Mrs. Hugh A. Ramsay, eldest daughter of the Rev. Henry Crawford, Bridgewater died at her home in Palo Alto, California on Nov. 4. In company with her husband, the deceased lady moved to California about 15 years ago, and Mr. Ramsay, who is an active P. E. I. now holds the position of City Marshal of Palo Alto. The death was caused by a great shock to the heart of father and brothers and sisters, who together with her husband and two sons and two daughters have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. Rev. J. W. J. Crawford, who is at present in Scotland, is a brother of Mrs. Ramsay.

The death occurred in this City on December 1st inst. of Margaret L., beloved wife of Isaac McConroy, of the P. E. I., aged 47. The deceased was the daughter of John L. Smith, New Glasgow. The late Mrs. McConroy was a loving Christian mother, and a kind and affectionate friend to all. For many years she was a faithful and consistent member of the Baptist Church in this city. For over a year she was in failing health, but in all her sickness was never known to murmur or complain. She performed her various duties in the home and family and bore her sorrows with a brave heart and submission to the will of her Heavenly Father. Besides her aged parents and three brothers and four sisters she leaves a husband and seven children, four daughters and three sons to mourn their loss.—Com.

D. P. Leonard, representing Chesbro Brothers, Fulton Fish Market, New York is in the City in the interests of his firm. Mr. Leonard who came in from the western part of the Province, reports that the fish trade in New York has kept up better this year than other lines of business. He will make his headquarters at the Queen Hotel. The indications are that the price for frozen smelts will be specially good this season in the New York Market and that as soon as the weather becomes cold frozen smelts arriving will be more generally distributed throughout the country districts which will cause the prices to rise high.

The Halifax Mail says: Miss Blackadar, for thirty years a missionary of the Presbyterian church in Trinidad, in which honor a reception is to be given by the combined missionary societies of the Presbyterian churches of Halifax, on Thursday evening, in St. Matthew's church, was last week the guest of Mrs. Cunningham, 263 South Park street, and will this week be the guest of Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Fraser, Government House. Miss Blackadar has done fine work in Trinidad, and Presbyterians generally welcome an opportunity to hear from her lips the story of the progress made by the church in Trinidad in the past thirty years.
