In Memoriam

MRS. HUGH. J. MACDONALD

The death of Mrs. Hugh. J. MacDonald, of Iris, occurred very suddenly on the night of August 10. Mrs. MacDonald had been as well as usual on Friday evening. Her daughter Mrs. Jessie Whear, had just returned home from Boston on Friday evening. Mrs. MacDonald had received and visited with her.

She died about one o'clock on Saturday morning, of heart failure.

The doctor had told her earlier in the spring that her heart was very weak.

Mrs. MacDonald was sixty five years of age. She leaves to mourn her going an aged husband of 90 years of age. She is also survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jessie Whear, of Boston, Mrs. George Kennedy, of Iris, also by two brothers, Mr. Daniel D. MacKenzie of Iris, Mr. Alex MacKenzie of Dover and one sister, Mrs. Mary Chamberlain, of Dorchester, Mass.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. George Kennedy on Sunday afternoon, and were conducted by the Rev. Quincy A McDowell. The body was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

DONALD J. McDONALD DIES IN SPOKANE, WASH.

His many friends will be sorry, to hear the death of Mr. Donald J. MacDonald, who died in the Sacred Heart Hospital, B. C. Mr. MacDonald, was a brother of Mr. John J. MacDonald and Mrs. Andrew MacKinnon Pisquid, and Uncle of Mrs. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillian Ch'Town.

"The death of Donald J. McDonald took place in the Sacred Heart Hospital, Spokane, on Tuesday afternoon, and followed an operation performed recently at that institution. For several years deceased had been in poor health and last year, for many months was critically ill. He recovered considerably, however, and this spring moved from Greenwood, to Grand Forks, and felt much improved for a time. A fortnight ago his condition became serious and he went to Spokane and was there under the care of medical specialists, undergoing an operation recently. His wife and son Sylvester, were at his bedside while he was in Spokane. The late Mr McDonald, was born in Prince Edward Island sixty-six years ago, coming to the city of Grand Forks, in the nineties and being employed at the smelter for many years in its early days. He moved to Greenwood, about twenty years ago, and with Mrs. McDonald has been ranching on the No. 7 road. Besides his wife he is survived by one daughter, Lizzie, and one son, Sylvester, at home. There are also five sisters and two brothers, all residing in the East except John A. F. McDonald, who lives in Grand Forks. The remains were brought from Spokane yesterday and the funeral will take place at 9.30 this morning from the Catholic Church, where services will be held interment takin place in Evergreen cemetery.

All join his church in its ritual prayer Requiescat in Pace Mr. MacDonald was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacDonald Pisquid East."

Mr. Richard Silliphant.

In the early morning of Monday, July 2nd, Mr Richard Silliphant, of Tupela, Okla., and recently of Hunter River, P. E. I. passed peacefully away at the home of his brother, Robert Silliphant, at the age of 58 years.

The deceased had been in rather poor condition of health for upwards of three years but until a few weeks before his death hopes of recovery were entertained by his friends.

All that medical skill could do was done but all to no avail.

His strength gradually waned until the above-mentioned date his spirit returned to the God who gave it.

Mr. Silliphant was a member of a family of five brothers and five sisters. The other four brothers are, George Silliphant; Dallas, Texas; John Silliphant; Tupela, Okla; Lemuel Silliphant, Los Angeles, Cal., and Robert Silliphant, Hunter River, P. E. I. and the sisters are Mrs. P. W. Martin, Chilliwack, B. C. Mrs. Martha Miles, Losgatos, Cal.; Mrs. Hannah Stevenson, Sask.; Mrs. Mary Essory, Roxbury, Mass., and Mrs. Donald Martin, Hunter River.

The deceased was never married. For some eighteen years, he lived with his brother, George Silliphant, Dallas, Texas. While there he was cutter in the Armour Meat Packing Co. For upwards of twenty years, he resided on the farm of his brother, John Silliphant, Tupela, Okla. About three years ago his health began to fail and since that time a great deal of time was spent under medical treatment.

In the month of April last he came to live at Hunter River, with his brother, Robt. Silliphant.

Mr. Richard Silliphant, was a man who was held in high esteem, by all who knew him, Because of his kindly and genial manner, he was a favorite with all, even during his prolonged illness, he was bright and cheerful, and all his suffering, was borne in the spirit of true Christian fortitude. When the end drew near he was calm and unmoved. He knew in whom he had believed, and he was pursuaded that "He was able to keep what was committed to his trust against that day." His end was peace.

The funeral which was quite a large one was held on the afternoon of Wed., July 4th. The service was conducted by Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, assisted by, Rev. A. E. Chapman and Mr. H. A. Doig Student catechist. The pall bearers, were Messers. William Silliphant, Robert Silliphant, Jr., John Nicholson, Russel Nicholson, Frank Nicholson, and Peter Martin.

Interment was in the Greenvale, Cemetery.

MRS. LESLIE G. BRYENTON.

The death of Mrs. Leslie G. Bryenton, Winsloe, has come as a shock to a multitude of friends. She entered the P. E. Island Hospital for an operation on Monday evening, Aug. 3th, but she failed to rally from its effects and passed away late Thursday evening, at the age of 48. For almost all of her married life of 27 years she lived at Winsloe, and her life has been of incalculable influence for good, not only as a devoted wife in the home but in the life and various activities of the community and the church to which she belonged. At her death Mrs. Bryenton was president of the W. M. S. of the United Church at South Winsloe, and an active worker on the Aid and other organizations of the community. Her home has always been freely open not only to the resident ministers and their families in the Parsonage nearby, but to former ministers revisiting the community, and to whom news of her death will bring great sorrow. Mrs. Bryenton has been a true friend to all in sickness and bereavement and her death has been a very grievous loss to all who knew her and depended upon her.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. Leslie G. Bryenton, her father, Mr. James Hughes, of West Covehead; three brothers, Hibbert, Frank and Parmenas, of Covehead, and Union Road; and one sister, Mrs. Herbert Vessey, of York. Her mother predeceased her by only a few months. Mrs. Elliot, wife of Rev. G. A. D. Elliot, United Church minister at Montrose, and formerly Miss Pearl Saunders, of Winsloe, spent many years in the home and under the care of Mrs. Bryenton. To the afflicted husband and family the deepest sympathy of a large circle of friends is being extended.

The funeral services on Sunday afternoon last were held from her late residence to York cemetery and were very largely attended. Rev. G. A. Grant was assisted at the house by Rev. F. E. Boothroyd of York. Rev. T. A. Wilson, of Covehead, and Rev. Hammond Johnson, of Trinity Church, Charlottetown, and at the grave by Rev. T. A. Wilson and Rev. F. H. Littlejohns of Pownal. The hymns sung were selections of the deceased: "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Asleep in Jesus," and "I Am Going Home."

The funeral arrangements were under the very capable management of McLean's Undertaking Parlors. The pall-eabers were Messrs. Arthur Roberts, Harry Slackford, John McInnes, Fredernck Turner and D. M. Robinson, of Winsloe, and Mr. Frederick Holman, of Charlottetown. The beautiful floral tributes included a "pillow" from her husband, a wreath from her father, sister and brothers, a crescent from Rev. G. A. D. and Mrs. Elliot, and a spray from Mr and Mrs. Gorham Cook.
