of the late Hon. Peter Stewart MacNeil, of Charlottetown.

Miss McNeill remains in Montreal on Wednesday evening and are at Hulse & Playfair Limited, where funeral services will be conducted in the chapel at three o'clock on Friday afternoon by Rev. Canon Davies of St. John's Anglican Church.

Miss McNeill is survived by two nephews, Col. E. R. McNeill of Ottawa, and James Road, of Rochester, N. Y., and several nieces, Miss Faura McNeill, Mrs. Edgar Mitchell, Mrs. G. W. Ross, Misses Florence and Gladys Reed, of Ottawa; Mrs. William Olander, Pointe Claire, P. Q., and Mrs. William Marshall, Toronto, and also several grandnieces and grandnephews. — Ottawa Journal, April 28.

BONSHAW W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Bonshaw Women's institute met at the home of Mrs. T. Beaton on April 27. Mrs. M. P. H. opened the meeting in the usual manner. There were six members and three visitors present. Roll call was responded to by "My First Electric Appliance." It was decided to purchase a new oil stove for use in the Hall. Correspondence was read by the Secretary and discussed. The April Programme was carried out and the contest was enjoyed. Mrs. MacLure was held at the home of Mrs. MacLure. Roll call "My Favourite Spring Flower" and a delicious lunch was served by hostess and the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

WOMEN IN PANTS

MRS. MURPHY'S
 Now that you want trousers freedom for out-of-doors working or loafing, you can wear slacks and keep your masculine admirer at bay. You can wear slacks which slacks to choose.

Best slacks for keeping hip-size a secret, says Lord Scher, New York's self-styled "king of slacks," grow from man-sized pants legs to a waist. You can always plot in surplus fullness at the waist in front; take it in at the back with darts.

The colour that best narrows down rear-expense, it seems, is navy blue. The bright colours and the bold prints are for girls with well-sized hips—but, of course, you know that where a tummy as well as hips needs camouflage, wear a slacks with your slacks or hang out your shirt. You should not cinch in your belt, unless your waist is a temptation to an unwholesome sized hands. You reminded, too, that a close-fitted waist accentuates the size of your hips.

MRS. TRUMAN HAS PARTY FOR PAIS

WASHINGTON, April 17—Mrs. Main Street, multiplied by ten, has been hanging up her nylon in the Lincoln bedroom for three delicious nights. Mrs. Truman invited the members of her Independence Bridge Club, who have been meeting Tuesdays for many years, to buffet the cards at 1800 Pennsylvania avenue for three delicious days, and ten accepted.

It is Mrs. Truman's first assertion of her personality since she took over a year ago from one of the most controversial women in the world, Washington, which was beginning to be rather wistful about her reticence, is delighted. This talkative card has been starved for labels and a legend about that placed personality which did not so much rebuff as ignore its curiosity.

The result is that the attention usually reserved for Hollywood starlets or Channel swimmers beat about the heads of the lucky dowagers. For five who arrived by air (10:21 round trip each from near-began to pop at the take-off. These, with their husbands' business connections, are:
 Mrs. James C. Noel (insurance); Mrs. Leslie Shaw (deputy city clerk); Mrs. George Thomas (twoman); Mrs. Oscar Emmett King (caskets and morticians' supplies); and Mrs. Mize Peters (extruder).
 They were met at the plane by Mrs. Truman's secretary, Miss Rachel Odum, who hustled them into White House cars, but not before they had made it clear in a few answers to questions that they were not to be led into indiscretions. Their smart clothes and the excess baggage the stewardess retained they carried showed, too, that no social emergency would find them wanting.

SOME "HOW'S" OF HOUSE CLEANING
 To clean walls. Dust thoroughly with a long-handled wall brush, cleaning it frequently as you go. Or put a clean cloth over a mop and dust in light strokes. Change the cloth as soon as it shows soft, you don't want to washable surfaces can be given a soap-and-water treatment. If walls are painted, sponge on the suds with a circular motion, wipe off with a sponge or cloth dipped in clear cold water and dry with a rich antiseptic.

To wash woodwork. For enamel finishes, use clear warm dusting, with a little washing soda (one teaspoonful to gallon). Soap dills the glass. Sundry water on the thing for flat-painted surfaces.

To clean furniture. First remove loose dust and wipe clean. Then or a light dose of high-grade furniture polish. Follow directions on the container and apply enough elbow-grease to give the wood a rich antiseptic.

To wax floors. Prepare the ground by wiping off all dust and soil. If necessary to remove the old finish, go over a small square at a time with a cloth moistened with turpentine or good cleanser. Rub lightly with fine steel wool or a fine abrasive, then wipe off with a turpentine-dusted cloth and finally a clean dry cloth and the secret of a really fine finish.

"I give, devise, and bequeath"

"All right, suppose you were making out your will this very moment. Would your estate—minus taxes, funeral expenses and bills—provide enough to keep your home a going concern? A fellow can't expect his wife to maintain a home and educate his children on a few hundred dollars, his old top hat and favourite shotgun. He has to get some bulk to his estate".

Yes, it is one of those moments when most men face facts with a bit of a jolt. It's the sort of thing that suggests a quick telephone call for help from the North American Life representative. He's the fellow who can show you how to guarantee an income to your wife if you should die tomorrow... or an income for both of you when you want to quit working.

Fashion Horoscope by Colette

Some day maybe you'll wish someone called you "skinny" but until that ripe old age of twenty, you'd like more curves and less bone. You've got your wish, what with the new swim-or-play suits, you can have plenty of gainers and fullness on the beach. Do cover up any bony spots and bare the midriff. That's where you want to be thin. Don't wear tailored suit and avoid straight lines. The new femininity in beachwear is definitely flattering.
