Combined Standing Fields and Threshed Grain Competition, 1931

Cash Prizes for Field of Oats, Wheat, Barley and Certified seed potatoes.

There will be competitions in the three counties where there are five or more entries each for wheat, barley, oats, and for potatoes grown from certified seed.

The number of Prizes in each County will be proportionate with the number of entries. Prizes will be paid according to the combined score of the standing field and the threshed grain.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. A field of Oats shall consist of at least five acres, of wheat and barley three acres, of certified seed potatoes four acres.
2. An entry fee of $1.00 shall be charged for the first, and fifty cents for each additional entry of grain, and $1.00 for each entry of potatoes.
3. The entry fee shall accompany the application.
4. Entries should be made to the Department of Agriculture not later than August 10th, 1931.
5. REGISTERED SEED ONLY.
The field of Oats entered for inspection must be seeded with Registered Oats. Owing to the change in the regulations made by the Seed Branch, Ottawa, fields seeded with unregistered Oats will not be eligible for the competition.

—NORTH BEDEQUE & FREE-TOWN UNITED CHURCH.—(S. S. at N. Bedeque, 10;) 11, Free-town; 3, Traveller's Rest; 7.30, North Bedeque. Minister J. W. A. Nicholson.

—LET YOU, THE NATIVE POPULATION of the Province, living west of Kensington, when occasion demands that they go to fair Charlottetown, or to any point east of Kensington, make it a point always to pass through Kensington, where you can have all needs supplied that this flourishing town can furnish. You will see as good looking people as may be found in any town in the Province and you will receive all the requirements that your mercantile needs may demand. You will be able to verify what The Guardian has always been able to verify—that Kensington is one of the best situated towns in the Province, and one of the most modern, and much of this enterprise may be attributed to their continuously reading The Guardian.—Y.

—ALBERTON PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CENTENNIAL.—The Alberton Presbyterian congregation celebrated its centennial anniversary on Sunday and Monday of this week. Rev. Dr. J. K. Fraser, the minister, held memorial services on the Sabbath and on Monday an outdoor celebration was held on the spacious lawns of the home of Mr. William Forsyth. The ladies of the congregation prepared lunch for the company which included most of the members of the Prince Edward Island Presbytery. After lunch Dr. Fraser read the historical record of this famous old church, mentioning names that are known well to all Presbyterians. Alberton has given some splendid songs to the cause of ..HIGH LINE.—Peter B. McInnis, son of Donald McInnis, Milton School district, though only nineteen years of age, is the high-line lobster fisherman of the Eastern North Shore fisheries, with a total landing catch of 19,000 pounds.

..SUNDAY SERVICES.—On July 26th Rev. R. H. Bell will preach as follows: Southlake eleven A. M. and Kingsboro 7.30 p. m. Morning subject: "Stopping short of God's purpose." Evening subject: "The Folly of Man's Efforts to Reform the World, or Reformation versus Regeneration."

..NOT AS YOUNG AS HE USED TO BE.—Mr. James Donovan, veteran octogenarian fisherman of Bull Creek, finds he is not as young as he used to be, and has succumbed to the infirmities of old age while codfishing at Naufrage, and his been forced to return to his home where he is now under medical care.

..UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA, Georgetown and Sturgeon services Sunday, July 26th; Sturgeon, 11 a. m.; Milltown Cross, 2.30 p. m.; Georgetown, 7 p. m. These services will be conducted by Rev. J. A. Puc-Gilchrist, of St. John's Church, Halifax. Mr. Puc-Gilchrist will be supplying in the Georgetown Congregation for the next five weeks and this will bring a fine opportunity to the people of the Eastern portion of "The Island" to hear this popular Nova Scotia preacher.

..REV. J. A. PUE-GILCHRIST AT GEORGETOWN.—It is understood the Rev. J. A. Puc-Gilchrist, of Halifax, will be the minister preaching in the Georgetown congregation of the United Church of Canada for the next five Sundays. During Mr. Puc-Gilchrist's college days he showed marked ability both as a student and an athlete. Since then he has always been one of the most popular Canadian preachers. A couple of years ago he came to Halifax to undertake a hard task in St. John's United Church there, and, since his coming to the City, he has more than measured up to all expectations. Mr. Puc-Gilchrist will hold his first services on Sunday, July 26th, when he will be in Sturgeon at 11 a. m.; Milltown Cross at 2.30 p. m. and Georgetown at 7. His first sermon will be preached on "Jesus' Favorite Text," and as many as can should attempt to hear it.

Christ, chief among them of course were the martyr Gordons of Eromanga. Addresses were given by the Rev. Hensley Stavert, Moderator of Synod, and by the Rev. Thos. Rodger of Belfast, Moderator of Island Presbytery. Felicitations were brought from Summerside by the Minister of the church there, Rev. C. J. St. Johns. The Rev. Mr. Gibson of Montague and the Rev. Fred Williamson of Malpeque also brought hearty good wishes from their respective congregations. Mr. Clyde Auld of Toronto and Malpeque expressed his pleasure at being present as a representative of an old Alberton family. Mr. C. R. Rogers of Summerside, a former resident and member of the Alberton Church, and whose father the Hon. Benjamin Rogers was an elder in the congregation for a great number of years, recalled old memories and associations, and extended congratulations and good wishes for the future. This congregation is to be felicitated on entering its second century of service under such happy auspices and under the leadership of Dr. Fraser whose own father also ministered over 60 years ago in the same place and whose sisters are still resident in the old home. A beautiful letter from the General Assembly of Canada was read with much interest. Many visitors from all over the Province were in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Rogers, old Alberton citizens and Mrs. (Dr.) Alex. McNeill were among those who attended from Summerside.—S.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

A very pleasant social evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bowley, Midgeal on Thursday July 22nd, when the members of the Young Peoples' Society of Marie United Church assembled in the form of a surprise party, to extend their congratulations to their son Mr. W. E. Hudson and his bride, formerly Miss Eva M. Cobb of Millburn.

When the company was seated, the president of the society Mr. Everett Webster called upon the Secretary Mr. Walter Dingwell to read an address, and a beautiful gift of silver was presented to the young couple by Miss Elizabeth Webster, on behalf of the society.

The following is the address: Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Bowley Dear Hudson and Eva: We the members of the Marie Young Peoples' Society have met here tonight to surprise you, and spend a social evening with you.

We wish to show our appreciation of your work as members of this society, and for the hearty welcome we have always received at your homes.

We are pleased to know that you are staying in this community, and hope you will be able to attend our meetings.

We now ask you to accept this small gift.

Although these words are few and the gift trifling, they carry many wishes for your happiness in the future.

Again wishing you many happy years of wedded life and that God may guide you on your way.

Signed on behalf of Marie Y. P. S. PRES. EVERETT WEBSTER, JR.
