

A smatterer excels in no single pursuit.

Charlottetown Guardian Two Cents Morning Edition, Founded 1857

A loss which is not known is not lost.

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1938 14 PAGES

Annual Subscription Delivered $5.00 By Mail—L. E. 1. $4.00; Canada and U. S. $5.00

GIANT U. S. CLIPPER MISSING, 15 ABOARD

LOYALISTS HOLD GAINS DESPITE FLOODS

Military, Naval Forces Launch Search For Craft

Silence Shrouds Fate Of Flying Boat Missing In Typhoon Cradle Of Pacific.

(By The Associated Press)

MANILA, July 30—(Saturday)—The 26-ton Hawaii Clipper, with 15 persons aboard, was ominously missing today in the typhoon cradle of the Pacific.

United States military and naval forces quickly launched a search by air and sea, hoping the Transpacific flying boat had alighted safely on the water, but they listened fruitlessly for her radio.

They pinned their immediate hopes on the army transport Meigs which was only 87 miles away when the Clipper sent her last message at 8:09 P.M. last night saying she was 565 miles east of Manila.

With six passengers and a crew of nine, the Clipper left Guam at 11:39 A.M. yesterday for a 1,580-mile jump to Manila, terminus of her regular 8,200-mile route from California.

Radio listeners spread the alarm when four hours passed without a routine report from the plane, which usually gave its position and flying conditions every 30 minutes.

Join In Search

Fourteen warships left Manila Bay to join the hunt.

The plane's radio silence carried forebodings. She was equipped to send and receive messages from the ocean surface and, barring the possibility of a high dive into the Pacific, was considered as seaworthy as any small yacht.

From her log, as made public by Pan American Airways, there was an inkling also that the big clipper was heading into unfavorable weather.

The other passengers were Mr. and Mrs. Meigs and their two children.

Reaching the vicinity of the plane's last reported position, the Meigs began sweeping the sea with her searchlights, while zig-zagging along the course.

At 12:45 A.M. today she reported having sighted nothing.

Aboard Flying Boat

The clipper was in charge of Leo Terletzky, ace Pan American pilot, and K. A. Kennedy, a division traffic manager of the company.

Among the passengers were Major Howard French of Portland, Ore., Dr. Earle McKinley, noted authority on leprosy, and Dr. Fred Meier, principal pathologist of the department of agriculture, both of Washington, D. C.; E. E. Wyman, Curtiss-Wright aircraft official of New York, and Wah Sung Chow, Chinese restaurateur of Jersey City, N. J.

In Terletzky's crew were first officer M. A. Walker, second officer G. M. Davis, third officer J. M. Sauer, fourth officer J. W. Jewett, engineer H. L. Cox, assistant engineer T. B. Tatum, radio officer J. Parker, McCarty, and steward J. H. Parker.

Disappearance of the Hawaii clipper did not affect the scheduled departure of its sister ship, the China clipper, from Alameda, Calif., with the usual crew and a passenger list.

Chinese Strive To Repulse Invaders

SHANGHAI, July 29—A struggle between Chinese troops and an overland Japanese force at Sussung, was reported tonight as Hankow's defenders strove desperately to check the right wing of the Yangtze Valley offensive.

The Japanese force threaded its way through mountain passes to reach the town which must be taken if the invaders are to execute a flanking movement for a rearward attack on the northern extreme of the Chinese Yangtze Valley line.

(By The Canadian Press)

TORONTO, July 29—Minimum and maximum temperatures:

Table with 2 columns: City, Temperature. Includes Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, Saint John, Halifax, Charlottetown.

Forecasts:

Maritime East—Fresh southerly to westerly winds; overcast with occasional rain and much fog.

High tide this afternoon at 12:55 and tomorrow at 12:51.

Sun sets this evening at 7:30 and rises tomorrow morning at 4:43.

First quarter moon Aug. 2nd, 10 p.m.

Summerside tide eighteen minutes later than Charlottetown.

THE CAR FERRY SAILINGS

Table with 2 columns: Destination, Time. Includes Borden, Tormentine, Borden, Tormentine, Borden, Tormentine.

Leaves Borden 7.5 a. m. 9.45 a. m. 1 p. m. and 4.45 p. m. Tormentine 8.15 a. m. 11 a. m. 3.05 p. m. and 6.50 p. m.

Leaves Borden 3.00 a. m. and 7 p. m.

Leaves Tormentine 10.15 a. m. and 8.10 p. m.

PARLIAMENT ADJOURNS IN GREAT BRITAIN

Scheduled To Reconvene In November—Strenuous Session Reviewed.

LONDON, July 29—(CP Cable)—Parliament adjourned today after a strenuous session, with a possibility it may reconvene before the appointed date of Nov. 11 if conditions warrant.

Only a corporal's guard of members attended as the House flew from subject to subject, including some sharp exchanges between the government and the opposition over the bombing of British ships in Spanish waters.

Foreign affairs dominated the session just closed, the Commons having 25 debates and the Lords 10 on international matters.

Among the important events of the session were the Anglo-Italian treaty, signed April 16 but unratified pending a "settlement" of the question of intervention in the Spanish war.

The Anglo-Italian Treaty was another feature of the session which pointed the way toward improved inter-governmental relations.

In the domestic field, legislation was enacted relating to the coal and film industries, civil aviation, and precautions, and holidays with pay.

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

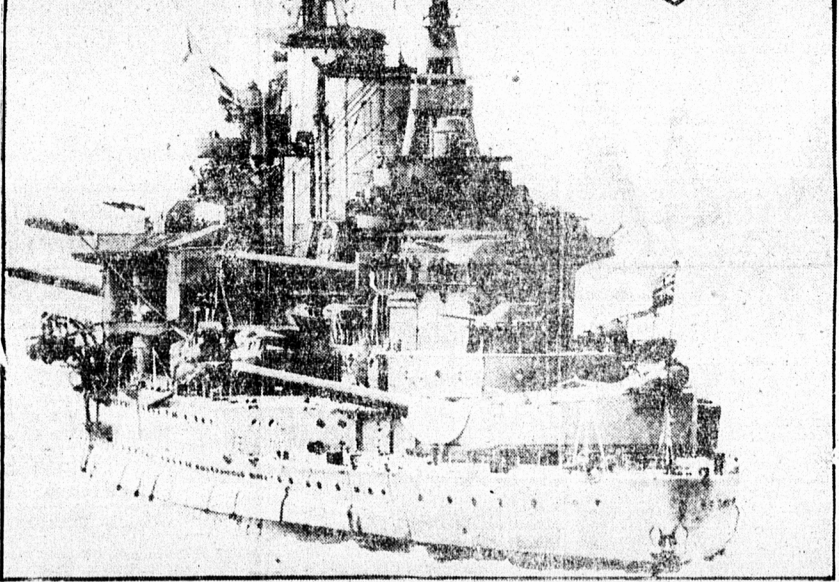

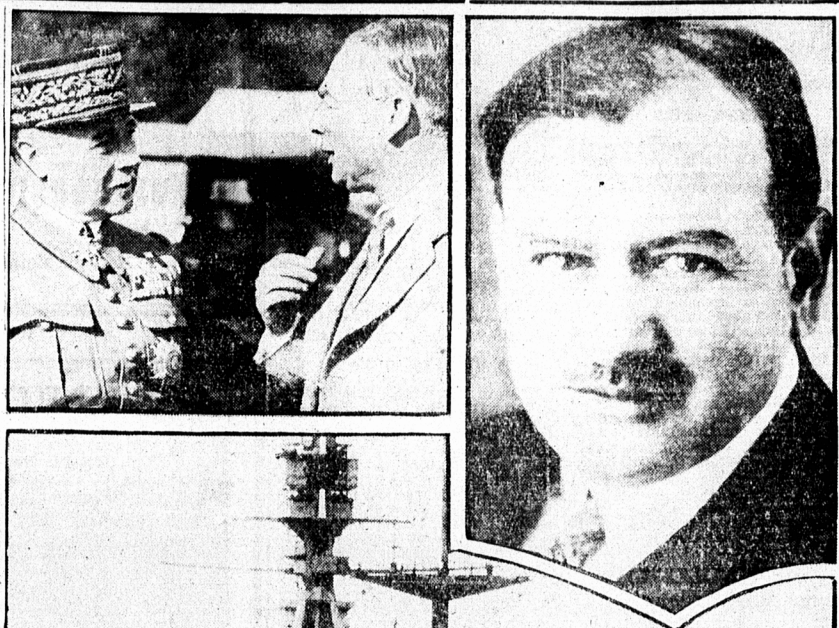

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

The budget raised the income tax to five shillings six pence in the pound (27 1-2 per cent) the highest in many years.

Behind The Royal Visit The Wheels Of Diplomacy Rolled

"It looks as though the two general staffs are as one. The French Tricolor and the British Union Jack seem as one flag." observed Lord Horne, British war secretary (TOP, LEFT) with Major-General M. G. Gamein after his conversations with Premier Daladier (TOP RIGHT) and Gen. Gamein. His statement is taken as an indication that France and Britain have now an axis as strong and in as far a cement as that of Hitler and Mussolini. H.M.S. Rowan (BELOW) in case of war might be called to the defense of the French coast.

Police Open Fire On Rioting Mob At Rangoon, Burma

RANGOON, Burma July 29—(AP)—Military police opened fire on rioting mobs in four parts of Rangoon tonight, killing four persons and wounding 16 in efforts to quell clashes between Muslims and Buddhists.

In four days of fighting through barricaded streets, 50 persons have been killed and 350 injured.

Authorities posted a series of drastic measures to restore order. They warned that public assemblies of more than five persons was forbidden and crowds would be dispersed by force.

Police were ordered to shoot any person attacking another or found looting.

"City Of Memories" Greet 75,000 Veterans In Reunion

TORONTO, July 29—Toronto became a city of memories tonight as close to 75,000 war veterans assembled for the second Canadian Corps reunion.

The words, "I remember," and "don't you remember" were heard everywhere as old comrades got together to renew acquaintances interrupted by 20 years of peace.

There were memories of happy days in Blighty, merry times in camps and cantons, grim days and nights when shot and shell flew overhead and the earth rumbled beneath.

There were sad memories of men who did not come back. Memories brought these men together from all over Canada and many parts of the United States and memories will cheer and thrill them during the three days of the reunion.

All the events on the program, including the annual dinner, will be held in the Grand Hotel, Toronto, from July 30 to August 1.

INSURGENTS OPEN EBRO RIVER DAM

Government Sources Claim "Strategy" Proves Boomerang.

HENDAYE, France, July 29—The Spanish Government "people's army" clung close to Gandesa tonight despite counter-attacks by land and air and a man-made flood in the Ebro River Valley designed to sever supply lines and cut off retreat.

Government forces withstood severe counter-thrusts and the pounding of bombs to consolidate earlier gains in their five-day offensive in South Catalonia.

Barcelona dispatches belittled the strategy of the insurgents in opening all dams on the Monguera Palaresa and Segre Rivers, northern tributaries of the Ebro.

These reports said the Ebro rose from three to five feet but that pontoon bridges carrying reinforcements and supplies merely rose with the river.

Government aerial scouts reported the flood had washed out many of the insurgents' own wooden bridges for miles south of the dams in the Penedes foothills.

Four divisions of Government troops under a former stonemason, General Enrique Lister, were posted to have turned Gandesa, Franco's south Catalonia divisional headquarters, into a sort of no-man's land.

These reports said the Ebro rose from three to five feet but that pontoon bridges carrying reinforcements and supplies merely rose with the river.

Government aerial scouts reported the flood had washed out many of the insurgents' own wooden bridges for miles south of the dams in the Penedes foothills.

Four divisions of Government troops under a former stonemason, General Enrique Lister, were posted to have turned Gandesa, Franco's south Catalonia divisional headquarters, into a sort of no-man's land.

These reports said the Ebro rose from three to five feet but that pontoon bridges carrying reinforcements and supplies merely rose with the river.

Government aerial scouts reported the flood had washed out many of the insurgents' own wooden bridges for miles south of the dams in the Penedes foothills.

Four divisions of Government troops under a former stonemason, General Enrique Lister, were posted to have turned Gandesa, Franco's south Catalonia divisional headquarters, into a sort of no-man's land.

These reports said the Ebro rose from three to five feet but that pontoon bridges carrying reinforcements and supplies merely rose with the river.

Government aerial scouts reported the flood had washed out many of the insurgents' own wooden bridges for miles south of the dams in the Penedes foothills.

Four divisions of Government troops under a former stonemason, General Enrique Lister, were posted to have turned Gandesa, Franco's south Catalonia divisional headquarters, into a sort of no-man's land.

These reports said the Ebro rose from three to five feet but that pontoon bridges carrying reinforcements and supplies merely rose with the river.

Government aerial scouts reported the flood had washed out many of the insurgents' own wooden bridges for miles south of the dams in the Penedes foothills.

Four divisions of Government troops under a former stonemason, General Enrique Lister, were posted to have turned Gandesa, Franco's south Catalonia divisional headquarters, into a sort of no-man's land.

These reports said the Ebro rose from three to five feet but that pontoon bridges carrying reinforcements and supplies merely rose with the river.

New Russo-Jap Border Incident

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MOSCOW, July 29—Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were repulsed by Soviet troops today in a new Siberian border incident which prompted a Russian protest in Tokyo.

The skirmish was said to have occurred when Japanese-Manchoukuo forces attempted to occupy a hill near the junction of Siberia, Manchoukuo and Korea.

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

The communiqué, which asserted the hill in question was in Soviet territory, declared that as a result of measures taken by Soviet frontier guards the Japanese-Manchoukuo detachments were "decisively driven from Soviet territory."

POPE ATTACKS NEW ITALIAN RACIAL POLICY

Expresses Wonder At Fascist Need To Imitate Germany.

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

ROME, July 29—A reply by Pope Pius to the new doctrine of Italian Fascism which holds that Jews "do not belong to the Italian race" was published today by the Vatican newspaper, L'Osservatore Romano.

The Pope did not mention Jews by name but he listed charity towards others as an article of the Catholic faith and said: "We do not want to separate anything in the human family."

His Holiness linked the new Italian doctrine with German racial policy when he said it might be "why in the world Italy unfortunately felt the need to imitate Germany."

The Pope said these things yesterday when he addressed missionary students of 37 nationalities who visited him at his summer residence, Castel Gandolfo.

Different Views

His remarks as embodied in L'Osservatore Romano's resume, pointed out the difference between the church's conception of mankind as "one single, great, universal human family" and conceptions which "barriers are erected between men and other men, between folk and other folk."

Fascism's new racial doctrine, promulgated July 14 by a group of professors under the auspices of Mussolini's Ministry of Popular Culture, proclaimed the "aryanism" of the Italian people.

The Pontiff, at the same time, raised his voice against attacks on Catholic Action, a lay organization which in the past has been a centre of friction between Fascism and the church and which had been attacked by a section of the Fascist press since announcement of the new racialism.

Catholics who regard conciliation between the church and the Italian state—the Lateran Treaties of Feb. 11, 1929—as one of Fascism's greatest achievements, were greatly concerned lest present trends lead to a new break.

The concordat of 1929 provided that activities of Italian Catholic Action were to be "outside any political party and under direct control of the hierarchy of the church" and that Catholic Action should confine itself to religious activities.

The concordat also provided that, in case of any difference between the church and state in interpreting its terms, an effort should be made to reach agreement by friendly means.

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

ATHENS, July 29—General John Metaxas, dictator of Greece, was reported to have smashed with lightning speed today an anti-Fascist revolt on the island of Crete.

Within four hours after announcing the insurgents had seized Crete's capital city of Canea, the Fascist Government in Athens said it was all over.

The leaders of the uprising were reported arrested, while Government forces were pressing measures designed to prevent a further outbreak.

Metaxas, known as "Little John" had dispatched army, naval, and air forces as soon as word of the rebellion reached the mainland.

The revolt, which broke out last night, was headed by M. Mitsotaki, a nephew of the late Eleutherios Venizelos, who in 1935 led one of the fiercest revolts in the modern history of Greece.

Venizelos recalled her King, switched from a republic to a monarchy. Now she is a combination of monarchy and dictatorship, with King George apparently taking little part in the actual direction of the government.

The rebels were reported to have surrendered shortly after the appearance of military planes and aircraft.

Virtually all communication between the mainland and Crete was suspended, and few details of the revolt were announced here. Police were reported to be patrolling the streets of Canea with orders to disarm and arrest all suspects.

Bomb Explosions Shake Palestine

JERUSALEM, July 29—(CP-Havest)—A series of bomb explosions widespread use of bombs. Four women were wounded by an explosion in the Moslem town of Nablus. A home-made projectile thrown under a Jewish bus plying the Jaffa Road wounded a Jewish woman. Two bombs were found in a basket of vegetables being brought into the Jewish market here by an Arab.

Two Arabs were killed by a revolver volley fired by snipers hiding along the Tulkarem-Kalilieh road. One Jew was killed near the Jaffa-Tel Aviv City line. A Tulkarem bus was wrecked and 23 persons were arrested following seizure of an arms cache.

Rescue Crew Of French Schooner

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

HALIFAX, July 29—(CP)—The Coast Guard's Service officials said tonight they had notified the Norwegian freighter Polarland had taken off the master and 15 men of the crew.

The French schooner Notre Dame De St. Jean which foundered near Cape Pine, Nfld. today.

Eight other members of the crew had left the ship before the Polarland's arrival to row to Trepassy. The three-masted vessel burned to the water's edge after an explosion.

First news of the schooner's plight was relayed to the Cape Race, Nfld., radio station by the Swedish ship Consul Corlizon which stood by until help arrived.

The Notre Dame De St. Jean is listed in Lloyd's as a vessel of 1,200 tons net, built at St. Malo in 1922.

Wheat Crop Placed At 350,000,000 Bus.

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

WINNIPEG, July 29—Possibility of a wheat crop of 350,000,000 bushels for the three Prairie Provinces is indicated in the "Searle Grain Company's report" released today, based on 1,062 replies from correspondents. The estimate is on present condition and assuming that normal conditions prevail until harvest.

COMING EVENTS

Wednesday is Dance Night at The Highlands. L-1257-6-11-1.

Shirley Temple, Souris Monday. L-3757-7-27-4.

Borden Line Club leading hogs-lamb, calves every Tuesday. Hours 12 to 3. L-348-12-M-2-5-11.

Dance at Bridgetown Tuesday. Admission 15c and 25c. L-3895-7-29-21.

Ice Cream Social at Belfast United Church August. 8th evening. L-3500-7-30-11.

Ice Cream Festival, Bingo, etc. St. James' Church, Georgetown. Monday, August 1st. L-3823-1-29-21.

Lawn Party at Argyle Shore, Wednesday, August 3rd. Not the first fine night. L-3435-7-30-8-2.

August 1st. St. Teresa's Dramatic Club in Cardigan Hall. Dance to Webster's Orchestra. L-3814-7-29-21.

Western Union Young People's Party at Danville August 11th. Local Unions arrange for pupil announcements. L-3591-7-30-11.

Tenders will be received by undesignated up to August 31st for vanishing in the King's School. Mrs. M. Mac-wain, President. W. I. L-3896-7-29-21.

Ice cream social, dance and Bingo at Southport School, Tuesday, August 2nd, good time. L-3515-7-30-11.

Lawn party at George Dinnis' Wednesday afternoon and evening, August 3rd. Clean sweep. Ice cream and cake served. L-3505-7-30-8-2.

The annual Women's Institute district convention will be held in Cornwall Hall Thursday, August 4. Afternoon session at 2 o'clock. Public meeting at 8. Special speakers and program. Mrs. Dan Barrach, Secretary. L-3818-7-30-11.

Livestock markets have gone bad. We do not recommend shipping until the demand is better. Lambs will make more money for you by leaving them on good pasture. Livestock Marketing Board. L-3514.

Don't forget we are planning to ship sows, old sheep and calves to Montreal week of August 1st to 8th. Starting a call at Souris and Charlottetown Monday, Aug. 8th, and picking up stock enroute. Livestock Marketing Board. L-3514.

Just unloaded at special prices flour, chick scratch, growing mash, corn, bran, barley meal, etc. Also extra good quality wheat. For extra production and egg size get a bag of our laying Mash. Same prices to non members but no profits. P. E. I. Co-operative Egg and Poultry Association. L-3349-7-25-27-30.

We are reducing the price on Weaver Mixture and other hog and livestock feeds as fast as market changes will permit. Never mind asking about price, it will usually be the lowest. We sell at a close price but it must be for cash. Livestock Marketing Board. L-3514.

Don't forget we are planning to ship sows, old sheep and calves to Montreal week of August 1st to 8th. Starting a call at Souris and Charlottetown Monday, Aug. 8th, and picking up stock enroute. Livestock Marketing Board. L-3514.

Just unloaded at special prices flour, chick scratch, growing mash, corn, bran, barley meal, etc. Also extra good quality wheat. For extra production and egg size get a bag of our laying Mash. Same prices to non members but no profits. P. E. I. Co-operative Egg and Poultry Association. L-3349-7-25-27-30.

We are reducing the price on Weaver Mixture and other hog and livestock feeds as fast as market changes will permit. Never mind asking about price, it will usually be the lowest. We sell at a close price but it must be for cash. Livestock Marketing Board. L-3514.

Don't forget we are planning to ship sows, old sheep and calves to Montreal week of August 1st to 8th. Starting a call at Souris and Charlottetown Monday, Aug. 8th, and picking up stock enroute. Livestock Marketing Board. L-3514.