WHERE THE MARITIME PROVINCES LEAD.

Under the caption of Some University Heads the Busy Man's Magazine publishes portraits and brief biographical sketches of the principals of ten prominent universities in Canada, beginning with McGill, from which the following facts are gathered:

William Peterson, M. A., LL.D., C. M. G., Principal of McGill University, was born in Edinburgh in 1856.

Robert A. Falconer, B. A., M. A., B. D., D. D., Litt., LL. D., President of the University of Toronto, was born in Charlottetown in 1867.

The Very Reverend Daniel Miner Gordon, M. A., B.D., D.D., LL.D., Principal of Queen's University, Kingston, was born in 1845 in Picton, N. S.

Rev. John Forrest, B.D., D.C.L., LL.D., President of Dalhousie University, Halifax, was born in New Glasgow, N. S., in 1842.

The Rev. George B. Catten, M.A., B.D., Ph.D., Principal of Acadia University, Wolfville, was born in Amherst, N. S., in 1874.

The Rev. Canon T. W. Powell, recently appointed President and Vice-Chancellor of King's College, Windsor, N. S., was born in Thornbury, Ont., in 1868.

The Rev. Henry M. Tory, M.A., B. D., D.C.L., LL.D., President of the new University of Alberta, is a Nova Scotian by birth.

Uel C. Jones, B.A., Ph.D., LL.D., Chancellor and Chairman of the Faculty of the University of New Brunswick, is also a Nova Scotian.

AS TO REMOVING TO THE WEST. From correspondence received by The Guardian and letters and articles printed in other Maritime Province journals it would appear that there is this year less disposition to go west on harvest excursions or to permanently remove, thither than there was formerly.

And on public grounds the exodus from the eastern seaboard to the west ought to be checked. There are many more people in the prairie Provinces than there were there last year, and apparently a less crop to be harvested. Many of those who went in past years on the harvest excursions and returned concluded that the trip did not pay them.

Referring to these migrations the St. John Telegraph, under the headline Speak Out says:

"New Brunswick newspapers, which were so ably represented at a meeting of newspaper men held here under the auspices of the Board of Trade last spring, will doubtless be interested by the announcement that the railway is preparing to exploit the usual harvest excursions to the Canadian West. It is for the newspapers of this Province to consider whether, this year, they will assist in swarming the number of recruits thus carried away from New Brunswick, or whether they will decide once for all that they will no longer lend their assistance in increasing the exodus.

"New Brunswick can give any of its own people quite as good a living, and quite as good opportunities for advancement, comfort, and health, as can be offered by any part of this country or another.

"This appeared to be the settled conviction of all of the newspaper men who assembled here last spring. That is still their opinion, they now have an opportunity to express it freely and forcibly, and if they do so they will be assisting in building up New Brunswick."

What the Telegraph says is quite as true of Prince Edward Island as of New Brunswick. We note also in the Sackville Post a report of a brief interview with Mrs. W. I. Goodwin, formerly of Sackville, but now residing in Vancouver, who recently visited her old home after an absence of three years. We quote:

"Mrs Goodwin has not fallen in love with the great west. She says wick, is a native of that Province. Rev. Richard A. Parrock, M.A., LL. D., D.C.L., Principal and Vice-Chancellor of the University of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, Que., was born in England in 1869.

Nathaniel C. Jones, M.A., Ph.D., President of the Western University, London, Ont., was born in Ontario in 1869.

The list as above gives the heads of ten of the eighteen universities in Canada. Of these four were born in Nova Scotia, two in Ontario and one each in New Brunswick, P. E. Island, Scotland and England. In other words six were born in the Maritime Provinces and only two in the other parts of Canada. There are some important omissions in the list of institutions above named, Mount Allison, Victoria, McMaster and the leading Roman Catholic universities among others, but if the heads of all were named it would bring in one or more additional natives of the Maritime Provinces.

Thus it appears that the palm of educational leadership in Canada falls easily to the eastern section of the Dominion, and this distinction would be further accentuated if account were taken of both the principals and professors supplied by Eastern Canada to the universities of Canada and the United States, including Principal Scherman of Cornell, Dr. Andrew MacPhail and many others from this and the adjoining Provinces.

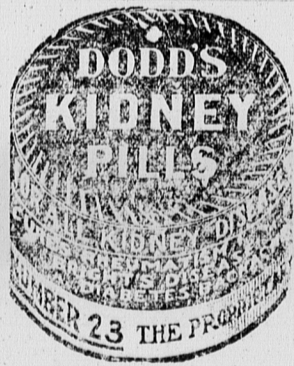

the east is all right and people who are comfortably settled here should not think of moving to the west. During the last few years Mrs. Goodwin says she has met many people who would give almost anything to be comfortably settled in the east again. Especially is this true of the women. Many easterners are returning after satisfying their curiosity regarding the west, and Mrs. Goodwin thinks others will return. The east, she declares, very emphatically, is all right and people who break up a good home here to go west are simply crazy."

All of which is worth considering by those who may be tempted to remove in haste with a chance of being left to repent at leisure.

THE INS AND THE OUTS.

An intelligent tourist, unacquainted with our politics and political parties, inquired of The Guardian recently, what party is in power in this Province and in Canada. The answer was easy—the Liberal party is in power in both the Dominion and the Province. But when he inquired further as to the distinctive principles and policies of the two parties, what Liberalism and Conservatism respectively stand for, the answer was not easy to give.

Let the reader pause a moment and think what he would say if asked for this information. What are

GOOD NEWS TO CANDIDATES

In The $11,000 Prize Contest

---OF---

The Halifax Herald, The Evening Mail And The Charlottetown Guardian

Read carefully the change-in district limitations and note what an excellent chance candidates have who enter the Contest from Prince Edward Island. If not a candidate, send in your name at once; if already entered, get busy and win one of these splendid prizes.

We beg to call your attention to the fact that Prince Edward Island has been added to the territory included in District No. 3. This has been done in order to equalize the division of territory as the mail service and delivery of papers was similar to that of Cape Breton and Newfoundland.

Then, too, so few have entered the Contest from this district that the opportunity for a prize is so certain to those who spend a little time and effort in trying to win one.

Look over the list and see what good chances there are for you to interest your friends at once and win one of the prizes offered in this district. Understand there is no competition with Halifax or Dartmouth or any of the other larger cities. You have a territory distinctly your own, less competition and can compete for prizes equal in value to those offered in the other districts. The number of entries in this district is less than one third and some of these will not remain in the race long, which means that those who work will win.

Get busy at once.

Vote Value of Subscriptions and Prices

DECLINING VOTE SCALE

Votes will be allowed on all paid-in-advance subscription during the Three Periods of this Contest, as follows.

Table with 3 columns: FIRST PERIOD (July 28th to August 20th), SECOND PERIOD (August 22nd to September 3rd), and THIRD PERIOD (September 5th to September 17th). Each column lists subscription durations (6 months, 1 year, 2 years, 3 years, 5 years) and corresponding vote values for different newspapers.
