IN connection with his correspondence scheme, Inspector McCormac wishes to state that he finds it very difficult to secure from England enough opening letters to meet the demands of his teachers and pupils. Every request, however, which Mr. McCormac receives is carefully filed and letters will be sent to teachers as soon as they are received from England. Although Mr. McCormac has already supplied several hundred letters, he has fifty-six applications which he is unable to fill out at present. He hopes however to receive by next English mail a number of letters to supply the demand.
