

CONQUER CONSTIPATION EASILY

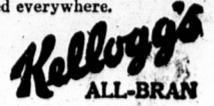

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN relieves constipation because it is 100% BRAN

Mr. McEnery tried part-bran substitutes — but only Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brought complete relief. Here's what he says:

"For fifteen years I was constantly bothered with constipation. . . . About two years ago I tried out mixed bran and corn flakes but did not get much relief. Some eighteen months ago, I began using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. From the first week to this good day, I have never had to take a dose of any laxative medicine of any description."

Rumor Not Verified

OTTAWA, Sept. 7. — The Department of External Affairs here has received no information in regard to the rumor that one of the British dominions will be a candidate for a seat on the League of Nations Council. It was stated today that the rumor probably grew out of the proposals now before the assembly for increasing the number of non-permanent seats.

—BRIDAL SHOWER.—An event of more than usual occurrence took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bonness, Kensington, when about one hundred and fifty of the young people of the surrounding districts gathered to tender Miss Jennie a miscellaneous shower in honor of her approaching marriage. After the many friends had assembled, Miss Bonness was escorted to the dining-room by Miss Vera Picketts and Miss Ada Huestis. To the strains of a wedding march beautifully played by Miss Doris Thompson, Moncton, little Miss Marion Bernard and Master Don Bonness, daintily attired as bride and groom, entered, drawing a prettily decorated wagon on which was placed a large basket which held the numerous gifts consisting of silverware, pyrex, linen, cut glass, numerous kitchen utensils and a number of cheques. Miss Louise Bernard then read a humorous piece of poetry suitable to the occasion, after which Miss Gertrude Buntain read the accompanying verses on the gifts which were opened by Miss Ruth Davidson and Miss Irene Cameron. Miss Bonness, although taken by surprise, thanked them very much for their kindness. All then joined heartily in singing "For she's a jolly good fellow." After lunch was served the remainder of the evening was very pleasantly passed in music and dancing until the wee small hours of the morning, when all departed to their homes agreeing among themselves that they had spent a very enjoyable evening.
