WEDNESDAY.
AGREABLY SURPRISED.—On Tuesday evening last the Ladies' Aid Society of the Central Christian Church, Charlottetown, agreeably surprised Mrs. Rev. J. F. Floyd at her home on Prince Street when they waited on her and, through their president, presented her with a purse of $25.00, and also expressed their good wishes for the New Year. On Xmas Eve. Rev. Mr. Floyd was himself kindly remembered by members of his late congregation in the Christian Church, with a purse containing $50.00 with Xmas greetings and the important announcement that the full amount of the purse had not been collected yet, and when gathered together would make considerably over the amount then in it. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd, although taken by surprise, made suitable replies to these valuable gifts.

HAMILL-MUNN.—WEDDING.—A very pretty house wedding was celebrated at the home of Mrs. Chas. Munn, 139 Cameron Street, Port Arthur, on December 8, 1918, when Miss Annie Munn, the youngest daughter, was married to Mr. Percy R. Hamill of Prince Edward Island. The bride was dressed in a lovely draped gown of white satin with pearl trimmings, and carried a bouquet of roses, carnations and lilies of the valley. She wore her grandmother's wedding veil of Irish lace and was given away by her father. She was attended by her sister, Miss Priscilla, in a beautiful gown of pale pink silk mull. The best man was Mr. Charles H. Munn, a brother of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. P. McDonald, of the Baptist church, after which cake and wine and dainty supper were served to the immediate friends of the bride. Many beautiful gifts were received. Mr. and Mrs. Hamill will reside on 236 South Syndicate Ave., Fort William.

AN APPRECIABLE ACT.—Honesty is a characteristic that is keenly appreciated by everyone. A farmer living not far from the city had his cattle inspected the other day. The veterinary reported them infected. This alone would be a loss to the farmer who is a dairy-man to some extent, but, here is where the praise is due him—he had just a short time previously delivered orders of butter to patrons in the city. Instead of letting his customers go ahead and eat the butter from the cream of the infected cattle, as he could well have done, for the product looked good and tasted equally as good, he came to town, gathered the deliveries, and returned the money received from the sales, telling the customers why he was doing so. It is a big loss to the farmer, but he did it quietly—it was his duty—and he was equal to it. That is the reason he is being so widely praised, and why, when he brings butter to be delivered here in the future it will be accepted from him without question.

NEW ARGYLE SCHOOL.—The semi-annual examination of New Argyle School was held Monday, Dec. 22nd. The school-room was tastefully decorated for the occasion. There were seventeen visitors present, and a goodly number of pupils, and all looked bright and happy as though they enjoyed going to school. The examination was conducted by Mr. Lauchlin MacKinnon, teacher of Long Creek School. Mr. Harry MacNevin and the teacher Miss Addie MacNevin and various others. The pupils acquitted themselves most creditably in the different subjects taught, showing careful and thorough training. At the close of the exercises two prizes were awarded by the teacher for attendance, first prize going to John Gillis, second to John readings and recitations was nicely rendered by the pupils; and thoroughly enjoyed by all present, after which all were treated to confectionery and fruit. Very complimentary speeches were then made by the gentlemen present, highly engaging the teacher on her diligence and the good progress of the pupils during the past half year. A vote of thanks was then moved for the teacher for her kindness and faithfulness by Mr. Harry MacNevin, trustee, seconded by Mr. John Gillis and carried unanimously. A vote of thanks was also rendered the ladies present who helped the teacher so kindly in making the afternoon a complete success. All singing the National Anthem brought this very successful afternoon to a close.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Cousins an elderly lady of Pownal, had the misfortune to fall on the street in Charlottetown last week and break her ankle quite badly. She was immediately taken care of and conveyed to Dr. Dewar's home, South Port, and after the broken limb was set she was taken home. She showed remarkable nerve for a woman her age.

FOX LOST AND CAPTURED.—Some days ago a valuable fox escaped from the McKendrick Ranch on the Mount Edward Road. Everything possible was done to capture him without success. At last that veteran trapper and fox man, Mr. Joseph Shaw, the capable caretaker of the Provincial Silver Black Fox Co., got busy and last night trapped Mr. Fox, and has received the large reward offered by Mr. McKendrick. It goes to prove that anything that trespasses around the "Provincial" Ranch, even foxes, will be trapped.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Vernon Davy, a thirteen year old lad belonging to St. Peter's Bay, was brought to the Prince Edward Island Hospital Tuesday, with a 22 calibre rifle bullet embedded in his right lung. The lad had been out shooting on the previous day and was crossing a millpond on his way home when he noticed a crack in the ice and brought down the butt of the rifle to try the strength of the ice. The result was that the rifle instantly discharged, the bullet lodging in his right lung, as stated. Some neighbors happened to notice the accident and hurried to the scene. The services of Dr. McLaughlan of St. Peter's Bay were quickly secured and he did everything possible. It was decided advisable to have the young fellow sent to the hospital and this was accordingly done. Last evening the young lad was reported to be resting comfortably although the bullet has not yet been extracted.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place on Dec. 24th at the home of A. E. and Mrs. Wood, 202 Sydney St., when Miss Lizzie Baird of this city was united in marriage to Mr. Wellington Salmund of Bonshaw, the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Taylor. At 5 o'clock, the bridal party entered the drawing room, which was decorated for the occasion. The bride wore a dainty gown of white Bedford cord. Mr. Neil Salmund supported the groom while Miss Mary McAuley of this city was bridesmaid, who looked very nice in brown velvet. After the ceremony the company repaired to the dining room, where a delightful supper was served in Mrs. Wood's good style. The remainder of the evening was spent in conversation. The happy couple drove to their future home in Bonshaw. The bride received many useful presents. Their many friends wish them a happy prosperous journey through life.

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet and very pretty wedding took place yesterday morning at 6.30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, 49 Water Street, Charlottetown, when their daughter Addie was united in marriage with Donald Mathieson, formerly of Brookvale and now of Charlottetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Heaney in the presence of a few immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride, who wore a beautiful blue serge travelling suit, was given away by her father and the wedding march was played by Miss Florence A. Bell. The presents to the bride were numerous and costly some coming from friends in Casanopee, the former home of the family. The groom's present to the bride was an elegant musk-rat coat. The young couple left by the Earl Grey for a short trip to Montreal and other Canadian cities. They were accompanied as far as Pictou by a few friends.
