Monument to a World Famed Trotting Horse

GOLDSMITH MAID

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 29.—We have met here today to dedicate a monument to an American trotter that was bred in New Jersey and which after acquiring world wide fame passed her declining years in the paddocks of Fashion Farm. Of all the horses which have appeared on the turf since records were kept none raced to such an advanced age or retained such a high rate of speed to the end of her career as Goldsmith Maid.

This remarkable mare trotted her first race over the "historic track" at Goshen, N. Y., September 7, 1865. On that date she won a $100 purse from Uncle Sam and Mountain Boy in 2:36. She made her last appearance at Toledo, Ohio, September 27, 1877. A few days later Charles Cochran who had charge of Goldsmith Maid during the last six years that she was on the turf loaded her in a car for the last trip to Fashion Farm.

Goldsmith Maid was foaled at Deckertown, N. J., the last week in June 1863. Nothing which has appeared until she was six years old except to run a few races in the home farm. John Decker, her breeder finally sold her for $350. Her purchaser sold the future champion for $600 to a man named Denton. The next transfer was made to Alden Goldsmith for $900. This New Jersey mare learned to trot when owned by him. He sold her in 1869 when she had a record of 2:19 1/2 to Budd Doble and J. Jackman for $20,000. They sold Goldsmith Maid to Henry N. Smith for $37,000. She died his property at Fashion Stud Farm, September 23, 1885.

Goldsmith Maid racing when she was eight years old. That season she won in 2:36. At nine, she reduced her record to 2:32 and made General Butler beat 2:23 1/2 to defeat her. The spring that Goldsmith Maid was ten years old she met Dexter in a $3,000 race at Middletown, N. Y. and was beaten in 2:28. Dexter was driven by Budd Doble. This was the year in which he made his record of 2:17 1/4. Dexter was purchased by Robert Bonner. The horse was turned over to him in September. The following month Doble took Goldsmith Maid and remained in charge of her until she was retired in 1877.

Doble won his first race with the Maid at Providence in October 1867. He defeated the May Day mare May Queen and a few others in 2:28 1/4. From that date Goldsmith Maid gradually became one of the leaders. In 1868 when 11 years old this new trotting marvel produced her record 2:22 1/2. At 12 it was cut to 2:18 1/2 after a severe campaign in which she was defeated in six races by Lady Thorne and five by American Girl.

George Wilkes, Hotspur, George Palmer, American Girl, Lucy and Mountain Boy were her rivals in 1870 when she lost another race to Lady Thorne and was also defeated by Honest Allen in a race with running mate. Goldsmith Maid was not required to beat 2:20 in any of her races that year. In 1871 when 14 years old this mare acquired her first championship laurels at Milwaukee, Wis., when she defeated Lucy in 2:17. Dexter was no longer champion. She was also unbeaten that year.

In 1872 another change was made in the record when W. H. Doble, the record when W. H. Doble, queen a mile, beat 2:20 in Mystic Park, Boston. She won all of her engagements that year except two, one of them being in $10,000 purse at Buffalo where Lucy defeated in a month prepared to fight as her title contender.

The next change in this remarkable mare's record was recorded in 1874. At that time she was 17 years old. In July she defeated Judge Fullerton at Saginaw, Mich., in 2:16 1/4. At Buffalo in August in a trip against the watch she cut the figure to 2:15 1/4, while at Rochester the following week Doble won with her from Judge Fullerton and American Girl in 2:14 1/4. The limit was reached at Mystic Park, Boston, in September when she trotted in 2:14.

In 1875 when 18 years old Goldsmith Maid won 11 of her engagements but one. She also trotted Charter Oak Park at Hartford in 2:14 1/4. The climax was reached in 1876, when Goldsmith Maid, then 19 years old, came down the Grand Circuit with Smuggler, Lucille Goldust, Bodine, Judge Fullerton and Lala. Smuggler won from her at Cleveland after a five heat race in which she was credited with two. The following week she defeated Smuggler at Buffalo in 2:13, 2:15 1/4, 2:15, the three fastest consecutive heats up to that date. She also won at Utica, Poughkeepsie, Springfield and Hartford where Smuggler reduced the stallion record to 2:16 1/4.

Prior to the opening of the Circuit, Doble appeared with the Maid in a series of time record performances at Belmont Park, Philadelphia. On June 2 she trotted in 2:15 on June 9, 2:16 1/4, and on June 23, 2:14, one of the watches making it 2:13 1/4.

In the spring of 1877 Goldsmith Maid was in California. She was started in a series of races with Barus, the next champion. The Maid won at San Jose in 2:16 1/4, at Los Angeles in 2:19, at San Jose again in 2:16 1/4, and at Chico in 2:14 1/4. This was followed by a defeat at San Francisco, after which she shipped east. All of her east engagements were against time. At Cincinnati Goldsmith Maid trotted in 2:19, at Springfield in 2:17, at Chicago in 2:19, at Rochester in 2:16 1/4, at Cynthia in 2:17 1/4, at St. Joseph in 2:21, at Kansas City in 2:20 1/4, and finally at Toledo in 2:21 1/4, where the curtain fell on her career.

Goldsmith Maid raced from 1865 to 1877 inclusive. She was started in 123 races of which she won 97, was second in 16, third in 7, fourth in 2 and unplaced in 2. She made 26 time record exhibitions. In these events Goldsmith Maid produced 367 heats in 2:30 and 61 in 2:20. Her winnings in races and exhibitions amounted to $264,573.50. She reduced the world's record for trotters from 2:17 1/4 to 2:14 and was world's champion from 1871 to 1879.

After being retired Goldsmith Maid was bred to General Washington, a son of General Knex and her old time rival Lady Thorne. She produced three foals, one of which died young. Her filly Rosebud failed in the stud. Her son Stranger sired 44 trotters with records of 2:30 or better. Seven of his sons sired 62 trotters and 19 pacers with records and 23 of his daughters produced 25 trotters and 10 pacers. After Fashion Farm was abandoned as a stock farm Stranger stood for a time in Kentucky. Later on John H. Shultz purchased him and kept him at Parkville Farm until he was sold for export to Europe. Stranger died in Austria.

Promoter Rickard Seeking Boxer to Meet Gene Tunney

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Back from his honeymoon trip, Promoter Tex Rickard today began the task of developing a heavyweight to fight Gene Tunney for the world's championship in a bout next year. This title match, Rickard said, will not be held until next fall, if his plans carry, and the man to face Tunney will be a product of a series of elimination matches the promoter plans through the current indoor season and next summer.

"I think it would be unreasonable to expect Tunney to defend his title before next fall at the earliest," said Rickard. "At the same time, a heavy-weight title bout would be impracticable before then. It has been my experience that one heavy-weight title match a year is sufficient. These bouts have a depressing influence on the average run of boxing activities and they involve such a tremendous amount of work and attention that it is well-nigh impossible to hold them more often."

The series of heavyweight elimination bouts I planned after the Tunney-Delaney match will go through. In this way we will get the man best equipped to fight for the title. It might be Dempsey or it might be Jim Maloney, Jack Sharkey, Harry Persson, Franz Diener, Monte Munn or this fellow Paolino, who is coming over here in a month prepared to fight as her title contender.

Rickard made no mention of Jack Delaney, world's light-heavyweight champion, who is taking on weigh 170 in his training camp at Lake Winnebago. This he recalled, however, that the promoter scoffed at the idea of a Tunney-Delaney match when the possibility first developed immediately after the Tunney-Dempsey bout.

WILL TALK ON PLAN TODAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—An attempt to bring the proposed middle-weight championship fight between Tiger Flowers and Mickey Walker to New York has been undertaken by Tex Rickard through his Madison Square Garden matchmaker, Jess McMahon.

McMahon will confer tomorrow with Walk Miller, manager of the defending title-holder, Flowers and Jack Kearns, Walker's pilot. Miller already has agreed to the match which was slated originally for Chicago.

Dewhurst Stakes

NEWMARKET, Eng., Oct. 29.—A stirring finish resulted in the Dewhurst Stakes this afternoon, when Money Maker, Knight of the Grail and Mario finished in that order, necks apart. Money Maker is owned by Mrs. Chester Beatty, Knight of the Grail is owned by Sir D. Broughton, and Mario is H. H. Agakhan's two-year-old.

Fredericton Opinion

FREDERICTON, Oct. 29.—The close score at Sackville today is taken by U. N. B. supporters as indicating that the red and black must put in the hardest kind of preparation for the Mount Allison game here next Thursday as well as for the other games scheduled.

It is held here that fine weather would favor the U. N. B. team more than Mt. Allison, which was favored by the rain. Failure to convert tries also kept the score down.

JOCKEY C L U BCUP WON BY BONGRACE

NEW MARKET, Eng., Oct. 29.—K. Macomber's four year old colt, Bongrace, three year old filly owned by Lord Roseberry, won the Jockey Club cup this afternoon. Sol Joel's four year old colt, Glommen, was second, a neck behind, and A. The Wolf seven to one.

Although Foley was fairly smothered and tied up by Roy he made rally after rally, and at all stages fought hard in his effort to gain honors. Foley was as great in his defeat as Roy was in victory. It was a give and take encounter from the first to the last round.

In ring generalship Roy held a marked edge and the result of the battle was due to it. Foley's great asset was his ability to tie Roy up when things looked dangerous, and this saved him from a more severe beating in the tenth round, which decided any doubt as to the outcome.
