SAFETY FIRST—A boy in Bayfield, N. B., met with a painful accident a few days ago in a very simple way. With some other young folks he went for a car ride about dusk. While some three or four miles from home his car stopped. He presumed that he was about to investigate. Lighting a match he attempted to "peer" into the gas tank but of course an explosion took place and the boy spent several days in bed afterwards a bit wiser and a bit sore about the head and eyes. Moral—don't look for gas with a lighted match.

BURKE — GAMBLE WEDDING—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 7.45 yesterday morning at the residence of the bride's parents, 86 Upper Hillsborough St., when Miss Lila May daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burke became the bride of Mr. Elmer Claude Gamble of Rose Valley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. M. Ryan Pastor of the Methodist Church. The parlor was attractively decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. The bride who was given away by her father and unattended, was attired in a travelling suit of navy blue, with brown picture hat and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The wedding march was pleasingly rendered by Miss Pearl Johnson. At the conclusion of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served after which the happy couple left on a short honeymoon trip by motor throughout the province. The bride who was formerly a popular teacher at Lady Fane School, Tryon, was the recipient of many beautiful presents of silverware, cut glass and table linen. The Guardian joins in happiest congratulations.

BELFAST NEWS

The congregation of Belfast had very great pleasure in having their pulpit occupied yesterday by such distinguished men as Dr. M. J. McLeod in the morning and Dr. John Pringle of Sydney in the evening.

Other notable visitors that have made the summer pleasant for the place were as follows: Dr. David McKenzie and family, Dr. Beaton of Fall River, Dr. John A. McLeod, Quincy, Mass., Dr. John A. Nicholson, Montreal, Dr. Angus McLean, Souris, Dr. Annie Young, missionary, Dr. Florence McDonald, Dr. Annie McRae, Dr. Eliza McKenzie, Florence Cantello, nurse; Elizabeth McKenzie, nurse; Jessie Nicholson, nurse; Capt. Donald McRae, R. D. McRae, Chivago; John Sinclair and wife, Providence, Rev. Donald Sinclair, M. A. Two sons of Rev. McLean Sinclair a former beloved minister of this congregation; Wm. J. McLeod and family (Quincy) and many others.

It is interesting to state that with one exception all the professional people named here were born in Belfast.

Our centennial celebration was a great success. The church decorations were very attractive. The speaking was excellent. Dr. McLellan began the programme with the mother tongue. The day was ended with the ladies giving a luxurious free lunch to some one hundred and fifty visitors in their new vestry at the end of the church.

The trustees are moving to have a graded school opened at Eldon. We can give abundant employment to a capable music teacher and the farmers say they are suffering for want of a good blacksmith.

A THOUGHTFUL FAREWELL.

On Friday evening the members of St. Mary's Chapel Choir convened at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Brennan, Kensington to extend to Mrs. Brennan their due respects and formally to take cognizance of her intended departure for Boston Mass.

Mr. T. N. Dunahoe, the leader of the choir presided, and in a nice appropriate speech introduced the purport of the occasion. He then called upon Mr. J. A. Ready who read and presented the following:

ADDRESS

Mrs. Elizabeth Brennan, member of St. Mary's Chapel Choir, Kensington.

Dear Madam:

We, members of St. Mary's Chapel choir, Kensington, on the eve of your departure from our community, wish to give expression to the high esteem in which you are held by your many friends. Faithful have you been in the discharge of the duties that you have voluntarily assumed both in assistance rendered to the choir and in the support given to the chapel, and your agreeable nature has rendered your co-operation doubly acceptable. It has been a pleasure to work with you, and a satisfaction to see your work so effective. The effect of this agreeable unity is so marked that its impress will remain after the cause has been removed. But we trust that you will return to us in the not too distant future, again to form a member of the body social.

We wish you abundance of sustaining grace and continued prosperity.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Leo Hughes
Mrs. C. J. Cooke
Mrs. Joseph Condon,
Mrs. (Dr.) E. Gillis,
Miss M. Harrington,
Miss Mary Ready,
Miss Eileen Shea,
Mr. T. N. Donahoe,
Mr. J. A. Ready.

Mrs. Brennan accepted the address and the presentation with calm and dignified gratitude and, to the high esteem in which you are held by your many friends, she replied to the sentiments expressed in the address. She admitted what she had done to promote the superior work that is performed through the medium of St. Mary's Chapel, was only what she had conceived as her duty, and for this we must not expect the reward to be of this world, but must find its source in a higher and holier sphere.

Brief remarks were made by others present and then the ladies

Bridal Couple Given Reception

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. T. A. Stewart, Westville, on Saturday Aug. 25th, when the Ladies Aid West River Pres. Church gave a reception and made a presentation to their new pastor and his wife Rev. C. U. and Mrs. MacNevin.

The spacious drawing room and dining room was beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and potted plants. Little Miss Lorna MacMillan opened the door while Mrs. MacNevin, Mrs. A. K. McPhee Pres of the Ladies Aid and Mrs. T. A. Stewart received the guests. Miss Edythe Stewart read an address while Miss Bessie MacEwen presented Mr. and Mrs. MacNevin with a beautiful gasolene lamp.

Mr. MacNevin although taken by surprise in his genial way, thanked the people for their good wishes and for the interest they had taken in Mrs. MacNevin and himself. Messrs H. MacMillan, Cornwall, H. Murchison, North River and G. Lowther also made a few remarks and spoke words of encouragement to Mr. and Mrs. MacNevin. Among those who assisted in serving were Mrs. Heereated the guests to a delectable lunch which was adequately appreciated.

Mrs. Brennan left on the morning train on Saturday for Boston, Mass.—Y.

FOLLOWING IS THE ADDRESS

To the Rev. Colin U. MacNevin B. A. and Mrs. MacNevin.

Dear Friends:—

On this happy occasion, when you are taking up work in our midst, we, the members and adherents of West River, Presbyterian church, meet to bid you a most cordial welcome and to tell you of our great pleasure in having you as our leaders in the Christian life of our community.

To you, our pastor, we may well say we are proud of your record in church and college life, as well as in the splendid service you rendered to your country in the Great War.

We have long known of your ability in the leadership of young people in church work, of your prowess in the athletic field, and of your integrity and success in business life. And recently you have through your ambition, resourcefulness and industry, won distinction in the scholastic field.

We believe you are eminently fitted for leadership in the Christian Church and we rejoice that you have come to us.

And to Mrs. MacNevin, we take special pleasure in "extending" our welcome. A colleague of your husband in the service of our King and Country, you have come to us from the old Motherland. We are glad to have you as the Lady of our Manse, and we heartily bid you feel, not as a stranger among strangers but as a friend among a host of friends, in the land of your new home.

And as you both abide with us, we wish you all the joy that life can give you. In your home life, in the work of the church, and as you go in and out in our midst, may you know the deepest joys of life and service.

May Heaven's happiest blessings rest richly upon you.

As a slight token of our esteem and pleasure in welcoming you, please accept the accompanying gift. With it go all the good wishes that words can and cannot express.

On behalf of your happy and devoted people.

Sgd.

Their Future

Your Boy, For Instance

Every parent knows that the boy who has training is selected for a good position; and the girl who has the right start can make a place for herself in the world, and always be sure of independence and happiness.

You want your children to be equipped for the battle of life, as others are.

Make Your Plans Secure

Why not provide, as many parents are now doing, that "no matter what may happen" your boy or girl will have the advantage of a good start in life?

In these times they need training and the help you can give as never before.

See what the Canada Life can do with the new

Educational Policy

It will provide immediately, if you should die, an educational fund, to be held in trust at interest for your child's training.

This fund cannot be touched by the child until the date set by you has been reached.

It will then be paid in eight separate payments, six months apart, to cover the four vital years of training.

If you should live, the cash value of the contract, with dividends, will be available at any time to carry out any of your plans.

Nothing could be more simple—the funds provided—your plans made definite and secure—whether you live or die.

You have probably thought this matter over many times. Here is a chance to do something—tangible, immediate, yet quite easy.

Why not find out now what the educational policy will do for your child? This will not put you under any obligation.
