"NEURITIS FOILED"

Trained Nurse Proves Treatment Personally.

No one who suffers from the cruel, gnawing ache of neuritis can afford to miss reading this story. For here is plain evidence that a simple preparation—which is already the trusted aid for many ills in thousands of homes—can stop that persistent pain. We received the letter out of a blue sky—from a trained nurse. Just listen to what she says: "I have been using 'Thermogene' on myself, as I get neuritis in my arm through it being dislocated in an automobile accident. 'Thermogene' has helped me tremendously. When the pain is acute, I use treatment as it is given in your booklet. I shall certainly recommend 'Thermogene' to all my patients."

For all we know, you may be in pain at this moment. What a pity you have no "Thermogene" in the house. It would give you relief before the day is out!

All you have to do is to place a layer over the affected part. In an incredibly short time the wonderful essences with which this soft, fleecy cotton wool is impregnated will start their soothing, healing work. You will feel the pain stopping. Presently it will be quite gone. For "Thermogene" works by a far surer method than drugs. It doesn't simply deaden pain as they do. It cuts it off at the source — by removing the cause. Don't hesitate. Get "Thermogene." You'll find it far cleaner to handle than poultices or embrocations, and far more effective than either. You can quite well wear this clean, soothing wadding beneath your clothes. It will never show. And remember, every hour in the twenty-four it will keep the pain at bay.

Passing of Mr. D. L. MacKinnon

The town of Montague sustained a severe loss yesterday in the sudden passing of one of its most prominent and most respected citizens, Mr. D. L. MacKinnon. Mr. MacKinnon's death followed a heart attack, and came as a blow to his many friends, who had seen him apparently in the best of health during the last few days. He had been a funeral director at Montague for 52 years, and was the founder of the Montague Furnishing Company.

Born at Heatherdale, 73 years ago, the deceased served his time as a carriage builder, with Matthew Jordan, Pownal, and subsequently entered business at Montague. He was a prominent member of the United Church at Montague and was formerly an elder in the Presbyterian Church. Has was also connected with St. Andrew's Lodge A. F. & A. M.

The late Mr. MacKinnon is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Bessie Walker, whom he married in 1883, by one son Lauchlin M. MacKinnon, Montague, and by three grandchildren, Athol, Eric and Olga. He has four brothers, Donald MacKinnon, K. C., Charlottetown. Murdock MacKinnon, former governor of Prince Edward Island, Archibald and Martin, Montague, and sisters Mrs. J. N. MacDonald, Heatherdale, Mrs. John Matheson, Brooklyn, and Mrs. L. Beaton, Mission City, B. C.

The funeral will be held at 2 p. m. on Friday.

"Polar Bear" Turns Out To Be a Sea-Cow

The correspondent who reported the appearance of a polar bear at Dunedin recently was evidently not a zoologist. The "bear" turned out to be a seacow —an acquatic animal once common to the shores of Prince Edward Island but for many years past practically extinct in these waters. The discovery of the animal is thus related by Mr. Louis Berrigan of Dunedin:

"As Mr. Samuel McEachern was walking home from the store on Saturday evening, on turning in at his gate, which is about 800 yards from the river, he almost fell over a huge sea monster, which after a long debate among the scientists of Dunedin proved to be a sea cow. This phenomenal creature measured 8 feet in length, 7 feet in circumference, weighed 600 pounds and was silver grey in colour with a large brown spot on its back.

Apparently the animal had made its way from the river to fall into the hands of some of the skilled marksmen of Dunedin.

"News of the discovery brought many people from other districts to view the carcass which Mr. McEachern pelted and now has on exhibition at his premises. The blubber when rendered down gave him ten gallons of the finest oil."

The Modern Artist

Modern sculptor, to his wife: "I say, do you remember whether it was a horse or a lion the Puddlton council commissioned me to do? I've got to write and tell them that it's finished."

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN TROWSDALE

As the shadows were gathering upon a fleeting winter's day, our spirits and voices were hushed as we stood around the couch of one who was about to take his departure to the world of spirits. There is always a solemnity about the coming of death, this unbidden and fleeting guest who crosses the thresholds of our homes and snatches from our grasp our loved ones. Sometimes it is a child fresh from the bosom of God the Father, sometimes it is youth whom this unbidden guest carries away, sometimes it is one in middle life and sometimes it is the ripe, matured life that is called to lay down all that is mortal and follow the Angel of Death. Whenever death enters a home it always leaves behind a vacant place, a place that can never again be filled.

On Feb. 3, the home of John Trowsdale, Rose Valley, was waited upon by this grim and benevolent reaper, and his spirit was wafted away to the God who gave it. John Trowsdale, was in the prime of life being but 51 years old. The deceased had not enjoyed very robust health these late years, but had been able to follow his vocation on the farm. He was highly respected by his neighbors, his generous and willing spirit which manifested itself in a readiness to serve others, endeared him to his neighbors. Consequently, our community is poorer for his passing. Although he has gone from our midst his memory will continue to live on among us as an inspiration for years to come. However, it is in the home where he will be most missed, and to his sorrowing wife and children a bereaved community extends its sympathy and prayers in their great loss.

The funeral was held from his late residence on Sunday Feb. 5, at 2.30, p. m. and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Thos. Palethorpe, in the presence of a large gathering of neighbors and friends from far and near. Psalm 23, A-sleep in Jesus, and Abide with me, were feelingly sung. After which the remains were conveyed to Springton cemetery and tenderly laid to rest there.

The deceased leaves to mourn besides his sorrowing wife and two small children, three brothers Samuel and Robert, in New Hampshire, U. S. A., Fred in the Canadian West, also two sisters, Mrs. Robert Graham, of Hamilton, Ont., and Mrs. J. McDowell, of Pleasant Valley, P. E. I., who tenderly cared for him during his illness.

The pall bearers were, Walter Trowsdale, James Todd, Isaac Stewart, Wm. Cousins, Daniel Todd, and Bert Todd. The undertaking arrangements were in the capable hands of Mr. Dawson of Crapaud.
