HEATHERDALE CHRISTMAS CONCERT

One of the highlights of the Christmas season in any rural district, especially for the children, is the annual Christmas concert. The thirty-two pupils and their teachers, Irene Bruce of Heatherdale School, presented their programme on Thursday evening December 19. There was a good attendance of the older folk of the district, as well as many from neighbouring communities, and a substantial sum was raised from door fees for the Red Cross.

Hon. J.A. Campbell of Heatherdale capably acted as chairman for the evening. He gave helpful advice to the pupils of the school, advising them to make good use of their school days, and to do their work well, that they might have no regrets in later years.

Following is the programme: Opening Chorus "Grandfather's Clock" by the school. Dialogue "Welcome by Stanley Bruce."

Drill "Christmas Tree" by grades 1, 2, 3, and 4.
Song "Away in a Manger" by girls of Grades 1, 2, and 3.

Closing Chorus "On Christmas Eve" — by the school.
Dialogue "It's Not Polite" — by Jimmy MacLean.

At the close of the programme, Mr. Campbell complimented teacher and pupils for the evening's entertainment. An address, as follows, was then read to the teacher by Jack Peardon, and gifts from pupils were presented by Stanley Bruce. The teacher, though taken by surprise, thanked the pupils, also the parents for their co-operation, and expressed the hope that school time lost during first part of year could be made up for before the end of June. Following is the address: Dear Teacher,

We, the pupils of Heatherdale School wish to show a little of our appreciation of what it means to have you with us. In your painstaking way, you have tried hard to make us understand all problems set before us. We also know that if we, as your pupils, put forth half the effort as you do in teaching, some of us in years to come might be able to become shining lights somewhere on this globe. We now present you with this small gift, as a reminder of us, when you are not present with us.

Wishing you a Merry, merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Pupils of Heatherdale School
