CRAPAUD L.O.L. - Crapaud district L.O.L. and L.O.B.A. held their annual church service and parade on Sunday afternoon, August 14th at the Church of Scotland, DeSable. The special speaker, Rev. Donald Nicholson, Hunter River, preached a very appropriate sermon for the occasion. There was a large congregation, along with members of the Order. The parade was in charge of Alvin Walsh, headed by the bag pipes. Many members joined with the Crapaud district Lodges in their parade, coming from Ellerslie, Summerside, Beedsville, Hunter River, and a bus load from Charlottetown. Several Grand Lodge officers were in attendance. The collection was in aid of the Protestant Orphanage. At the close of the church service the members of the Order marched to an adjoining field where a vote of appreciation was extended to the Minister and to the trustees of the church for their services. All joined hands singing Blest Be The Tie That Binds, and closing with the National Anthem. B ed hands in singing "Auld Lang Syne." For He's A Jolly Good Fellow" was then sung, which was followed by a recitation of the honored guest, Mr. Dawson feelingly replied in a few words expressing his pleasure at being present, and regret that he was soon to take his departure. After singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again", and farewells had been said, they wished their friend and brother, "bon voyage" as he was leaving on August 18th by plane, for Alberta, and as day was gradually deepening into the mellow twilight they wended their way homeward, feeling very happy that they had spent such a happy afternoon together reminiscing of bygone days.

Sport Echoes

From Prince County

Cecil Powell seems to be on the way of establishing some sort of record. In his last three games he has not issued a single base on balls. That is control with a capital C.

The acquiring of Emmett Mulholland as catcher for the Curran & Briggs baseball club was a good stroke. As a backstop Mulholland has no weaknesses. He is hitting well over 400, and is one of the most reliable bunters on a "squeeze play" that we have in this area.

The executive of the Summerside Town League has ordered the game in which Red Sox beat Sheen & McInnis, 6 to 5, replayed on Monday evening. The protest was based on the fact that an attempted bunt which resulted in a pop fly was miscalled an "in-field fly" and the batter declared out although the ball was not caught. We agree with the decision and think the executive could hardly have decided otherwise, but it is nevertheless a tough break for the airmen, who by the way, took the verdict with very good grace. The series now stands at 1 to 0 for the R. C. A. F. Red Sox and a victory for them Monday would eliminate the Sheen & McInnis Juniors and make the final series an all-R.C.A.F. affair.

Present plans materialize Summerside stands to lose a lot of their best hockey material this winter. A half dozen or more young hockey players from Summerside have been invited to play hockey in Denver, Colorado, next winter and go to the university down there. It is understood the boys will receive free tuition at the college and other benefits. It is not definite yet what boys are going to Denver from here but we believe the following will make the trip: Layton Schurman, Joey Schurman, Gordie McKay and Garth Gay. Just what other boys will make the state of Colorado their home this winter is not settled yet.

The crucial baseball game of the year for the Summerside R. C. A. F. is coming up next Sunday and Jake Thurmeyer says he will throw everything he has at those Charlottetown Abbies in an effort to stop them taking the semi-final series in two straight. The first game at present, The Prince County "intermediate B" League is about to start its playoffs and we have heard that Jack Schurman has been engaged to act as an arbiter for these games.

Efforts are being made to have some of the mainland team play Curran & Briggs in the second game of a double-header here Sunday. The first game will be played at the home of the Curran & Briggs, and the second game will be played at the home of the mainland team. Every effort has been made to give the fans the best in baseball entertainment. For while the fans were slow to respond to this program but of late the attendance is increasing every game.

Among the many visitors to this part of the Island during the last few weeks were Rev. and Mrs. A. G. Crowe and their four children, of Foleigh, N. S. For some time he has been pastor of the Campbellton Baptist Church. It is thirteen years since he was the pastor of the Central Beedque Baptist Church. Their many friends were glad to have them once more in their midst.
The "Edith Thompson" Evening Auxiliary met in the vestry of the Beedque United Church on August 9th, for its regular meeting. The theme for the August program was "The theme for the August program was 'freely give', and was led by Mrs. John Myers. A prayer for suffering humanity all over the world and for our missionaries was given by Mrs. Walter Wright. A business period was presided over by the president, Mrs. Kenrich Munn. The treasurer, Mrs. Arnold Henderson gave an encouraging report and also stated that the ice cream social held recently on the Church grounds netted $33.90. The date set for packing the usual boxes for Labrador is August 23rd, at Calbeck's store. "Wanted, gifts galore for Europe and Asia", it was decided to quit several quilts in the near future for "Overseas Relief". A letter from Mrs. R. P. MacAusland regarding our reading course, was read by Mrs. Edison Wright. The new study book "Growing with the years" was referred to by the president and will be introduced at the September meeting, by Mrs. Ralph Calbeck and Mrs. Reginald Murray, who will have charge of the program. The offering for September is to be "talent money." The meeting closed by repeating in unison the hymn: "Oh brother man, fold to thy heart thy brother."

sequence in which they appear as small-town band leaders; Dorothy Lamour and Victor Moore in an amazingly funny Hollywood episode; Fred MacMurray and William Demarest as two slightly bewildered ex-con men, and such high voltage featured players as Hugh Herbert, Betty Caldwell, Dorothy Ford and Eduardo Ciannelli in small but telling roles.
The story angle of "On Our Merry Way" is neatly spiced with satire and is abundantly rich with spontaneous laughter. It concerns a small-salaried newspaper man (Burgess Meredith) who, urged by his ambitious wife (Paulette Goddard), hijacks his editor into giving him the roving reporters job for just one day. The question suggested by Paulette for this crusade is "What influence has a little child had upon your life?"

BURY ST. EDMUNDS, England (CP)—The skull of William Corder, who was hanged for murder in 1828, was presented by the West Suffolk General Hospital to the Bury St. Edmunds Corporation. The skull will be placed with a book bound with Corder's skin in the local museum.
