Do You Know

That we operate the only Lens Grinding Plant on P. E. Island?

That we employ a skilled Surface Grinder, and are daily grinding from the rough glass the most complicated kinds of lenses?

Those are facts, which mean a good deal to the Glass wearing public, doing away with the annoying delays caused by sending away for special lenses.

Send your glasses in by mail, you'll get them back promptly and in perfect condition.

Call in and look over our plant.

A SOLDIER HONORED

Pte Robertson Mann, was the guest of honor, last Friday evening, when a large number of his friends and neighbors waited on him at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Mann, and presented him, with a lovely gift.
After some very appropriate words of welcome from the chairman Mr. Micheal Ready and others, an address was then read by Mr. David Campbell while Mr. James McLeod made the presentation. Although taken completely by surprise Robertson suitably replied to the hearty welcome tendered him. The evening was then passed in dancing and other amusements.
Following is the address

To Pte Robertson Mann.
Dear Bob:—We wish to assure you that we are not merely complying with the custom of the times by holding a reception for one of our returned soldiers, a deeper motive actuates us to-night. We have come to welcome one of our brave boys who so well represented our island and particularly our own settlement in the great world war which threatened to destroy the freedom of the whole world and the safety of our homes. Since childhood you have been one of us and as years passed we gladly recognized the manly traits in your character, the ever cheerfulness of your company and your helping hand in time of need. It was our deepest regret that we did not have an opportunity of calling upon you before you left your home for the distant battle-fields, however we watched your career with interest and with pride and at all times fervently wishing that you would be spared to return to us. We are proud to-night that our hopes have been realized and once more you are with us a returned soldier, a man who has fought and bled for his country for freedom and justice. To-night we have called upon you to extend a hand of welcome and show our appreciation for the good work you did in helping to save the world from the domination of the cruel Hun. We ask you to accept this gift as a small token from your friends who all join in welcoming you home and wishing you the happiness and prosperity which you deserve.
Signed on behalf of your friends,
Heath McLeod David Campbell,
James McLeod John Whalen.

A FAREWELL GATHERING

A pleasant social evening was spent Thursday the thirteenth inst when the members of New Glasgow Christian Church met at the home of Mr. Charles Wyand to do honor to Mr. Charles Wyand, who are leaving shortly for Hower, Sask., where their sons have taken a large home-stead. After several hours of social chat and excellent music lead by Miss Ruth Dickenson, a dainty lunch was served and when order was restored the following address was read and Mrs. Wyand was presented with a dozen silver spoons by her sisters in the Ladies Aid.
Dear Mrs. Wyand:—We your sisters in the Aid Society of New Glasgow Christian Church assemble here tonight to spend one more evening with you and also to express our feelings of regret that you are leaving us.
We shall miss you at our meetings. You have always been faithful in your attendance and desire to help in every way, not only in the Aid Soc-

Your Sisters in the Aid Society
Then Mr. S. H. Stevenson in a few appropriate words presented Mr. Wyand with an address on behalf of his brethren of the Church with a beautiful pocket book containing a sum of money. Mr. and Mrs. Wyand although taken by surprise both made suitable replies and after singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" and prayer by their pastor, Rev. J. W. Hayter, the company dispersed, all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Wyand bon voyage.

WELCOME TO RETURNED SOLDIER

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Casey, St. Patrick's Road on the evening of Feb. the 17th., when a number of their friends and acquaintances assembled there to welcome Corporal Kerry, a brother of Mrs. Casey, who recently returned from France.

After supper was served by the ladies of the district, the evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and other amusements, the music being furnished by Mr. Leo Landrigan, Sturgeon and Mr. Robbie Byrne, St. Patrick's Road.
Mr. Frank Trainor presented Corporal Kerry with a nice gift and the following address was read by Mr. Paul McLaughlin.

"To Corporal George Kerry"
We your, fellow-countrymen of Byrnes Road and vicinity have assembled here this evening to bid you welcome home after three years of splendid service for Canada and civilization on the battle-fields of France and Flanders. With pride we applaud your heroism in freely offering our services for the defense of your country; with pride too, we followed your career of bravery and of suffering on those blood-stained fields where you faced death at every moment.

It is hard for us who have remained in our peaceful homes to realize the hardships you have undergone from exposure and sickness but we wish to record our appreciations of our bravery and thank you for the blessings you have purchased for us by your hardships.

We heartily welcome you again into civilian life and trust that you may enjoy after the nerve-wrecking strain of the last three years, rewarded health and strength.
Please accept this small gift, as a token of the esteem in which you are held.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE FROM CHAPLAIN A. G. BUTZER AMERICAN EXPD FORCES FRANCE.

My Dear Miss MacInnis:—Beyond doubt these have been dark sad days for you as you have mourned the loss of your brother and our comrade.

Like thousands of other sisters you have been called upon to lay your brother's rich young promising life on the altar of country and of God. How hard it has been for you, I can well imagine for I, too am a young man like your brother and have sisters. Thinking that a few lines from the chaplain might be of some help I've taken the liberty to write you. Permit me first of all to extend to you the sincere sympathy of all the officers and men of our regiment, for our hearts surely go out to you and your folks in this hour of bereavement. We feel keenly with your loss for while you have lost a brother we have lost a comrade, a comrade who was loved by all the fellows who knew him for he was always making life merry for those around him.

He was killed in action with four other comrades by an enemy shell, dying the death of a true soldier. He suffered no pain at all for he passed away immediately, we brought his body back a good ways from the lines to a quiet spot and there we laid him to rest. He was buried with all the honors due an American Soldier.

The flag he gave his life for was spread over him while the funeral service was being read. There the Army gun salute was fired as a farewell tribute and at the close the bugle blew taps, the army call which signifies that the day is done and the soldier's work ended.

We marked his grave with a wooden cross and a metal name plate and surrounded it all with a fine little fence. The exact location of the grave I sent to Graves Registration Service and you may secure same by writing to them later on at Washington.

IN MEMORIAM.

PTE. VICTOR F. BROOKS.

Passed away on February 10th 1919, at the Canadian Military Hospital, Orpington, England. Pte. Victor F. Brooks, aged 20 years and 11 months dearly beloved son of Charles and Hattie Brooks of White Sands, Victor, with true patriotism, though very young, heeded the call of his country, and enlisted in the 105th Battalion when only 17 years of age. He crossed over to France in April and was in all the Canadian "drives" from Amiens to Cambrai, where he was severely wounded in the wrist, shoulder, thigh and head. His splendid constitution enabled him to make a brave struggle towards recovery for four and a half months, but the wound in the head subsequently proved fatal. Now he sleeps with his brave comrades who feared not the treacherous foe nor grim death where the violets and daisies will peep and the roses bloom, and, although the rolling waves of the blue Atlantic separate his mortal form from loved ones, still the Hope of the Resurrection unites them in spirit and sustains and comforts the sad hearts. When shall the deeds of valor and noble sacrifice of our heroes fade? Not while memory lasts. Rest! Soldier, Rest! No more the bugle shall call the weary one!

In a grave in far-away England, "Somebody's darling slumbers there."
