CRAFT INVESTIGATION

NEW YORK, Sept 14—The members of the craft investigation committee re-assembled here today to resume the work of probing legislative corruption. Former Lieut-Governor M. Linn Bruce chief counsel today prepared to place before the members the accounts of various individuals with the banking and brokerage firm, which he had declined to produce its books and was threatened with prosecution, consented to produce the records.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

CHICAGO, September 14—George W. Fitzgerald, a former associating teller in the Chicago federal sub-treasury, was arrested today by a deputy United States marshal, charged with the theft of $173,000, which mysteriously disappeared from the Chicago sub-treasury on November 12, 1907.

PREMIER CANLEJAS' POLICY.

MADRID, September 14—Count Romanones, president of the Spanish chamber of deputies, is quoted in an interview as declaring that the policies of Premier Canlejas as daily gaining adherents among the adherents of the government, as the country is convinced that he is working for the best interests of the nation.

At the opening of the cortes Premier Canlejas, according to the president, will announce an unmodified continuation of the religious program. The "Padlock bill," prohibiting the creation of further religious establishments until the revision of the concordat has been completed, or a definite law upon the subject has been passed, which measure is opposed by the Vatican, will not be withdrawn, but on the contrary the senate will resume its discussion of the legislation.

THE RAILROAD OF THE WEST.

Though the Grand Trunk Pacific only started their through passenger service between Winnipeg and Edmonton, on July 3rd last, the travelling public have recognized the service as the best in Western Canada, and the trains arrive at both terminals on time. The distance between these two points is 792 miles, making it the shortest line, and the distance is covered in thirty hours and fifteen minutes quicker than by any other route. The roadbed is in splendid condition, and with the heavy 50 lb. steel and the favorable gradients the trains run smoothly making it a pleasure to travel. When it is found desirable to do so there will be no difficulty in materially reducing the present time of these trains.

Another feature is the excellent dining car service which is operated on these trains and which has already become known as the best in Western Canada.

MILLINERY MODELS OF EXQUISITE BEAUTY

To be shown at the swell Millinery Opening of the season—Prowse Bros. Fall showing of Millinery and Millinery accessories tonight at 7 until 10 P. M.

As the season for fall openings advances, and one after another fall in line, interested wearers of fashionable Millinery watch eagerly for each separate announcement, and today the many who have watched and waited for Prowse Bros. opening, will have the satisfaction of their waiting being rewarded.

This evening the formal showing of all the fashionable and long waited for hats will take place and of a surety there is a rare treat in store for those who will attend.

The imported hats are very beautiful—these strangers from a strange land—always are—but the time has come when the fact is recognized that home models are their equals in all but price.

One especially beautiful pattern hat was developed in the fashionable Peninsula shade in mushroom shape and with a draped satin crown. The trimming was of wings solely, arranged from sides to front, a braided cabochon giving the finishing touches. Price $15.00.

Another with very deep brim, had the crown draped with Ottoman cord wings in two tones directly in front, and panne velvet forming the foundation and trimming scheme. A handsome buckle finished the hat and the price was moderate—$13.80.

The turning to the work of Miss Rendle the Head Milliner for Prowse Bros—one wondered why imported hats are bought here at all unless it is to show that we have those at home who can do just as perfect work, produce combinations of shades and colors which are even more handsome than the imported and at prices which are within the reach of all.

One of the handsomest models shown is the product of Prowse Bros own workrooms, a splendid example of what Miss Rendle is capable of doing, and is shown in green beaver, trimmed with ribbon of clover and green shades, arranged in deep, full loops, standing prominent from the front. A very large and very handsome gilt buckle gives a touch of richness which fully completes a clever and elegant piece of work. $6.50.

At elegant Gaiter-trimmed, is shown in black and white—carrying out the combination in all the trimmings, the wings being black and white and the velvet trimming white with medium sized black tabs as the finish. Its certainly a striking and handsome chaplain, priced only $5.85.

To mention still another and then leave the rest to be seen by the many who are waiting for this opening—it was of brown velvet, trimmed with Persian ribbon in full loops, and and pascagetric braid. Price $7.50.

The above is intended to convey a slight idea of what there is in store for visitors this evening—and the general decorations, the handsome display of Ready to Wear Costumes and other outer garments should really have a notice of their own. The showing is very complete—highly commendable to the enterprising firm who honestly claim the title of having Charlottetown's Largest Departmental Store and the opening this evening is one which will show to the fullest extent the fact that Prowse Bros know how to cater to the well dressed people of this or any other town.
