THOUSANDS WILL BE PRESENT TO-DAY.

The Exhibits are Larger and More Varied than before. The Showing of Fruit and Vegetables will Make Every Native Thrill with Pride at Provincial Resources.

The entries this year in all the different classes, save perhaps a few of the minor ones, are by far the largest in the history of our Island exhibitions and considerably in excess of the managers' anticipations. Especially is this true in the fruit show, while the live stock, and also the general lot of exhibits in the Building fairly taxed the capacity of the different departments.

There is on exhibition ten volumes of an encyclopedia for use of students at the institute. Mr. Moran has also on exhibition a shorthand textbook just issued by the Phonographic Institute. In one corner is a mimeograph on which students do their work. Mr. Moran also gives exhibitions of fast shorthand writing on a blackboard. Illustrated literature is being distributed including the new College prospectus just issued and highly creditable to the institution.

SURPRISE TO DOCTORS.

Most doctors are astonished at the results obtained by Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema, salt rheum and itching skin diseases which are often considered well nigh incurable. Professor Earle's Entertainment

In the Opera House Last Night

Presents a Liberal Bill, Scoring a Success Gratifying to Patrons and Participants.

A Full House, as Enthusiastic as Full.

enjoyed the three hours varied bill presented by Prof. Earle last evening. In thanking the audience the Professor stated the evenings succeeding would be still more interesting—more enjoyable they could not well be.

The curtain raiser was a funny farce, capably acted, its dialogue witty, its situations mirth provoking. While honors were equal undeniably, Mr. Meuser was a trump and a life line at that.

A song by Miss Macdonald, one of the Professor's most promising pupils, was warmly applauded. We regretted the encore elicited only a bow.

The Rev. Leo Williams is singing for us his swan's song. The limited space admits of but a limited criticism. He has kept the best wine till the last. He sang in fine voice and with a warmth of expression that always carries his audience. His encore Don Caesar's magnificent "Let me like a soldier fall" is a fitting valedictory for one who has generously given himself as far as the war musical is concerned.

Some bright dances by Masters Arthur Warburton, and Scott and a cotillon by Miss Monaghan gave a agreeable variety to the programme.

An interpolated song by Mr. Wilson of Springhill, N.S. accompanied by the Rev. G. I. Foster proved a most enjoyable number and was enthusiastically recalled. The Orchestra gave some enjoyable numbers. There came the piece de resistance "Trial by Jury."

Mr. Dugwell was a good (the jury said) defendant. Their lauders, I mean wren's, were laid at the feet of the very winsome Plaintiff, Miss Mollie Warburton, whose debut on the operatic stage was most auspicious.

The defendant's counsel Miss Amy Earle was as ever—more than satisfactory. The Judge acted, sang and chose well. The whole performance was highly enjoyable and should bespeak bumper houses. Tonight will be a heavier and more spectacular opera.

JAPS RECEIVING REINFORCEMENTS

A General Advance Will be Made All Along the Line Very Shortly.

PORT ARTHUR HAS STILL PLENTY OF COAL.

Fact Proved by Recent Photographs—Revelations of Russian Lack of Discipline Found at Abandoned Headquarters—British Torpedo Destroyer Goes to the Bottom.

ORPEDO DESTROYER SUNK.

LONDON, Sept. 27 (Special)—The British torpedo destroyer Orpedo, was lost off the island of Cephalos.

A blade flew off her propeller, piercing a hole in the boat's bottom.

JAPS ASSUME THE OFFENSIVE.

The Japs have assumed the offensive against the Russian positions north of Liao Yang (Mukden) but there is no other fresh news from the front.

PLENTY OF COAL.

The correspondent of the Daily Mail says:

"Photographs received from Port Arthur, which were taken as late as Sept. 14, show that piles of coal stacked on the Tiger's Tail at the beginning of the war are still there."

RUSSIANS LACK DISCIPLINE.

The Daily Mail's Liao Yang correspondent says: "The discovery in abandoned Russian headquarters here of a number of documents and orders from Viceroy Alexieff cashiering officers for abandoning positions and for drunkenness, etc., and censuring officers for lawlessness, etc., and other offences, proves an amazing lack of discipline in General Kuropatkin's army."

JAPS ARE REINFORCED.

A delayed despatch from Mukden tells that the Japanese do not appear to be moving, but it is believed that they will begin a general advance within a day or two.

They are continuously receiving reinforcements.

IN OUR GRANDFATHER'S YOUTH.

Paralysis is almost unheard of in the youth of our grandparents, and nearly every newspaper contains a record of someone being stricken with this dreadful form of helplessness. Paralysis is in reality a starving of the nerves, and can always be prevented by the timely use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, a preparation which has no rival as a creator of nerve force.
