

CITY AND COUNTRY

To-Day is Nomination Day for Water and Sewer Commissioners.

Mr. Chas. Keith has sold his mill property to Mr. Daniel McKenzie of Montague.

The work of boring in connection with the Hillsboro Bridge is going on. Yesterday a number of men in charge of Mr. W. H. Sullivan were at work boring on the north side. A small shed is used for the work and by its aid the work is being prosecuted without delay.

In the statement containing the list of the Hillsboro Dairying Co. which appeared in our last weekly the name of Mr. Percy Mutch was omitted, he being the second largest patron of the factory, having sent 45,947 lbs. milk realizing $334.37. The Directors for the Hillsboro Dairying Co. for the ensuing year are John W. Ryan, Donald McEachern, Percy Mutch, Henry Mutch, Charles Stewart, Alfred Lund and J. J. Trainor. At a meeting of the Directors held a short time ago, Mr. Leonard Wood was re-appointed salesman and Mr. Percy Mutch re-appointed treasurer. Tenders are being called for a Secretary and maker, notice of which will appear in another column.

A large and appreciative audience assembled in the Lyceum last evening to hear the Rev. John A. McDonald's illustrated lecture on "Travels in Europe." Mr. John McPhee presided. Shortly after 8 o'clock a capital well rendered program was presented, including an opening address by the chairman, a piano duet by Miss Blanchard and Miss Ryan, a vocal solo by Miss Sarah Trainor, a recitation by Miss Emma Fitzgerald, a vocal solo by Mr. Charles Bell and mandolin, banjo and piano selections by the Misses Murphy and Miss Holloran. The lecturer was then suitably introduced by Mr. McPhee. The Rev. gentleman then took his audience on the wings of imagination, the safest and certainly the cheapest route, on a tour through England, France, Rome the Scotch Highlands and through Ireland. In England he spoke of Shakespeare's birthplace, of Oxford and London in France, Rouen in Normandy where Joan of Arc was burned at the stake, and the great Exposition of Paris. In Rome he spoke very interestingly of the public buildings to be seen there and also of the process of the canonization of the blessed John De La Salle, the noble founder of the Christian Brothers. Passing from the continent he took his audience with him on a tour through the Scottish Highlands, the land of the brown heath and shaggy wood, and last but not least beautiful Ireland with its ruined shrines which tell her sufferings in the past for faith and fatherland. All this was illustrated by pictures of the places he had seen which served to make the lecture doubly interesting and will long be remembered as one of the most successful lectures ever given in Charlottetown. At the conclusion a vote of thanks was moved by Mr. J. J. Johnston and seconded by Mr. Jas. Landrigan. The chairman in tendering the vote of thanks also thanked the lecturer on behalf of the Charlottetown Catholic Literary Institute for the interesting lecture to which the reverend gentleman made a suitable reply.

The P. W. C. Debate was largely attended last evening in spite of the unpleasant weather. The subject for debate "Which has produced the most great men England or Scotland" was opened by Mr. Wm. Sweet in favor of England. He was followed and opposed by Brenton MacIntosh. Mr. Sweet was supported by F. Brenner, B. H. Whiston, H. Toombs, and E. Ellis, while Messrs A. F. McLeod, F. McKenna, W. McBride, A. Doyle and W. E. Campbell upheld the side of "Bonnie Scotland." A vote being taken the majority expressed themselves in favor of Scotland.

The season of the Historical Society was opened in Prince of Wales College last evening by Dr. Anderson who read a paper on "History, the Record of Human Progress." Mr. Thos May performed the duties of chairman. The paper was very interesting, and occupied about an hour and a half in delivery. At the close Rev. Dr. Morrison in a short speech moved a vote of thanks to the lecturer, which was ably seconded by Mr. John Newson and supported by Mr. A. A. Bartlett, and suitably acknowledged by the Doctor. There will be another paper in the near future, the date and subject of which has not been determined upon.

OBITUARY.—Passed away very suddenly at her home, Peter's Road, on January 28th, Jessie Campbell, relict of the late Charles Fleming, aged 87 years. Within a few days of her death she was weaker than usual, but was able to be up most of the time. Even on the day of her death, she had nearly completed dressing herself, when she was prostrated in a faint, recovering, another succeeded, again recovering to be succeeded by another. Finally the spirit passed away to its Maker. During all this time her faculties remained intact, and she spoke in audible tones to those around her giving many assurances of a glorious rest, beyond the vale of tears. Just before she died she uttered those words: "Our troubles and our trials here—will only make us happier there—when we arrive at home." The deceased was born at Montague and was the eldest of the family of the late James Campbell. One brother survives, Alexander Campbell, blacksmith of Montague, and one daughter, Mrs. George Connors of Albion Bay. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. W. H. Spencer of Montague, who spoke very impressively from several passages of scripture. The remains of the deceased followed by a large number of relatives and friends were interred in the cemetery at Murray Harbor North.

All churches and temperance organizations are earnestly requested to send two delegates and all friends of temperance are urged to make it a point to attend.—Edward Bulpitt, Secy. K. C. T. A.

EVERY farmer who can possibly get there should attend the Fruit Growers' Association meeting which takes place in Charlottetown on Wednesday and Thursday the 6th and 7th inst. There is great room for expansion in our fruit business which ought to become in the near future a leading industry on the Island. Prof. Macoun will be there to give practical advice to all interested in this important business.

A DEEP sadness spread over Union Vale, Monday, January 28th, when it was learned that Mrs. Jas. R. Stewart, daughter of the late John Wilson, had calmly breathed her last fully trusting in the merits of her Redeemer. She was born in Scotland in the year 1845 and emigrated with her parents when a child to this country. The family settled at Springfield. She leaves a husband, one son and six daughters to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate wife and mother. Her nobleness of heart, kind and cheerful disposition won the esteem and affection of all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Always charitable and willing to help in any way to promote the welfare of her fellow beings. Her remains were interred in the Presbyterian Cemetery, Brookfield, Lot 5, Wednesday evening. The pall-bearers were, Jas. A. Webb, Isaac Huestis, Charles Dunn, Thomas Dennis, H. W. Turner and John White. Much sympathy is expressed by all for the bereaved family.

"See Those Seams"

"Yet see the seams go round the inside of the 'D. & A.' straight front corset instead of up and down."

"That makes it FLEXIBLE—it never feels stiff."

"But is it strong?"

"Oh, yes, I never had a 'bone' break, they are genuine, rust-proof, clock-spring steel. The D & A corset wears splendidly.

And then, you know—the straight front—is "the thing" as a foundation for this year's gowns. New D & A straight fronts, are here—
