That we operate the only Lens Grinding Plant on P. E. Island?

That we employ a skilled Surface Grinder, and are daily grinding from the rough glass the most complicated kinds of lenses?

Those are facts, which mean a good deal to the Glass wearing public, doing away with the annoying delays caused by sending away for special lenses.

Send your glasses in by mail, you'll get them back promptly and in perfect condition.

Call in and look over our plant.

Mother! Don't Take Chances if Child's Tongue Is Coated

If cross, feverish, sick, bilious, clean little liver and bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is ofttimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

ODE TO THE BROWN THRASHER

Oh shy timid bird of the forest,
Come back to me over the sea,
Your presence is due as a tourist,
I am patiently waiting for thee
The valley is silent without you,
It is silent, and has been, so long.
That my treacherous mind almost doubts you
Return with your beautiful song.

Oh well I remember my childhood,
When high on your evergreen tree,
You sat there for hours in the wildwood
And sang your sweet music to me,
In warble, in chant and in tremblo
In high and low music it rolls,
I stand with my children assembled
And record your notes on my soul.

It have listened to bird-song from childhood,
And give credit where credit is due
But never a bird in the wild-wood
Has sung as sweet carol as you
Oh shy timid bird of the forest,
Come sing your melodious refrain
Oh Migratory tourist,
You have come, I can hear you again.

JOHN R. MARKS

IN MEMORIAM

SUSAN MARGARET GAUDET.

The funeral of the late Susan Margaret, twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gaudet, took place at nine o'clock Monday. Her early death at the age of thirteen years came as a shock to all as she had only been confined to her bed for two weeks, although not feeling well for about two months.

After all medical skill and tender nursing her pure spirit fled to Him who gave it. By her sunny smile and kind disposition she was loved by all who knew her and she will be greatly missed by her companions.

She was visited in her sickness by Rev. Father Maurice McDonald who administered the last sacrament and performed the service at the church. Rev. Father William McDonald officiated at the grave.

The pall bearers were:—
John Alyward, Edward and Joseph Trainor, Everett and Wilfrid Smith, and Ernest McInnis of Southport.

She leaves to mourn besides father and mother, one brother Angus and three sisters, namely, Blanche, Mary, and Catherine.

THE LATE MR. JOHN NOY.

The people of Village Green and vicinity were saddened on March 22, by the death of Mr. John Noy, an old and much respected resident of that place. Born at Hazelbrook, Lot 48, 73 wears ago, he removed to Village Green about 45 years ago where by honest labor he provided for himself and family one of the most confortable homes in that place. Mr. Noy had been ailing about three weeks and despite the best medical skill and kind nursing he camly and willingly yielded up his spirit.

The esteem in which he was held in the community was fully testified by the friends who visited him during his illnes and the number who attended his funeral. Of a quiet disposition he will long be missed in the home from which he has gone forever. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing widow and one son, James, at home, and two daughter, Mrs. John Cosgrove, in Western Canada, and Miss Ella, at home, and three grand daughters who mourn the loss of one of the kindest of grand parents and who will long be remembered by them as a most kindly man, always thoughtful for their comfort. They are Miss Leslie Cosgrove, teaching in Western Canada, Evelyn a student at U. C. College who on hearing of his illness hastened to his bedside, and Avis at home. The funeral took place on March 24, the service being conducted by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Pierce after which they laid to rest in Pownal Cemetery all that was mortal of a good man who through his long life faithfully served his God.

The pall bearers were P. Duffy, M. Acorn, Peter Jockman, Tho. Curley, A. D. Brehaut and N. Jenkins.

MR. JOHN MURRAY

On March 17th a sad gloom was cast over the parish of Lot 65 when one of its oldest and most respected parishioners in the person of John Murray passed away at the ripe old age of 87 years. Deceased was born in County Cork, Ireland and when seventeen years old came to P. E. I. Mr. Murray devoted the long years allotted to him by God to farming and needless to say made it a success, notwithstanding the disadvantages which tillers of the soil were heir to in those early days of trial.

Many and varied and highly interesting were his reminiscences of his early boyhood in the Emerald Isle which sketches of his native land he would occasionally season with a touch of Irish drollery which is ever characteristic of every true son of Erin. The late Mr. Murray was a man of robust constitution and enjoyed his usual good health until about 2 years ago when he suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he never fully recovered.

During his illness he was attended by his loving pastor. His funeral which was very largely attended took place on March 19th to St. Ann's church where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. Dr. Curran, P. P. after which all that was mortal of a kind and loving father, a true and devoted husband was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery there to await the last call of the trumpet on the glorious resurrection day.

Besides a sorrowing wife he leaves to mourn four sons and five daughters namely, John, Los Angles, Calif.; William, Minneapolis, Minn.; George River Falls, N. Dakota; Tobias, Tryone Lot 65 and James on the homestead; Mrs. Peter Connolly, Mrs. A. Berrigan and Mrs. John McMillan, Tryone Mrs. F. L. MacDonald Green Bay and Mrs. James Hickey, Charlottetown. The pall bearers were Messrs John McMillan, F. L. McQuaid, James Hickey, Peter Murray, James A. Murray and John McCloskey.
