The bride studied at Halifax Academy, and the Nova Scotia College of Art.—Saturday's Montreal Star.

James, the young suitor, was about to leave his girl's home when he was confronted by the massive figure of his prospective father-in-law. The young tried hard to evade him, but the girl's father grasped him by the shoulder. "Now, then, my lad," he said, "you've been coming here quite a lot. What do you want with my daughter?" "Well, sir," said James a trifle nervously, "you know best what you can afford."

The trial in Chicago of eight former officials of the municipality, who are charged with squandering $1,200,000 of public money, is described as "merely a curtain-raiser to the appalling revelations of robbery and riotous spending which are expected to be disclosed as a common occurrence in the days when 'Big Bill' Thompson was Mayor of Chicago." At all events, there is no doubt about the Bigness of the Bill,—"Sunday Observer."

FERRY-OSBORNE—A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Dunstan's Basilica at 5.30 on Tuesday morning, Feb. 9th, when Mary Osborne and Walter Perry were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. P. McMahon, D. D. The bride, who looked charming was attended by her sister, Miss Kathleen, while the groom was supported by Mr. Daniel McDonald. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride where a dainty wedding breakfast was served the bride party, the invited guests being relatives of the contracting parties. Immediately after breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Perry left on a short honeymoon trip through the Maritimes, including Halifax, where they will visit the groom's sister, Mrs. A. Atkins and Mr. Atkins and his brother Mr. Robert Perry and Mrs. Perry. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome fur coat. Presents of China, silverware, linen, etc., and a mantel clock from the League of the Cross Band of which the groom is a valued member, testify to their popularity. The Guardian joins in extending hearty felicitations.

PERSONALS — Mr. Wm. Crockett, City, is visiting friends in York. Mr. Charles Carr has returned to Marshfield, after an extended visit to Halifax. The condition of Mr. George Brown, Covehead Road, does not show much improvement. Mr. H. S. MacLeod is doing nicely after being confined to his house through illness since January 13th. The many friends of Mr. Ira M. Brown are glad to see him able to resume his duties again, after the serious illness in his family. The Guardian regrets to learn that Mrs. John Stewart, Sr., Five Mile House, has entered the P. E. I. Hospital for treatment. No Asthma Remedy Like It.—Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy is distinctly different from other so-called remedies. Were this not so it would not have continued its great work of relief until known from ocean to ocean for its wonderful value. Kellogg's, the foremost and best of all asthma remedies, stands upon a reputation founded in the hearts of thousands who have known its benefit.

DROWNED IN POND While Hauling Ice — PETITE RIVER, N. S., Feb. 16.—(By The Canadian Press)—A falling into a pond when a wood-sled, drawn by his father, crashed through the thin ice, Harold Bolivar of Grousepoint, Lunenburg County, was drowned this afternoon. He and his father were hauling wood about two miles from the village when the accident occurred. The boy did not reappear after falling into the water and his father's efforts to locate him failed. Two hours later the lifeless body of the victim was found by a search party. The State Department reminds Japan there's an "open door" in Manchuria. "Yes," Japan might reply, "we found it."
