MOOSE INCREASE

FREDERICTON, N. B.— (CP)— Although there is no open season on hunting moose in New Brunswick, there are signs that they are on the increase in some counties. In two instances recently, bull moose have charged into a highway and tangled with automobiles.

EDUCATED DOG

HVARNES, Norway— (CP) — One farmer on the party line here worries no longer about missing a telephone call while working in the fields. He has trained his dog to listen for the three short rings, which is the farmer's phone signal. The dog barks only on the right signal.

King's County Court October Sitting

....•The October sitting of the County Court for the Fifth Circuit of Kings was held in the Court House at Georgetown on Tuesday, Oct. 18th at 11.00 a.m. His Honor, Judge C. St. Clair Trainor presiding. Two cases were docketed and one application for judgment for arrears in school assessment was also before the court. The first case to be called was set over, with consent of counsel, to the December term of the court. In the second case the plaintiff's were awarded judgment in an action for money loaned and goods sold and delivered. At the request of the trustees of the school district concerned, the application before the court for judgment for arrears in school assessment was withdrawn. The court adjourned until December 20th.

Georgetown and Vicinity

Mrs. Joyce Martell of Souris was the weekend guest of her sister, Mrs. Spurgeon Walker. Mrs Walker also had as her guest, her father, Mr. William Buffett, also of Souris and Mr. Ken Fraser of Elmira.

Mr. G.E. Wood of Charlottetown who is Field Secretary of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind was in Georgetown on Monday making arrangements for a Tag Day to be held on Saturday of this week. Twenty school pupils volunteered to work in teams of two for an hour each to sell the tags. While here Mr. Wood addressed the school pupils on the work being done by the Institute for the Blind.

Mr. R.L. Cooper, representing Canadian Fur Auction Sales Co. (Quebec) Ltd. of Montreal was a visitor to Georgetown on Tuesday, where he contacted the various mink ranchers and distributed literature and sales reports of his company. Mr. Cooper expressed confidence in the fur market for the new season of 1949-50 and thought that mink would be in good demand and should therefore bring a good return to the ranchers.

With the duck hunting season in full swing, one of the best hunting stories to date was brought to the writers attention a few days ago. The hunter in the story was Mr. Temple Gotell of Georgetown whose years of experience in the game and whose renowned marksmanship paid dividends in a big way. On Friday last Temple bagged six black ducks with a single shot in Montague River and again in the same river on Saturday he downed four with one shot. Taking up again on Monday where he left off the previous week, he again succeeded in bringing down five more black ducks and as before with one shot. For the balance of the season, provincial hunters in addition to shooting at the ducks can also shoot at this record of Mr. Gotell's.

IN MEMORIAM

IAN CHARLES MacDONALD

Several weeks ago residents of Cardigan and surrounding areas were shocked and saddened by the tragic drowning of little Ian Charles MacDonald, only son of Major and Mrs. J. A. MacDonald. Playing with other small companions near the wharf they strayed onto the outer part where the three year old boy accidentally fell into the deep water. Unfortunately no one but the small children witnessed the accident and they, not old enough to appreciate the urgency of what happened, were slow to report the event. When this was done a frantic search was begun immediately. Local men made numerous diving attempts, the R. C. M. P. shortly at the scene began dragging operations and Paul Sharpe's Flying Service provided a plane to assist in the search. A local resident proceeding along the shore in a truck to obtain further boating equipment discovered the body at the water's edge about a quarter mile down the river. Artificial respiration was carried on for some time under the direction of the Mounted Police but without avail.

An exceptionally beautiful and friendly child his untimely passing was a severe loss to the bereaved parents and a source of deep regret throughout the community. All Saints Church was filled when the short funeral service was conducted there the following afternoon by Rev. Harold Croken, P. P. The moving prayers of the special service for children impressed on all the uncertainty of life and that God's call sometimes reaches out even to take His little children, unsullied by the frailties of this life, straightway to Him.

The boys who acted as pallbearers were Masters Willard MacKenzie, Francis MacDonald, Ian Scrimgeour, Ronald MacDonald, John Steele and Joseph MacDonald.

Interment was in All Saints Church Cemetery.
