IT'S COMING TO HIM ... ISN'T IT?

SNIPER'S bullet nearly ended his dreams on the dike in Holland... and there was a mortar bomb in Germany... but now he is back. He wants a few acres of land, a home in some little green spot where he can forget about booby traps and screaming hot metal. He wants to marry the girl who waited.

These are the very human things your Victory Loan dollars can make available for our returned people... so, in some ways, this Victory Loan is the most important of all. The amount of money needed is large, and the need is urgent.

We can't think Victory is complete until all the men and women who served in this war are properly taken care of—can you?

FRANK SINATRA GENE KELLY, KATHRYN GRAYSON CO-STARRING IN "ANCHORS AWEIGH"

Frank Sinatra and Gene Kelly sing and dance their way through one of the gayest, most romantic musicals of this or any other year in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new Technicolor hit, "Anchors Aweigh" which opens today at the Prince Edward Theatre. They are most ably aided by their beautiful co-star Kathryn Grayson, in this happy new hit.

An outstanding cast is seen in support of the high powered starring trio, including Jose Iturbi, young Dean Stockwell, Rags Edmond, Billy Gilbert, Henry O'Neill, Edgar Kennedy and Pamela Britton, a young lady who will bear watching as she makes her way toward stardom.

"Anchors Aweigh" is studded with musical highlights, including Iturbi's piano-playing and Miss Grayson's popular and classical singing. Sinatra and Kelly get together on "I Begged Her" and "We Hate to Leave" and Frank sings "What Makes the Sunset," "I Fall in Love Too Easily" and other hit tunes.

"Anchors Aweigh" tells of Clarence Doolittle (Sinatra) and Joe Brady (Kelly), a couple of sailors on a four-day leave from an aircraft carrier anchored off San Diego. Clarence, a shy young man, idolizes Joe, who is the ship's "master wolf." Now he asks Joe to find a girl for him. The pair find themselves in one hilarious situation after another when they meet Susan (Miss Grayson), a beautiful Hollywood "extra" seeking an audition with Iturbi. And things become even further complicated when Clarence meets Pamela, who plays a waitress from Brooklyn.
