The following letter signed by J. J. England, Semour McNeill and Wilfrid Mattix on behalf of the lodge have been forwarded to M. L. Crossman, Springfield. It is the desire of the officers and members of Western Light L. O. L. No. 1782 that we, their committee, extend to you and through you, to your aged and esteemed father, sisters and brothers our sincere and heartfelt sympathy on the sad and sudden occasion of the death of your dearly beloved mother which took place at her home, this week. While realizing that so very sudden a severance of the tender ties of love and nature which bound so beautiful and exemplary a personality to each individual of her family circle causes unmitigated grief, we would remind you that "your loss is her eternal gain," and that she is only gone before to be forever with her Lord and Master whom she loved and served here. And also that whom the Lord Loveth he chasteneth and correcteth every son whom He loveth. May we all, through this dispensation of divine Providence hear the Master's voice saying, "Be ye also ready for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh which coming will by God's Grace give you a happy reunion where there is no more sorrow."
