SUNGLO

Fall Furring Ration

has proven itself during the Fall Months of 1931, 1932 and 1933, in actual feeding results. Hundreds of Raxchers all over Prince Edward Island, and as far West as Saskatoon attest to the wonderful merits of this Ration for Fall Feeding.

Sunglo Fall Furring Ration is manufactured after years of Laboratory and Field work, to produce clear colored pelts with good body of fur and leather—Pelts with finish, and pelts that bring the high average prices.

August 15th to December 15th is the season for Sunglo Fall Furring Ration. Feed the entire ranch, adults and pups, breeders and pelters this Ration combined with meats and milk. Feeding Instructions mailed free, and in every bag of feed. Get your order in at once and start feeding, as the season has arrived.

If you have Feeding Problems you wish advice on, or wish to see animals that have been grown exclusively on Sunglo Feeds, we invite you to call on us at any time.

own one, use fingertips) and, again using upward and outward strokes, pat the cream into your skin. Keep on putting until the cream is entirely melted and the skin feels warm and tingling. When you've finished, wipe off the excess, leaving a little cream around eyes and mouth, and go to bed.

Repeat the treatment in the morning. Before putting on foundation lotion and other make-up, however, use skin tonic to remove every bit of the cream.

Obviously, bleaching lotions are not going to help. Dry skins need preparations which tend to replace natural oils that have been dried out by the sun. If your complexion comes in this category, get a jar of nourishing cream, and learn to use it properly.

At bedtime after your skin has been thoroughly cleaned and padded with skin tonic—dip two cotton pads in ice water. Wring out all the water and then put tissue cream on the pads.

FOLLOW FACIAL MUSCLES
Beginning at the base of the throat, smooth the cream upward and outward to the hairline. Try to follow the facial muscles. They certainly do not run in a straight line from nose to ears—yet many women go on applying cream in that all-wrong direction. Then take a patter (if you don't

Early Topping Of Turnips
The practice of "topping" turnips some weeks before the date of pulling, in order to use the leaves while still green in the feeding of livestock, has been common in certain parts of the Dominion, and the question whether it is an economical operation or not has been settled by practical demonstrations by the Dominion Department of Agriculture. The data obtained showed that turnips from the non-cropped crops had the higher food value. The inquiry also furnished satisfactory evidence of the marked growth of the untopped crop during the latter weeks of the season, the leaves during this period continuing to function as lungs and stomach, resulting in a heavier yield. The practice of topping the crop three weeks or a month prior to the date of pulling has been shown to result in a lower yield per acre of nutrients, and is therefore non-economic.
