SIR FRANK SMITH DEAD.

TORONTO, Jan.17.—[Special].—Hon. Sir Frank Smith dead today.

He was born in Armagh, Ireland, in 1822 and came to Canada with his father in 1832, settling near Toronto.

He acquired wealth in the milling and distillery business, was prominently connected with many railway, telegraph, industrial, insurance and other enterprises.

He was Mayor of London, Ont. in 1866 and was appointed to the Senate in 1871.

He was a member of various Conservatives ministries for about 20 years, mostly without portfolio, but was for a time Minister of Public Works under Sir John Abbott's Premiership. He was probably the richest man in the Senate.

Decides in Favor School of Agriculture

FOR THREE PROVINCES

A Murderer Gives a Solemn Warning From the Scaffold.

A SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE.

HALIFAX, Jan. 17. —(Special.)—The Provincial Premiers this morning decided favorably on the scheme to establish a school of agriculture and horticulture, to be maintained by their provinces collectively.

The question of a technical school was deferred for further consideration.

A MURDERRER HANGED.

REGINA, Jan. 17. —(Special.)—Morrison, who murdered an entire family at Moosomin, N. W. T. some time ago was hanged this morning.

HE MADE A WARNING SPEECH.

On the scaffold Morrison made a speech advising the people to live better lives than he had, telling them that life was so short it was not worth while being sinful.

The Water Commissioners.

SIR.—From a taxpayers standpoint I want more information re the discovered shortage in the accounts of the late Clerk in the Water Works Office before voting for or against the present Water Commissioners.

As I understand the matter when the shortage was discovered, the Commissioner, called in the Auditors who balanced the books up to date; the shortage as found by the Auditors was paid in cash, a receipt in full given to the then Clerk, after which his resignation was asked for and received. A short time afterwards more shortages were found and discoveries made from time to time until the amount reached a further sum of $3000. Fortunately the City held bonds for this amount.

Now Sir, neither the commissioners nor the taxpayers know how much more has been taken. No thorough outside audit of the books has been made. The Commissioners take the ground that a further investigation would be useless, as no more money can be recovered, but the taxpayers want to know how much has been taken and who is responsible for it? Matters seem to have been running very loosely in this office. One merchant firm's account shows debit for six years, one Livery stable account shows a debit for three years, and hundreds of other accounts were in arrears. If the Commissioners were doing their duty would these arrears occur? The office hours of this department are from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Commissioners whose time is or should be taken up elsewhere during these hours can hardly be expected to do full duty in two places.

It appears to the writer that he has been paying for years a special water tax, not at all required if the receipts and earnings of the Water Works had been properly looked after.

THE ANNUAL MEETING

Of Zion Church Held Last Night—The Year's Work Very Encouraging—The Amount Subscribed for Missions.

The Annual Congregational Meeting of Zion Church was held last night. The attendance was large and much interest was manifested in the year's work.

Mr. S. A. McDonald was elected chairman and Mr. E.S. McPhail was appointed secretary.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the pastor, Rev. D. B. McLeod, afterwards the reports of the different societies were presented which showed an excellent year's work in every department.

During the year, 27 were admitted to full communion, 13 by profession of faith and 14 by certificates, eight were removed by death and seven by certificates making a total membership of 304. During the year there were 18 baptisms. Early in the season a Missionary Association was formed with the pastor as president. The result of the first year's was eminently successful, the congregation giving $725 against the $495 last year.

The election of trustees was then proceeded with and resulted as follows:

D. SCHURMAN, CHAIRMAN.
S. A. McDONALD, SECRETARY.
AUBREY MUTCH.
E. S. McPHAIL.
CHAS. ROSS.
D. McKINNON.
R. R. WATERMAN.

General appreciation was expressed with the work of Mr. F. J. Stanley as choice instructor and an extra $50 was added to his salary.

After some discussion the congregation approved of the adoption of individual communion cups.

During the last two months there has been a deep religious movement among the young people and several have been converted, some of whom have already made a profession of faith and have connected themselves with the church.
