

Pale? Thin? How is it with the children these days? Have they plenty of grit, courage, strength? Or are they thin, pale, delicate? This reminds you of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It does great things for children. It gives them a good appetite, improves their digestion, builds up their general health. Ask your doctor if he endorses this.

Head Offices in New Prowse Block, Charlottetown.

SPECIAL attention is directed to Hyndman & Co's announcement on first page of this section in today's issue.

THE friends of Hammond Larner, North River, will be sorry to learn that he has been ill for the past fortnight.

THE Guardian gives up some of its special features today, including the magazine and sermon, for exhibition affairs.

A. C. AND Mrs. McLEOD and Master Harold McLeod, French River, are visiting John and Mrs. Ross Grafton St.

It was Mrs. Daniel T. Fraser, Kingston, who won first prize for hooked mat, all year, not J. Berrigan as reported in Thursday's issue.

THE lady who exchanged umbrellas at the Art Association booth in the exhibition building will find her own with Mrs. Gardiner, Queen Hotel.

MISS EMILY STEVENSON, and W. H. Stevenson, Fredericton, are visiting in the city. They are the guest of Mrs. M. Stevenson, Richmond Street.

MISS MARY BENTLEY, Miss Gertrude Stevenson and Miss May McRae of Hillborough, N. B. are visiting in the city, the guests of Mrs. M. Stevenson, Richmond Street.

ON the occasion of the recent visit of State Deputy Mahoney to this city, he appointed J. F. Gallagher to the well merited position of District Deputy for this Province. The Knights of Columbus is a live fraternal organization with great possibilities for good, and under the judicious guidance of Mr. Gallagher, it is not doubted that Charlottetown Council will take its place in the front rank of local fraternal societies.

JORDAN'S Emulsion made its usual fine showing at the Provincial Exhibition, and Lieutenant Governor MacKinnon, in highly commending the manufactures of Prince Edward Island included Jordan's factory and refinery at Beach Point. The display is most creditable and along with it are three diplomas won at Halifax, Jamaica and Charlottetown, as well as many other prizes. During the past year the demand for Jordan's Emulsion was very large.

THE marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, Brookfield, October 10, of James W. Kimball, Brookton Mass., and Miss Elizabeth A. Buchanan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. McLean, Lot 48. The bride wore a gown of white silk with trimmings of lace and applique and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister Miss Janie M. and the groom's bestman was W. C. Drummond. Mr. and Mrs. Kimball leave for their future home in Brookton, the latter part of next week.

THERE was a meeting of the Cheese Board yesterday at which all the cheese bearers were present. Mr. Spillet (except Kenalington and Hillsboro) at 12 1/2 cents. Cable reports showed the English market dull, Montreal 12 3/4 to 13 1/8 and Kingston 12 3/4. The following resolution was moved by J. C. Underhay, seconded by John Anderson and adopted: Whereas it is apparent that a loss has been sustained owing to cheese being shipped in some cases in insufficiently seasoned boxes, Therefore Resolved That the factors be recommended to order their boxes in the early part of the winter season and that factors sending in first order be the first to be supplied by the contractor.

IT is more and more being recognized throughout the continent what an important place the boys have in the work of the Young Men's Christian Association. The games, the gymnasium, the wholesome literature, the social and religious meetings and Bible classes are things that boys enjoy immensely if they are rightly conducted and play a large part in the right formation of character. The Charlottetown Y. M. C. A. has a wide awake Boys' Committee and has already begun to do things. The intermediate boys social to be given tonight is solely by the boys' committee. The gymnasium classes for the intermediates will open Wednesday at 8.30. Their meetings are held every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock to which all boys over 13 years of age are invited.

To-morrow is Sunday School Rally Day in the First Methodist Church. A good program has been arranged and a cordial invitation is extended to all to come to the basement of the First Methodist Church at 2.30 in the afternoon. Three men were fined for drunkenness at the Police Court yesterday: Peter Keenan $3 or 30 days; Wm. McKinnon, a stranger; $30 or 90 days. Jos. McAluly dismissed and James Power who failed to show up forfeited his bail bond of $30.

THERE will be a general fitting of the side shows this morning. At the midnight hour last night truckmen were busy taking away the structures in which the eloquent proprietors of these shows have held forth all week on the Market Square. With their departure one of the m-r-ke features of exhibition week disappears.
