Workmen's Compensation Act To Be Revised

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 18.—(By The Canadian Press)—General reorganization of the departments of the workmen's compensation board is recommended in the report of the commission appointed to inquire into workmen's compensation matters in the province. The report was tabled in the Legislature yesterday by Premier C. D. Richards.

Coincident with the tabling of the report, which embodies widespread recommendations, Premier Richards introduced a bill amending and consolidating the workmen's compensation act, and framed to implement many of these recommendations. The commission was composed of Mr. Justice Grimmer, of St. John, and George A. Stone of Montreal.

The report, 100 pages long, states that "a modern system of handling compensation work" should be introduced, and "that the present over-staffing of the departments" should be relieved by dispensing with the services of all present employees who are not necessary to an efficient and sufficient organization.

formed that medical fees in this Province are in many respects, higher than medical fees in other provinces and the recommendation herein is accompanied by a suggestion that an inquiry be made into the matter to assist in a revision, if the same is approved.

Another recommendation is that the salary of the chairman of the board be not less than $6,000 per annum. Changes to the act itself were recommended in another section of the report. Some of these, changing the classification of persons employed in the different industries, and extending the scope of the act to include hundreds of workmen not hitherto protected, were passed by Order-in-Council and published in the Royal Gazette, in January, so they could be made effective this year.

The bill introduced by Premier Richards today, entitled "an act to amend and consolidate the Workmen's Compensation Act," is 23 pages in length, and consolidates sections of the old act with many sections not formerly included.

The bill provides that an employer in an industry within the scope of certain sections of the act may be admitted, on such terms and conditions as the board may prescribe from time to time, as being entitled for himself or his dependents to the same compensation as if such employer were a workman within the scope of these sections.

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 17.—(By The Canadian Press)—Total income of the Workmen's Compensation Board for the year 1931, is estimated at $701,466.04, to which is added a cumulative surplus from the year 1930 of $17,877.49, giving a gross income of $719,343.53. Estimated expenditure is shown as $518,393.22, leaving an estimated surplus of $200,950.31.

This information is contained in the thirteenth annual report of the Board tabled in the Provincial Legislature today by Hon. A. J. Leger, Provincial Secretary-Treasurer.

"Suicide Fleet" Packed With Laughs And Thrills

"Suicide Fleet," this week's big attraction at the Prince Edward Theatre, is destined to win acclaim as one of the screen's outstanding achievements. This RKO Pathe picture is a motion picture with all the sweep of the dramatic power enhanced by the dramatic power in that dialogue and sound and in that realism. Filmed on a grand scale with entire divisions of Navy vessels participating, it is a big picture in every sense of the word. The picture tells in graphic and thrilling fashion the story of the war adventures of three sailor pals. The men are aboard a destroyer that finds and sinks a German mystery ship and later are part of the special which acts as a decoy for enemy submarines. Especially notable are the sea battle scenes in which the actual fighting maneuvers carry out real ships to the bottom. Excellent performances are given by Bill Boyd, Robert Armstrong, James Gleason, Ginger Rogers and Harry Banner, the leads. Some five thousand sailors participate in the production. Don't miss this one.

Ken Maynard's Latest Found Thrilling Film

Another of those rip-tearing, two-gun dramas of the West that was featuring that inimitable cowboy star, Ken Maynard, came to the Capital Theatre yesterday with the showing of "The Peatello Kid." To judge by the reaction of the audience, there is nothing that the fast action, wild-riding and plenty of shooting. Ken Maynard plays a dual role in the Tiffany Productions picture, that of the weak sheriff as well as that of his rip-snorting twin brother. The picture offers plenty of run fights, fist fights and wild riding. Incidentally, there is just the right amount of romance running through the story. This story would seem to be just what the doctor ordered to make us forget the worries of the depression. After watching Maynard do his world by the tail and could twist it as we pleased.

Selection Of Delegates A Difficult Problem

ILFORD, Essex, March 18.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Stanley Baldwin, Lord President of the Council in the British Government, in the course of an address here last night, branded as fiction reports that a cabinet crisis had arisen concerning the composition of the British delegation to the Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa next July. The difficulty, he said, was to name delegates for three conferences, Geneva Disarmament, Lausanne International Finance, and the Ottawa parity, which would be in session simultaneously.

"Until we know whether the House of Commons can rise in time to allow as many Ministers as we desire to send to Ottawa to get away, it is difficult to say who can be spared for Ottawa, Lausanne or Geneva," he concluded.

Sequel To Chance Meeting In Rockies

MONTREAL, Que., March 18.—(C.P.)—Two men who crossed one another's path by chance last summer in the Rocky Mountain Canyon met again quite unexpectedly in Montreal recently. They were Dr. Norman Henry, Philadelphia's director of public health who was the first white man to cast eyes on the "sub-tropical valley" of British Columbia, and Rev. George Wolfendale, a Church of England missionary from Fort St. John in the Peace River District. Both visitors were lecturing in this city at the time of their meeting.

Mr. Wolfendale was returning from the most northerly part of his scattered parish last September, when he met a young gold-panner named Gold Bar. They joined forces, paddled by raft a few miles down the Peace River and then found an abandoned boat. They travelled on, being as they went, but stopped at midnight and camped on the shore for the rest of the night. The missionary had a tea-pail, a large ham-croak and the gold-panner had only a little rice. Next morning found them at the Canyon and witness the fortunate meeting with Dr. and Mrs. Henry and their party, which included 60 pack horses in the expedition.

"We were lucky in meeting the Henrys," said Mr. Wolfendale as he smilingly recalled the episode. "They gave us their lunches which I had never tasted before. There were even chocolate bars on those lunches. We don't get them often in the North and how they were enjoyed!" he said.

Immediately came visions of a catastrophe—His Excellency or Her Excellency, or the Japanese Consul General, or the U. S. Minister—possibly even the whole distinguished party in a heap on the ice! And even broken bones. The director thought rapidly. Smartly uniformed Scouts were scattered about the auditorium on various duties. Hastily he called them together. Quickly he explained, and placed them at intervals along the carpet, each boy's toes firmly clamping the carpet-edge to the ice. Their Excellencies and guests passed through the arena of Scouts, smilingly appreciative of the youthful guard of honour, and reached their box in safety.
