ASTAIRE, LUCILLE BREMER, SCORE IN MUSICAL DELIGHT

All the facts of entertainment are brilliantly blended in the new M-G-M Technicolor musical, "Yolanda and the Thief," which opened at the Capitol Theatre for a three day showing.

Astaire, master of the jaunty role, is at his best as the light-hearted and light-fingered crook who finds himself "guardian angel" to a beautiful young heiress.

Miss Bremer is completely delightful as the naive maiden who places her trust and her bonds in Astaire's slippery fingers, and in the numerous musical sequences.

Describes Visit To Western Sections

(ISLAND TRAVELLER in Halifax Herald)

A few miles beyond Tignish is a small village of some ten or twelve families called Norway.

Not to be outdone by impassable roads I then tried a round about way by going through the settlement of Sea Cow Pond, and thence to Norway on the most northerly road of the province.

First Call My first call in Norway was made at the home of Gratian McHugh, who had been an enquirer from Mrs. McHugh.

House of Mrs. McHugh was also absent from home, but his good wife was there to take part in a discussion of the weather.

Wilfred Phee lives on the adjoining farm and the first thing that attracted my attention was Wilfred's new barn.

Leaving Norway I next entered the settlement of Nail Pond which comprises a small farm.
