Some very choice selections was rendered on the phonograph by M. McLean, Mrs W. A. Jenkins ably presided at the organ. Supper was served in Mrs Martin's best style. After heartily congratulating Mr and Mrs Martin and hoping they might celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of this event, the guests departed to their homes well pleased with the pleasant social evening.

The Guardian has received from G. E. Ritchie, Queen Street, a handsome Daily Engagement Calendar for 1910, gotten up as only Raphael Tuck & Sons Ltd can. The frontpiece is from a painting by Drummond, entitled, Our Favorites, and is attached as a cover by means of a pretty pink silk cord and tassel. Each month has a separate card, the Sundays and holiday being marked but leaving sufficient space to plainly write out the engagements of each day. Red and green inks are used to good effect and a useful and dainty pad is the result.

The Toronto Lithographing Co. represented here by B. Roy Holman, are now at work on Calendars for 1911. Scores of the best artists have been secured and the production for this year will exceed in beauty and excellence of design anything heretofore attempted. No expense has been spared in equipping the plant to turn out high grade work, and it is the expectation of the firm that in style, workmanship and beauty as well as price the samples of 1911 will be unequalled by those of the best firms in Great Britain and the United States, while the point of price will be much lower. The Toronto Lithographing Co. have the reputation of being one of the best firms in their line in the world. Their work for "Colliers," "Courier," "Toronto Globe" and dozens of other illustrated periodicals has won the highest eulogiums of praise from the best artists.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown P. E. I." and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscriptions," "Editorial," or "News," according to contents.
