What are Peps

Peps are the new treatment for coughs, colds and lung troubles. They are little tablets made up from Pine extracts and medicinal essences. When put into the mouth these medicinal ingredients turn into healing vapors, which are breathed down direct to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes. The Peps treatment is direct. Swallowing cough mixtures into the stomach, to cure ailments and disorders in throat and lungs, is indirect. Peps are revolutionizing the treatment of colds and their price is within the reach of all. All dealers, 50c. box. Send 1c. stamp for FREE TRIAL PACKAGE.

KILLED IN ACTION

Pte. Neil Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Ross, Pinette, enlisted in the 105th Battalion, Feb. 15th, 1916 and was a member of D. Company. His Battalion landed in England, July 25th of the same year.

He was transferred to the 104th Battalion, later to the 13 Reserve, crossed to France in the early part of April last, and served with the 26th Canadian Battalion, until he met his death on August 28th 1918, at the early age of twenty-four years.

Pte. Ross is survived by his parents, one brother John R. at home, and two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Stake, Kennebuak, Me. and Margaret, at home, who will ever cherish the memory of a kind and affectionate son and brother.

Oct. 14th, 1918.

Dear Mr. Ross,

In the absence of my friend Capt. A. J. MacDonald—the protestant Chaplain, I take upon myself the liberty of replying to your letter of Sept. 17th. It was during our great advance East of Amiens that your gallant brother met his death. We were temporarily held up by a strong enemy position, and matters were looking quite grave when D. company charged. After a brief hand to hand struggle they killed or captured the entire garrison, thus enabling the entire Battalion to advance. It was in this fight that your brother, together with his company commander, three of his officers and a number of his comrades fell. They were buried near the place and crosses were erected above their graves, Neil was a good soldier. The generous nature, the deep religious feeling and the personal courage, peculiar to Highlanders, were all his, without a thought of self, he gave his life in the cause of justice and liberty, and after all, what better death could any one of us desire? What manner of death could hold brighter prosects for a glorious future? You can always think of him with pride, for as a soldier and a man, he reflected credit on his dear ones.

Please accept my condolence at your loss,

Very sincerely yours
CAPT. RONALD C. MACGILLIVARY,
Catholic Chaplain,
26th Battalion, Can.

P.E.I. Presbytery Quarterly Session

The Presbytery of Prince Edard Island met yesterday in quarterly session, Rev. J. A. Greenlees, Moderator, in the chair. There were persent, Revs. Dr. Fullerton, Messrs. J. M. McLeod, J. D. McKenzie, J. M. McLeod, Valleyfield, George Irvine, W. H. McEwen, Donald McLean, J. S. McKay, W. A. McQuarrie, T. W. Goodwill, R. Murray and the Rev. W.H. Spencer who was asked to correspond; also Messrs. J. A. Lawson, T. C. James, J. Murray and Hugh McMillan, Elders.

Atter a good deal of routine business Presbytery took up consideration of the rsignation of Rev. George Irvine of the pastoral charge of New London. The congregation having been cited, Messrs. Murray, Gillispie, McLeod, McNeill and McKenzie were heard in support of the retention of Mr. Irvine. All made sympathetic allusion to his recent bereavement and gave expression to the strong place Mr. Irvine holds in the affections of the people. The desire to retain Mr. Irvine was so strong that the commissioners offered him several months holidays. Mr. Irvine, however, after thanking them for their kindly words, adhered to his resignation. The following motion was adopted: That this Prsbytery regretfully accepts the resignation to take effect on and after this date and at the same time places on record its sympathy with the congregation in the loss sustained by the death of Mrs. Irvine and the retirement of Mr. Irvine from the field.

The following committee was appointed to deal with the remits and report at next March meeting Misses McQuarrie, Mitchell and Goodwill.

Presbytery ordered that steps be taken as soon as possible to secure regular supply for Richmond Bay West.

A letter was read in connection with the proposed increase for widows and orphans and also for aged and infirm ministers and Dr. Fullerton and Mr. Greenlees were apointed a committee to consider the whole question and report at next meeting.

The Rev. W. H. Spencer, Agent for the Augmentation Work, was requested to visit the Valleyfield congregation immediately on the ban being lifted and to report the result of the visitation to the members of the Home Mission Committee.

OUR boys on the battlefield begin when the bugle calls, and they quit when God calls—and NOT before! True patriotism knows no limit of "service"—the service to fight for the ground on which our cradle stood!

The time has come that demands of us all to help finance this service, this great undertaking of our HEROES at the Front!

So let us all remember when the Victory Loan Man calls that what we PLAN to do is always LESS than what we CAN do if we realize what we MUST do to help conquer the Dragon of the Rhine!
