VERNA HELEN DONALD

The community of Alma and vicinity was saddened to learn of the sudden passing of Verna Helen Donald, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Donald on July 15th, 1947, at her home.

Verna was a very intelligent child and her cheerful disposition and willingness to help others endeared her to all. She was vice-president of the Alma Mission Band where on the Saturday week previous to her death she led the meeting with a program she had prepared herself, and her smiling face was one which was always present at Sunday School.

Besides her parents and grandmother, Mrs. Mary J. Donald, she leaves to mourn three sisters and four brothers, namely: Rae, teacher at Montrose school, Island, on the staff of the Income Tax Office, Charlottetown; Leigh, fourth year student at Prince of Wales College and Jean, John, James and Billy at home.

MISS MARY GERRIOR FAIRVILLE, DIES

The death of Miss Mary Gerrior occurred late Friday afternoon at the home of her parents, 627 Charles Street, Fairville, N.S. she had been ill for some years. Miss Gerrior was born at Georgetown, P.E.I., a daughter of James and Frances Gerrior, and has lived at Fairville for the last 25 years.

She was a member of St. Rose's Church and took an active part in church activities. Well known by the residents of Fairville, her passing will come as a shock to many friends.

Miss Gerrior is survived by her parents, four brothers, Anthony and Milton, both of Detroit; Temple and Stephen, both of Fairville; two sisters, Mrs. Robert Bentley and Mrs. Robert Taylor; and several nieces and nephews.

BE NOT AFRAID

(Dedicated to the loving memory of Ralph McKinnon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McKinnon) who was drowned at about 8:30 p.m. on July 24, in the Upper Millpond.

The evening shadows dropped their crepe
In darkening shadows from the sky—
On Upton's dark and murky pond
Where whispering youth was doomed to die.

Within the stillness of the night
The living laughter of the boy
Beneath the weedy water's dream—
Beneath the silence of the dead.

Scarce had the flush of manly youth
Beamed through his boyhood
Who both of Detroit, and Stephen, both of Fairville; two sisters, Mrs. Robert Bentley and Mrs. Robert Taylor; and several nieces and nephews.

As his young body sadly sank
Deep in the mill-dams sullen flow—
Of sluggish waters moving on
To meet the streams below.

To course alone to Yonder Shore
The soul of youth who scarce had trod—
The earthly path of boyhood's
Unto the Harbor of his God.

Course on young spirit o'er the sea—
For not the shoals, nor waters deep—
For God is Captain of your soul;
He will not slumber, while you sleep.

In His embrace and loving care
In Yon Abode, for evermore—
Until He calls the slumbering host
Unto the Haven of His Shore.

—Peter A. Reilly.
