

WEDNESDAY.

—Dr. A. Morris Bell, M. D., of Cra-pud, paid a hurried visit to his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bell, North Bed-eque, last week.

ISLANDER DEAD.—Mr. Jeremiah O'Neil, an islander and former resident of Avondale, while working in a mill at Rumford Falls, Maine, on the night of Wednesday, 4th inst., accidentally fell between two tanks, a distance of 25 feet, sustaining injuries which caused his death, on the evening of the 6th inst.

HORSE RUNS AWAY.—A horse, attached to a carriage, started to run down Queen Street yesterday morning at a fast rate of speed. In his mad escapade he brought his wagon into collision with another team and broke loose from the harness. He continued his run, but was captured before getting far. Little damage occurred, however, either to the horses or the colliding vehicles.

PASTOR RESIGNS.—The following clipping is from a Philadelphia exchange and Mr. Champion referred to is a brother of Dr. J. B. Champion Tyne Valley, and visited this Province last summer:—The Rev. John B. Champion will leave Roxborough Baptist Church, Lyceum and Ridge aves., where he has been pastor four years, to fill the pulpit in the Baptist Church at McMinville, Ore. Mr.
Champion presented his resignation to the trustees of the church last night, and it was accepted with regret. As a farewell gift to Dr. Champion the trustees and congregation presented him with $500 in gold. The resignation will take effect December 15 and Mr. Champion will go immediately to his new post. The McMinville Church is in the beautiful Willamette Valley, thirty-eight miles from Portland. The Church is closely associated with McMinville College which is one of the largest Baptist institutions in the northwest. Mr. Champion stands high in ecclesiastical circles, and is noted as a Biblical student. He was graduated from Colgate University in 1903. Before coming here he was pastor of the Brantford Baptist Church Ontario, Canada. Mr. Champion lives at 661 E. Leverington ave., Roxborough.

TOWN IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Robt.
Moore, Cra-pud, has moved into his new residence, situated next to Mr. O.
B. Waldman's. This dwelling adds greatly to the appearance of this already fine street, on which several new buildings have been erected in the last year or two. Light will soon be placed on this street near the Cra-pud Creamery Co's buildings.

—CLINTON.—His friends are glad to welcome again their old friend, Mr.
Lewis Graham, who has returned from his work at the car ferry. Mr. Graham speaks in glowing terms of the island and the work it offers to men of all classes. Best wishes for his future success will follow Mr. Graham when he departs for Maine next week. The school is progressing favorably under the skillful management of Miss Macgregor. Residents are looking forward to a concert in the near future which will no doubt prove as entertaining as previous years. Miss Myrtle Wigmore has returned home after spending a few days in Clinton. Miss Nina Woodside has returned after spending the week-end in Clinton.

WEDDING BELLS.—An interesting event took place in Mont Carmel Church on Tuesday, Nov. 3rd, when Mr. Jerry Downing, of Boston, Mass., son of Mr. Joseph Downing of St.
Timothy was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Emma Gallant, daughter of Mr. Antoine Gallant of Cape Egmont, Rev. P. P.
Arensault officiated. The groom was supported by Mr. Sylvan Gallant, brother of the bride, and Miss Lucy May Downing acted as bridesmaid. After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of Mr. Peter Downing, brother of the groom, where they partook of a delicious dinner.
Late in the afternoon the happy couple accompanied by many friends and relatives went to the home of the bride and after sharing of the delicacies provided proceeded to enjoy the evening in a most suitable way. The music played was varied and of an entrancing nature. Songs and choruses were sung by the company who displayed great musical ability. The bride and groom were the recipients of many worthy and beautiful presents. The happy couple after a few days stay with their friends and relatives in Mont Carmel, took their departure

SUPREME COURT.—In the Supreme Court yesterday morning the Chief Justice delivered judgment against the Sheriff in the proceedings for contempt in the suit of John Alexander Stewart v. John Horne. The Court dismissed the application to set aside the attachment and writ of replevin. The Court gave judgment against the Sheriff and imposed a fine of $100 and costs.

JOINS MEDICAL CORPS.—Stanley
J. Matson, son of the late Captain George Matson, of Halifax, has volunteered for the front and has joined the Army Medical Corps, says a Hal-fax Exchange. He is a druggist by profession, and serving in this capacity will prove a valuable addition to the corps. Mr. Matson is a brother of Mr. Frank Matson of the McKinnon Drug Company, Charlottetown.

—SOURIS ITEMS.—Mrs. C. D. Mc-Kinnon arrived home on the night train Friday, from a visit to Charlottetown.
Mr. James A. McDonald, Naurage, was a passenger to Souris, Saturday, returning to Selkirk by the afternoon train. Miss Margaret McDonald, Bear River, was a passenger to Bear River Saturday afternoon, returning from a business trip to Souris. Mr. Michael Grinnell, Clear Springs, was to Souris Saturday on a business trip. Miss Adele Garrett, Souris, returned Saturday evening from Charlottetown.
Miss Gertrude Sterns was a passenger to Souris Saturday afternoon, returning from a visit to Charlottetown.

—PERSONALS.—Mr. Peter Flaha-ver was a passenger to Summerside Monday morning. Mr. John Thompson, Kensington was in Summerside Saturday evening transacting business for James McNutt. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Duffin, of New Brunswick, were the guests of Mrs. Thomas Somers. Mr. James Hiscott, Stanley Bridgeway, was doing business in Kensington Monday. The following are a few of the passengers from Kensington to Summerside Saturday evening:
—Mr. John Thompson, Jr. Mr. John Thompson, Sr. Dr. F. V. Jandell, W.
Warren, Oliver Orr, Leah Leard, Harry Warren, Jos. Driscoll, Jas.
Champion, Sandy McKinnon, Neil McKinnon and William Higgins.—K.

—EMERALD.—Messrs. Thomas Doyle, Rustico, and John McEwen, wife of the late John McEwen, on Tuesday to attend the funeral of their old friend, the late John Canniff. Mr.
Bennett Deighan arrived home last week from Medicine Hat, after spending the past two years in the Northwest. The entertainment held under the auspices of the Women's Institute on the 11th inst., was a grand success, financially and otherwise. About $45 was netted, which it is understood will be expended by the ladies of the Institute in purchasing school supplies, etc. A butter making outfit having been placed in the factory on Tuesday of the month, a considerable quantity of cream is coming in twice a week from patrons of Emerald and Khikora factories, and the promoters feel assured from present prospects that the undertaking will prove a success.—P.

PRETTY WEDDING.—In the presence of thirty odd guests last evening, at the home of her grandmother, Mrs.
Beales, Miss Jean Kathleen Cameron, of Charlottetown, was married to Mr.
John Sinclair Bullman, of North Rustico. Miss Kathleen Beales performed the pleasant duties incumbent on the office of bridesmaid, while the groom was accompanied by Mr. Jack Stewart. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Gordon, was charmingly attired in a gorgeous dress of Duchess satin, with a Brussels net veil, and carried a magnificent bouquet consisting of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid also carried a pretty bouquet of American beauty roses and fern. The ceremony was performed in the drawing-room at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Mr.
Dawson, assisted by Rev. Mr. Whitehead of the Central Christian Church, and the party thereafter repaired to the dining-room, where refreshments were very nicely served. The table was artistically decorated with wreaths of smilax, chrysanthemums and carnations, the whole having a splendid and attractive effect. Among those who were present were Mrs. Frank Beales, the Misses Beales, Master Geof.
Beales and Mrs. Beales, senior. The presenters were numerous, and bespoke in an unmistakable manner the kindly esteem in which the happy young couple are held by their large circle of friends. The Guardian, as is customary in such interesting and important events, wishes Mr. and Mrs.
Bullman a very happy married life and long years of uninterrupted prosperity.

ISLANDER VOLUNTEERS.—Among those from Picton, members of the 25th Battery, C. F. A., who have volunteered for the second overseas contingent appears the name of Sergeant Milton F. Macdonald, son of Mr. Malcolm F.
Macdonald, Eldon, Belfast.

—SCHOOLS CLOSED.—At a meeting of the Georgetown Board of Health which was held in Georgetown on Friday, the 13th inst., it was decided on account of the prevalence of scarlet fever and diphtheria in the locality to close the schools and forbid children attending public meetings until after the Christmas holidays.—G.

AN EXAGGERATION.—There is a rumor current in the city that diptheria and scarlet fever are prevalent, but it is evidently exaggerated as the Health Officer, Dr. H. D. Johnson, yesterday informed a Guardian reporter that he was aware of only three cases of diphtheria and four of scarlet fever in the city and they were all under treatment and were progressing favorably with regard to the rumor that the schools were to be closed, the doctor stated there was no such intention on the part of the Board of Health.

SERMON APPRECIATED.—Rev.
R. P. Murray, Mt. Stewart preached a powerful sermon on Sunday last from the text:—"Render to every man his due, Custom, to whom honor." His treatment of the attitude of the Christian to secular affairs was clear and convincing, and when he dealt with the matter of honouring our nation land in the time of a crisis every hearer must have been ready to say "Amen" to the lofty sentiment of patriotism expressed. The development of the whole theme was included very fittingly by an earnest exhortation to put on Christ, the embodiment of all gentlemanly principles, and the Savour of the soul.—L.

RE FAMOUS GEESSE.—The Guardian has received a note signed by Mr.
Robert Johnson, Mt. Allison, which is as follows:—"Mr. Clark, of Alberton claims to own a famous goose and wants to know if only one in the province owns one that can equal her.
I own one in 1913 and the same year started to lay eggs the second of Oct., laying 26 before she stopped. She started to lay again early in March, 1914, brought out 10 goslings in April as the ground was covered with snow I had to shovel a place clear to give them a little pickings, and also boiled wheat and gave them water to drink.
She saved her ten young and started to lay again Oct. 9th. Up to the present time she has laid 12 eggs and is still busy. Mr. Clark's goose is scarcely in it with mine. Let us hear from others."

FRIDAY.
SMALL MAIL.—There was only a small foreign mail received in Charlottetown last night; the train at Point du Chene not connecting with the Ocean Limited at Painsec.

HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIA-TION.—A meeting of the Home and School Association will take place at four-thirty this (Friday) afternoon. All parents and teachers interested are asked to attend.

POLICE COURT.—At the Police Court in Charlottetown, yesterday, the case of Henry Woolridge, charged with breaking the plate glass window on Queen street, of the Dominion Express Company, came up for hearing and resulted in the defendant being found guilty and fined $50.

JUBILEE SERVICES.—Sunday will be a day to be remembered by those who attend the Jubilee Services in the First Methodist Church. The Rev. A. B. Simpson a native of their Island and known from the Atlantic to the Pacific will address the Sunday School at 2.30 and preach in the evening. Special Vocal Solos, Anthems and Organ Music at morning and evening services.

What words or names do the figures spell? The magic circle will tell you.

Each number in the words called for above stands for a letter of the alphabet. When all the numbers in each word are found and placed in proper relation you will have the word asked for. What words or names do the figures spell? That is the puzzle for bright girls and boys.

How to solve this great puzzle Look at the magic circle and you will see that each section has a number and contains a certain number of dots. In the words above each letter stands for a certain number of dots. The second letter in the first word of the circle in turn each stand for a letter of the alphabet. You find the letter by counting the number of dots in the section. For instance "A" is represented by section 4 containing one dot because "A" is the first letter of the alphabet. "B" is represented by two dots because it is the second letter of the alphabet.
"C" is represented by three dots (section 7) because it is the third letter in alphabet, and so on. In order to help you we will tell you that the first letter in the first word is "A", "H" is represented by section 10 and this section contains 11 dots, because "H" is the 11th letter in the alphabet. Now find the letters represented by the other numbers, and send your answers in to us.

STYLES
Not many styles will come from Paris this year. France is in the grip of war.
The shops of the great modistes and milliners are closed.
Every year we send millions of dollars, to France and elsewhere, for feathers, flowers, hats, gowns, jewelry, silks, etc., for feminine adornment.
Yet these things are produced in Canada. Canadian artisans and Canadian workpeople are creating and producing dainty frills and fur-bells that are hard to beat.
It remains for Canadian women to buy them.
The mere fact of an article being imported gives it no added value.
On the contrary it should be a reproach at a time like this when Canadian industries need your support.
These things are made in Canada, of good material and good workmanship, and they're being sold at prices that discount imported articles every time.
It's a splendid thing to knit socks and Balaklava caps for soldiers, but you will be showing yourself strangely inconsistent if you pass up the work of your fellow Canadian women for something that foreign women have turned out.
Insist that it be "Made in Canada."

LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT.—The entertainment in Zion Church schoolroom last evening passed off successfully with a fair attendance. The opening number was a delightfully rendered piano duet by Misses Mc-Ewen and Allen and was followed by a splendid recitation by Miss Elizabeth Coleman, who showed much elocutionary ability. Rev. Mr. Littlejohn's violator solo was very much appreciated.
He plays with a true musician's skill, having to respond to a hearty encore.
Miss Bruce's piano solo was also most enjoyable. Miss Boyer was in good voice and sang very sweetly, receiving hearty applause. The interest of the evening was centered around the much talked of "Strange Five O'clock Tea," of which the following was the cast:— Mary, Mrs. Colwill; Elizabeth, Eleanor Robertson; Dorothy, Jean Allan; Hindu Girl, Mrs. Moore; Girl from China, Winnie Allen; Jap Girl, Frances Moore; Indian Girl, L. Lawson; Negro, Helen Davies; Dutchboy, Mrs. Sanderson; Bohemian, B. Back; Galician, Marjorie Bruce; Polish Girl, Christine Kisly; Hungarian, Flo Campbell; Norwegian, May Sterns; Finn, Cyrene Livingstone; Swede, Florence McLeod; Icelander, Mrs. Davies; Italian Girl, Dorothy Davies; Armenian, Kate Murchison; Turk, Ada Harris; Jewish Girl, Lily Aitken. The playlette was of a missionary character and prettily staged. The hostess is ready for five o'clock tea for her daughter, but owing to the wet weather her guests disappoint her. Coming in their place, however, were representatives of the different foreign nations who have settled in Canada. Each made her plea and remained to the five o'clock tea.
During the evening Mrs. Colwill, Mrs.
Moore, Miss Lawson and Miss Davies sang delightfully, the evening being brought to a close by singing God Save the King.
