A WARM WELCOME TO RETURNED MEN

A most enjoyable event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell of Irishtown, when on New Year's night a large number of friends assembled to bid a hearty welcome to their son Corporal Carl Verne Campbell who recently returned from a convalescent hospital in England. Mr. Andrew McLeod was called to the chair and after a few remarks called upon Mr. Henry Ready who read the following address of welcome:

To Corporal Carl Verne Campbell:

Almost three winters have passed since we assembled within these walls to bid you a fond farewell, for we realized in a measure the dangers and hardships which would beset you on the battlefields of Europe. Tonight we once more gather around you, with joy in our hearts and words of welcome on our lips. We are joyful to night, for the Great War in which you so bravely fought has come to a victorious close, joyful because we once more behold your smiling countenance amongst us. A returned hero from the battle-scared fields of Flanders. We welcome you Carl as deserves one, who was willing to sacrifice home, country, friends and even life itself so that the insolent. Hun might forever be subdued and democracy securely established through the world. It was our fondest hope that you might escape the deadly missiles of the enemy, but in this we were doomed to dissapointment. When we learned that you were among the list of wounded our thoughts were ever of you, until the glad tidings came that your wounds although of a serious nature would not prove fatal,

It was then we looked forward to this day; when once more you should be seated amongst us, safe from the perils and hardships which you endured for your country and for us. Carl we warmly welcome you home and from our hearts we thank you for the noble part you played in the greatest of world wars. In order that this day may be over bright in your memory we have taken the privilige of presenting you with this little souvenir. Do not, we pray you, look upon it as a gift in compensation for what you so bravely helped to accomplish for us, but only as a remembrance from your friends, who wish you all the blessings and prosperity of the New Year and in the many succeeding ones, which we hope and trust will be spared to you.

Signed on behalf of your friends:
Heath McLeod
John Whelan
Kenneth McLeod
Bernard Ready

Carl although quite unprepared, replied fittingly to the address and assured his hearers that the souvenir (a gold watch fob) would ever be numbered with his most valued possessions.

Many present expressed their delight to see Carl home once more, and heartily welcomed him back from the battlefields where he so heroically did his part. The remainder of the evening was most happily spent in dancing and other amusements.

WELCOME TO RETURNED SOLDIERS

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 5th, the people of Eldon gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. McDonald, the occasion being to extend a welcome to three returned soldiers namely: Private Fred S. McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. McDonald, Private J. Hector Buchanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Buchanan and Gr. R. S. West, son of Mrs. T. F. West. Pte. McDonald and Buchanan, enlisted with the now famous 105th Battalion, spent some months in the trenches, both receiving slight wounds. Gr. West was a member of Fort Ives Heavy Battery. These three boys left school to serve their country, and despite the hardships of discipline and trench life return to us splendid young men, of whom Eldon is justly proud.

An appreciative address was read by Mr. Earl McDonald and little Miss Ethel McDonald on behalf of the people of Eldon presented each soldier with a beautiful signet ring, bearing the inscription "Eldon, 1919" Mrs. E. C. McLean on behalf of the Belfast Red Cross gave to each two pairs of socks. That the boys were surprised and pleased may be shown by quoting a young lady present, who whispered "you look as if you were just married".

The evening was pleasantly spent in social intercourse, music, etc., Miss McRae presiding at the organ while Messrs McLeod and Gillis furnished some excellent selections on bag pipe and violin.

Refreshments were served, and it was evident by the variety of delicacies offered the food controller no longer held away. That all enjoyed the evening is saying but little and the thanks of these present are due Mr. and Mrs. McDonald for the splendid hospitality shown their guests.

WHEN A FAMILY NEEDS A FRIEND

In the Absence of Doctors Nobly Gone to War, After Influenza, the Grip—

Those wonderfully useful medicines, Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills, are warmly recommended.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, taken before meals three times a day, and Hood's Pills, taken at night as needed, are reasonably sure to keep a family in health and prove to be reliable and always ready friends. They purify the blood relieve and prevent biliousness and constipation, build up strength and regulate the system.

Get both, or either one, as you think you need, from your druggist today and begin treatment at once.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

About forty of the residents of Head of Montague gathered at the home of Mr. John A. McLean, on Feb., 11th for the reception of Pte. J. D. Munroe. The reception was opened by remarks suitable to the occasion by Mr. Donald Nicholson, followed by an address read by Mr. John A. McLean, after which Pte. Munroe was presented with a very nice gold watch chain and safety razor, and a sum of money, presented by Katherine Nicholson and Florrie McLeod.

After supper was served by the ladies, Alexander McDonald and Murdock Munroe gave some nice instrumental music. Pte. Munroe wishes to thank all who kindly remembered him and made the gathering a success. Following is the address.

To Pte. J. D. Munroe,

Dear friend:—Your friends and neighbors of Dalmeny, Lot 66, are assembled here tonight to bid you welcome back from the seat of war and to congratulate you on your miraculous escape from death in defence of your king and country. During your seven months service in France and Belgium you have done your best to uphold and defend those principles so dear to lovers of Freedom and Democracy the world over.

It is a matter for rejoicing that you are so well recovered from your severe wounds and that in the reconstruction period lying immediately ahead of us you are not incapacitated to perform your part in the up-building of our beloved country.

As a token of our appreciation of your effort, please accept this small gift, wishing you all success and long life. On behalf of your friends.

Signed,

Catherine Nicholson,
Florry McLeod.

The Ayrshire Cow

The Ayrshire cow has long had admirers in Prince Edward Island and Roy W. Bulpitt, of Cardigan is one of them. For years he has been building up a herd, purchasing the best bulls he can buy and weeding out the females by means of the scales and Babcock test. He was one of the first to enter his cattle in the Record of Performance test and has continued the work regularly since. He has also looked after the health of his herd and some time ago had the tuberculin test applied and has now a herd free from tuberculosis. Recently he purchased a sire to head his herd from Mr. S. R. Cairns of Freetown, a large deep bodied animal of excellent quality and splendid breeding. His dam has a record of performance test of 12,669 lb of milk and 522 lb butter fat in the year equivalent to over 600 lb. of butter and he is sired by Victor of Falconwood by Fizzaway's Heir, one of the best Ayrshire bulls ever brought to the province. Mr. Bulpitt is very much pleased with his recent purchase and the whole neighborhood may be congratulated on having such a good dividually and of excellent breeding and one that has passed the test for tuberculosis.
