WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hickbert, Montserrat, where Miss Janet E. Thompson and Mr. Arthur, of Northam, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Durand Mackenzie, assisted by a large number of friends.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Mr. Michael Mountain section foreman at Kensington was working with his men on the line east of the town on Tuesday when in driving spikes with a sledge hammer the hammer glanced in some way and struck one of the section hands a severe blow on the head knocking him unconscious. With the exception of a somewhat severe but fortunately superficial scalp wound, the victim escaped and is now making a good recovery.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE.—During the electrical storm of last Tuesday night lightning struck the home of Mr. Cecil Forbes at Tynes Valley. The bolt entered by the chimney and left by the porch, which was torn up considerably. Mr. Forbes having a very narrow escape. The residence of Mr. Bernard at St. Eleanor's was also struck in about the same manner, the chimney being hit and smashed to below the roof the shingles being torn off. It tore out the screen window and broke the window sill in two, the concussion blowing a hole in the stove pipe and scattering a lot of soot about the room. The only occupant of the room was a sleeping baby which escaped unharmed.

STEAD—SOARE WEDDING.—The home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Soare, 308 Charlotte Avenue, Saskatoon, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Friday afternoon, June 29, when their eldest daughter Miss Merle Elizabeth became the bride of Mr. John McDaniel Stead of Mantario, Sask., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stead, of Winsloe, P. E. I. The Rev. W. B. Cumming performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives. There were wedding attendants. The bride, who graduated recently from the University of Saskatchewan, wore her graduation gown of white crepe, decorated with white roses and pearls. The bridesmaids wore white crepe, decorated with white roses and pearls. The groom wore a suit of blue serge and a white shirt with a white tie.

WEDDING BELLS.—A wedding of interest to many friends in the two adjoining counties took place at Craupad on the evening of July 11th when Miss Eliza A. Yeo of Summerside became the bride of Mr. Thomas Simmons, Craupad. The event taking place at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. Warren Newsome, Rev. A. K. Hornan and Rev. J. B. Daggett officiating. At 6.30 o'clock as the wedding march was being rendered by Miss Newsome. The bride party entered the drawing room where the ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was costumed in pearl and gray tulle and was given in marriage by her brother Mr. Poter Newsome of Charlottetown. Following the tying of the knot the guests sat down to a delightful repast. The large number of presents bespeak the best wishes of a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons will reside temporarily at the groom's home in Westmorland.

er Northland enroute to New York where they intend making their home. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Duffy, Fort Augustus, P. E. I. and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walsh, Elliotville.

At Bayfield Lot 46 on Monday July 9th, after a very protracted illness borne with Divine Christian spirit and fortitude, Ellen, the beloved wife of James Donovan passed into her eternal reward fortified with the rites of the Roman Catholic Church, at the hands of her pastor Rev. R. J. Macdonald at the age of 66 years.

WEDNESDAY WEDDING BELLS.—Miss Olive Ruth Harding, daughter of Mr. John M. and Mrs. Harding, Kensington was married Saturday morning to Mr. Gordon Toombs Bedeque, Rev. A. W. Robertson performing the ceremony. The contracting parties were unattended.

FUNERAL SERVICES.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Daniel McNeill took place on Saturday morning at ten o'clock to the Catholic Cemetery. Rev. Father McKenzie officiating. The pallbearers were: Claude Delaney, James Johnston, Jerry Noonan, John Royce, Peter Hughes and Sampson Walsh.

TWO ACCIDENTS.—Two somewhat serious accidents occurred in connection with the immense crowds attending the Orange Tea at Kensington on Wednesday. One man in cranking his auto on the grounds got his arm broken, and on the road a buggy was caught between two autos going in a different direction and was badly smashed up. Most providently the occupants, a lady and gentleman, were not seriously injured though both were thrown some distance and had a severe shock.

O'REILLY-McCLOSKEY NUP-TIALS.—The following was taken from the Catholic Northwest Progress, Seattle, Wash., dated July 8th, 1922. The wedding of Miss Doris O'Reilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. O'Reilly of this city, and Mr. Thomas McCloskey, son of Mrs. P. J. McCloskey of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, was quietly solemnized Saturday morning, June 2, at St. Anne's Church, with Rev. Thomas Quinn officiating. The bride wore a handsome gown, an imported French model of brown flat crepe, heavily beaded, with picture hat of brown millan with rose facing and trimming and corsage of roses, orchids and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Rose O'Reilly, whose costume was of beige flat crepe with picture hat and corsage of Cecil Brunner roses. Mr. Thomas O'Donnell acted as best man for the groom. After the marriage a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents for the wedding party, and Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey then left for a wedding trip. On their return they will make their home in Seattle.

The death occurred at the Prince Edward Island Hospital Monday morning of Michael Thomas Riggs after a protracted illness.

The late Mr. Riggs, who was one of the city's most respected citizens, was for thirty-nine years an efficient and faithful employee of the C. N. R. Mechanical Department. He entered the service of the railway in January 1875, and until the time of his retirement, under the Provident fund, on April 30th, 1914 was always to be found at his post. Of a quiet disposition, we was a faithful and devoted employee in all departments. The late Mr. Riggs who was in his 80th year, was born on Feb. 22nd, 1841. His wife predeceased him about four years ago. He leaves to mourn his loss six sons: Thomas, Frank and John of this city; Harry on the "Calvin Austin" between St. John and Boston; Dudley in Windsor, Ont. and Charles in Boston.

WEDDING BELLS.—Sacred Heart Church at Newton Centre, Mass., was the scene of a happy event on Sunday June 24th when May A. Duffy of Newton Centre became the bride of Mr. Frank J. Walsh of Brooklyn N.Y. Rev. T.A. Curtin, Pastor performed the ceremony. The bride was beautifully attired in a dress of white tulle and gray tulle and was given in marriage by her brother Mr. Poter Newsome of Charlottetown. Following the tying of the knot the guests sat down to a delightful repast. The large number of presents bespeak the best wishes of a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons will reside temporarily at the groom's home in Westmorland.

SCOTCHFORT CELEBRATION
 The annual celebration at Scotchfort yesterday commemorating the arrival of the Scottish Catholics, was a big success, their being about 3000 people present and an excellent time enjoyed. The people of Tracadie Parish catered for the occasion and deserve great credit for the sumptuous meals provided. The Caledonia Pipers Band furnished good rousing music which all thoroughly enjoyed. The amusements consisted of dancing, games etc.

FRIDAY SERIOUS FIRE.—Mr. George Condy, Long River, had the misfortune on Tuesday evening, to have his house completely gutted by fire. The origin was from sulphur fumes. Only the shell is still standing. He was fortunate in having neighbors nearby who quickly assembled and assisted in saving all movable effects. Mr. Condy was unfortunately absent at the time. He is deeply grateful to his kind neighbors for their timely and effective assistance, for were it not for their prompt intervention, the loss would have been complete. He intends to restore the building soon as possible. No insurance.—Y.

Entered into rest at Regina, July 2nd, 1922: Lulu May McKinley, beloved wife of Arthur Horne leaving to mourn their irreparable loss a sorrowing husband, five small children in Regina, Sask., also her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. McKinley formerly of Charlottetown four brothers and one sister now in Sydney, N.S.

On the evening of June 27, Miss Leah Ching of East Baltic departed this life at the age of fifty years. She was a daughter of John (Ching and Miranda (Stewart) Ching of Red Point.

"Miss Leah," as she was affectionately called by her friends was one of those charming personalities who won the confidence of the first meeting. To meet her, was to covet her friendship and she was a friend to all. Gifted with beauty and grace, she added to these the beauty of a pure heart and a life of loving service. The girls and the boys the young women and the young men loved to visit her home, where they were always graciously welcomed and entertained.

The older people found in her a heart of sympathy, a ray of sunshine in her visits to their homes. In delicate health for several years, she bravely triumphed over her own sufferings, and cheerfully ministered to others.

She was a devout member of the Christian Church, a sincere follower of the Divine Master, true to her convictions and charitable toward those whose opinions differed from hers. A large family connection and many friends mourn the loss of a true woman from their midst.

Miss Martha Stewart of Charlottetown is an aunt to her and to her uncle, Mr. Wallace Stewart, with whom she made her home for several years to her aged father her sisters and brother who tender our sincere sympathy. Rev. W. R. Mac Walker of the East Point Christian and Baptist Churches conducted the funeral service speaking from the words, "Mary sat at Jesus' feet and heard His word."

It is our painful duty to record the death of the late John Rackham, Hunter River which occurred at the P. E. I. Hospital, June 27th. The deceased had been ill for some time but hopes of his recovery had been held out until the day previous to his death he began to show signs of weakening and it was seen that there was no hope of his recovery.

He was born at Wheatley River seventy-nine years ago and spent the greater part of his life there. To Hunter River where his death is deeply regretted by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He was of a retiring disposition and will be greatly missed in his home. His leaves to mourn a widow two sons and two daughters. His sons are: Chester of Wheatley River or Mills, and Malcolm on the old homestead at Wheatley River. The daughters are Mrs. Willard Sells of Hunter River and Mrs. Gertrude Dingwall of the same place; also ten grandchildren. His brothers are James of Des Moines, Iowa and Cephus of Georgia. His sisters are Mrs. Whitty of Woburn, Mass.; Mrs. Clark of Lot 16 and Mrs. John Jackson of Fortune Bridge and Mrs. W. McCallum of Dallas Centre, Iowa.

The funeral service was held on June 29 and was conducted by Rev. O. H. Peters and Rev. R. H. Ross of Flat River. He was a consistent and faithful member of the Methodist Church and died trusting in His Redeemer.

In California, May 26, 1923, Christina Wilson aged 56 years, dearly beloved wife of Judge Elliot M. Wilson leaving a sorrowing husband and one son C. O. Nelson to mourn her loss. Also an aged mother, and one brother John B. of Flat River, P. E. Island two sisters Mrs. Jane McKinnon who was with her when she passed away, and Mrs. O. L. Massina of New Jersey. The above referred to is a daughter of the late Mr. D. D. Ross of Flat River.
