Leading Decadent Poet Has Won Greatest Fame As a Fighter in the Air

CAPT. G. D'ANNUNZIO, of the Royal Italian Flying Corps, has lived more intensely and more broadly, and has tasted a greater portion of glory, than any of the distinguished literary men of his time.

When the poet steps out of the field of individual emotion to sing the deeds and triumphs of humanity, it is nearly always some other man's achievements from which he draws inspiration, the warrior, the patriot statesman, the conqueror of the seas or of the air.

CAPT. GABRIELE D'ANNUNZIO.

let to the apotheosis which d'Annunzio won three years ago in the notable feat at Genoa at the dedication of the monument to Garibaldi and his Thousand.

D'Annunzio is not the case of the man smothered by catastrophe from the cultivation of his own walled garden of pleasure or thought to a realization of his kinship with humanity at large.

During the first days of the war Gerhardt Hauptmann emerged from the dank atmosphere of neoplatonic literature to put Germany's case before the world as stoutly as the best of the Junkers.

With d'Annunzio it has not been a sudden conversion. Long before the war, he gave signs of wearing of his musky arbors of passion.

With the Lesser Expense. "I hear that you have brought your daughter an automobile. Pretty expensive game, isn't it?"

"No, it's a matter of economy. I figured that the car will keep her away from bridge parties."

If you want to get up with the lark, go to bed without one.

Faith and hope may die, but charity is immortal.

HUNS SEEKING PEACE

Germany Has Asked For an Armistice.

Prince Maximilian of Baden, the Imperial Chancellor, Sends Note to President Wilson, Asking Him to Assume Role of Mediator—Tentative Offer to Accept Basis of Peace Outlined by Allies.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Prince Maximilian of Baden, the German Imperial Chancellor, announced in the Reichstag Saturday that he had sent a note, through the Swiss Government, to President Wilson, in which Mr. Wilson was requested to take up the bringing about of peace and to communicate upon the subject with the other belligerents.

The text of the note forwarded by the Imperial German Chancellor, Prince Maximilian, to President Wilson, through the Swiss Government, follows:

"The German Government requests the President of the United States to take in hand the restoration of peace, acquaint all the belligerent states of this request, and invite them to send plenipotentiaries for the purpose of opening negotiations.

"It accepts the program set forth by the President of the United States in his message to Congress on Jan. 8, and in his later pronouncements, especially his speech of Sept. 27, as a basis for peace negotiations.

"With a view to avoiding further bloodshed, the German Government requests the immediate conclusion of an armistice on land and sea, and in the air."

It is announced that Turkey will take a similar step. Austria-Hungary has resolved to ask President Wilson to make representation in their interest for a general armistice and negotiations for a general peace, according to a Berne despatch to the Havas Agency.

The text of the Austrian proposal follows: "The Austro-Hungarian Monarchy, which has made only defensive warfare, and has borne witness several times to its desire to put an end to the bloodshed and conclude an honorable peace, proposes by presentation to President Wilson to conclude immediately with him and his Allies a general armistice on land, on sea and in the air, and start without delay negotiations for peace.

These negotiations will be based on the fourteen points in President Wilson's message of Jan. 8, and the four points of his speech of Feb. 12 (Feb. 11), 1918, and those equally of Sept. 27, 1918."

The new peace note of Baron Burian, Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister, will declare that all of President Wilson's terms have been accepted, according to a Vienna despatch, which is published in the Dutch press.

Has Not Reached President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Germany's newest peace offer—proposing an armistice while President Wilson considers and conveys to the Allies a proposal on the basis of the terms laid down by the President himself—had not reached Washington in official form, and there was, therefore, no authorized statement of how it was regarded by the United States.

SERBS PURSUE ENEMY.

Tentons Retire In Disorder In the Balkans.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Serbian forces after violent fighting on Friday entered Vranje, 50 miles northeast of Uskub, according to a Serbian official statement issued yesterday. Several hundred prisoners were taken by the Serbs. The enemy is retiring in disorder towards the north.

"After violent fighting our advanced guards entered Vranje on Friday. Several hundred prisoners and many guns were captured. The enemy is withdrawing northwards in disorder."

German troops which have been fighting in the ranks of the Bulgarian army have been withdrawn and are now marching back toward their headquarters, says the official statement by the German General Army Headquarters.

The text of this section of the German statement says: "Our troops, which hitherto had been fighting in the ranks of the Bulgarian army, have been withdrawn and are marching back toward their headquarters. They have completely met the high demands made upon them and have accomplished excellent work."

The Austrian War Office admits the withdrawal of Austrian troops from Vranje. An official statement issued yesterday says:

"On the Serbian front our advanced troops have been withdrawn from Vranje.

"Near Neumarkt, in Southern Tyrol, as a result of an Italian air raid on a prisoners' camp numerous Italians were killed and wounded."

Two Important Retirements.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Two important enemy retirements are in progress. The first of these is on a seven-mile front south of Cambrai. It is due to British pressure from the south in the direction of Le Cateau, and has amounted to between one and two miles. It is expected this retirement will have as its sequel the abandonment of Cambrai.

There are increasing indications of a probable retirement of the enemy from the Douai sector.
