THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

Hull, Tid. rsh, Montreal, s. s. i. t. r. his l. o. e. in this city.

The Stevie arrived in port at 10:50 yesterday with a full cargo.

Mrs. Helen Hazard is home from Montreal on a visit to her parents in this city.

W. S. Johnson, and his son William, jr., have this morning for a week's visit to Montreal.

Owen Trainor is home from Montreal and is visiting his father, B. Trainor, Brighton.

James Ridd of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, Ottawa, is in the City on a short holiday.

The steamer Kilkeel well known in this port is now running between Port Hood and Halifax.

James Tait, Jr. City, has The Guardian's thanks for a pretty calendar for 1908 entitled The Old Mill Dam.

There is still a number of telephone subscribers who have not changed their directory books to 1908 Guardian subscribers, and 1223 advertising. Much time will be saved by calling the right number.

At St. Dunstan's Cathedral a midnight Mass was celebrated at midnight on Xmas Eve. The musical part of the service was impressively rendered, the Gregorian V. H. Mass being the one selected. The choir and organ were reinforced by four instrumentalists, and the service was very impressive.

The Nickel played to crowded houses yesterday afternoon and evening, putting on an excellent program. Owing to a slight electric at the power house there was no light in the afternoon until 4.45. Mr. Murley entertained the crowd with comic songs and Mrs. McGuigan with piano music until the current was turned on.

At Lennox Island one day a few weeks ago Peter Mitchell a venerable Miemac, who is now 84 years of age and who in his day was a noted sportsman went out and shot two wild geese. At the time Peter predicted that the Fall would be a late one and that the Winter would not close down till late in the year. It appears as if his prediction was being fulfilled.

A good Christmas yesterday was the consequence of the heavy rain and excessive mild weather of the first part of the week taking away the snow which at that time covered the landscape. Citizens yesterday enjoyed themselves out of doors and the moving picture shows and skating on Government Pond offered diversions which many indulged in.

The Halifax Chronicle says: Principal Canning has received applications from the intending short course students at the Agricultural College, Truro, away in excess of any previous year. The popularity of the short course is being more appreciated every year. There are twelve students booked from Prince Edward Island and a large number from New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

At Woodville there yesterday the best performances of The Passion Play ever given, a moving picture play that has become very popular here, which is one of the finest things of its kind ever placed before a Charlottetown audience. The management of Woodville has added to its already good reputation for its fine picture shows by securing the Passion Play.

The death of Edward Home, of Windsor, which was announced in Tuesday's Guardian has removed from life's activities one who played an important part in the life of his section of the Province was a prominent one. He was a well known and widely respected, and during his long life of eighty-four years he had had a large circle of acquaintances by whom his death will be learned with regret. Notwithstanding his extreme age he had been quite well up to a short time before his death, and his passing away, on Monday night was somewhat unexpected. Four sons survive: William; Alexander; Fred H. and Henry; and three daughters: Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Bryerton and Mrs. Burrows.

The half yearly examination of Hampshire school was held in the school house in the presence of about thirty visitors, on the afternoon of the 21st inst., and was a grand success. The school room was nicely trimmed for the occasion, and a Christmas Tree provided for the children. A program consisting of recitations and selections on the geophosphoric given by Cecil Stewart, one of the pupils was much enjoyed. The pupils were examined to the different subjects by the teacher, Miss Gertrude Phillip, and by Lemuel Ackland of Acadia College, and showed that they had been well trained. At the end of the program prizes which had been offered by the trustees were distributed; and a special prize for the best scholar in the school, given by Nathan I. Moynihan, of S. Upton, was won by Miss Melissa Fraser. The pupils present in the school, with an address and a beautiful rattan chair. Miss Phillip made a suitable reply thanking them for their kindness. The school officers expressed their regret that their present teacher was leaving their school. The presents were then taken from the tree, and all were treated to a liberal supply of confectionery. Pleading remarks were made by several of the visitors and a very pleasant occasion was brought to a close by singing "God be with you till we meet again."

The remainder of our stock in this line will be cleared out this week at a sacrifice of 50c. We make it a rule never to carry any goods over if possible. A. W. Reilly. P. M. B. Sunnyside.
