Much sympathy is felt for A. D. McDonald of Cherry Creek, Nevada on the death of his wife which occurred at Boston Nov. 3rd. Mrs. MacDonald, was taken ill with pneumonia while on her way to visit her old home in Dundas, and only lived 3 days. The funeral which took place at Dundas on Nov. 6th was largely attended. Besides a sorrowing husband two children are left to mourn. The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

FACIAL PARALYSIS

Mr. W. J. Brennan, Western Hill, St Catharines, Ont., writes:—"My face was all twisted out of shape with facial paralysis, and five doctors failed to cure or even relieve. By the persistent use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I have been entirely cured, and have returned to work strong and well. I have gained in weight and feel that I have a new lease of life."

Yesterday Davis & Fraser dropped the price of pork 1-2 cent to 5 cents per lb. This drop is owing to the large supply.

The change will not effect the contents or appearance of the paper in any way, but it is made purely for business reasons.

French River—Monday's storm did quite an amount of damage in this vicinity. The telephone wires were badly broken, the bait house belonging to Messrs N. and A. McLeod, lobster packers has been completely destroyed and reports has it that the strong tide has partly undermined the new breakwater and as a result part of the ballast has fallen out. The old breakwater also has suffered considerably, part of the brush and stone work having been carried away. Several bridges around here have been badly damaged, winds and tides carrying away their railings and making them almost impassible by cutting holes in them.

The death took place on Tuesday night of John Binns, a highly esteemed resident of New Glasgow. Mr. Binns was 69 years of age and had been in very good health until within the last year. MOORE & McLEOD

Tempting ideas in popular new furs.

Fur neck wear in Sable, Mink, Marten and other choice furs.

In attractiveness, individuality and exclusiveness of style-ideas, the present showing of Furs at Moore & McLeod's is ahead of any former one. While it has been the good fortune of this store to set a standard of excellence in these respects, the question of value has always received the most careful attention, and prices in this section are now, as usual, at the lowest figure.

In both these points—the character of the exhibit and the values—we are confident that we have maintained, if not surpassed, the highest record of previous years.

Newson's Furniture is Good Furniture.

Iron Beds

On account of our unprecedented sales in our Iron Bed department, we have been short on some lines and therefore have not advertised them for some time.
We have just received a new lot which make our assortment better than ever before. Two large rooms completely filled with Iron Beds, set up with springs and mattresses on them, show exactly what our beds look like. It would be worth your while to look these over if you want one.

Dressers and Stands

The demand for odd dressers and stands increases with the sale of iron beds.
We have lately stocked a fine assortment in this line. They include the following finishes: White enamel, ash, oak and mahogany.
A better variety has never been seen in Ch'town—we would like to have the opportunity of showing them. Our prices on these goods are as usual very low.
