The death occurred in Los Angeles, California, on January 6 of the Rev. J. T. Dobb, who was born in this Province, in the 77th year of his age. He was born at Graham's Hill, P.E.I., the eldest of a family of six children. Graduating from Prince of Wales College, where he passed with high honors, he followed the profession of a minister. Retiring some ten years ago he settled in Los Angeles where he spent the last years of his life with his sister, Mrs. Mary Hoyt, who with his brothers, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dobb, and Mr. J. T. Dobb, were in Pennsylvania, survive him. His father, James Harding, passed away a few years ago, lacking one month of the century mark. Mr. Andrew Harding, above referred to, removed to Alberta from Charlottetown about two years ago.

A SAILOR IN LOVE - On board L. small ship Flamingo through the sea. I wonder if you are asleep Or if you think of me. It was a very dark night Enough to be affrighted And on the black horizon all could see Were your beautiful eyes shining in front of me.

The Male said "The man on the lookout He must be crazy, there is no doubt As all his watch he reported to me Light on the Port, Light on the Starboard, but none I can see."

"That man is not crazy," answered the watchman "The trouble with him, he is in love, I can tell That what he mistakes for lights Are his sweetheart's beautiful eyes."
