B. seeing an open goal on two occasions, when they turned back the owing to the sticky ice. Hunter and Sussex Colts by a score of 2 to 1 played the game of his life and was well supported by Wall, Brooks and Lutz, while in the two Rutland, Percy and Melbourne, put for funds the promoter provided for Griff's burial. The woman who gave the great boxer of other days free lodgings for the last few years of his life has claimed the balance, Griff, so far as is known, left no relatives.

THE LINE-UPS

Bathurst—Goal, Bond; defence, Lawlor, R. Cupps; centre, James; beat, Roy, Rensch. The Sussex goal, scored by Harold Radcliff, was a wonderful solo effort. Taking the puck inside his own defensive area he outmanoeuvred the forwards, tricked the defense and gave MacKenzie no chance whatever with his shot. Kervin was the outstanding player for Moncton with the exception of MacKenzie, who played a marvellous game in the nets. The Sussex forwards went through the Moncton defense time and again, only to find him a stumbling block. H. Radcliff, Carl Brooks, H. Wall, The Sussex Colts, who have only N. Lutz and Frank Hunter, for been on the ice twice, put up a wards.
