Arabian Ships Searched By Italians

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

ADEN, Nov 14—Arabian sailors arriving here said tonight Italian ships had halted and searched Arabian sailing vessels on the sea.

They reported a wave of anti-Italian sentiment was sweeping Arabia's Moslem population, because of the Italian invasion of Ethiopia.

The sailors called Ethiopia a "sleeping nation," and pointed out the Koran forbids warring a nation which is "asleep," on penalty of punishment by Allah.

from all over the United States as well as several representatives from England.

Captain Fergus MacCunn, chief secretary of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, London, England, gave an address. He came over from England especially to lecture at the meeting.

Mrs. Roland G. Johns, British writer, described child welfare work in England.

Mrs. Frances Hawks Cameron Burnett of Washington told of her experiences in encouraging humane activities in Japan while her husband was military attache to the American Embassy in Tokyo 25 years ago.

Except for a delegate from the Toronto society Dr. Robins from the S. P. C. A. in this province was the only Canadian representative.

Is your FUR COAT in condition for the long Winter months?

Allow us to examine your coat now; before the cold weather really sets in; we will give you an honest estimate of what it will cost to put it in first class condition.

How about the lining? Is the style up to the minute? Has it been recently cleaned and glazed? Let us attend to these things at once, so that you will be well prepared to face the cold North winds, ice, sleet and snow of the many months ahead

W. K. WATERS

H. J. Coon, Manager of the Investment Department of The Bank of Nova Scotia, has just been appointed a Supervisor of Branches. A graduate of Queen's University, where he was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, he entered the Bank of Nova Scotia in 1914, when he took over the Metropolitan Bank, of which he was Chief Accountant. He has since risen rapidly, being appointed Chief Accountant in 1919, Inspector in the same year, and Manager of the Investment Department in 1926. Mr. Coon is being succeeded by W. K. Waters who joined the Bank of Nova Scotia in 1913. He was appointed Assistant Manager of the Investment Department and in 1929 was made Assistant Manager of the Montreal branch, which position he filled until his present appointment.
